

THE HUMILIATED CHRIST IN MODERN RUSSIAN THOUGHT

The author writes :

Long before Russian thought was mature enough to face the doctrine of kenosis, the attention of the Russian people was struck by the evangelical call to meekness, poverty, humility and obedience. The popularity of a type representing these qualities, whether in history, literature or devotion, seemed to us fair matter for our investigation. The figure of the humiliation of Christ, unconsciously felt and expressed in the accounts of some historical lives, in folk-lore and in secular literature, and finding its final expression in theology, is among the most constant features. In the case of Russia the "kenotic" type of life, thought and character, far from being a result of intellectual investigation, preceded it.
