The Ideology Of Racism:

The Ideology of Racism Samuel Kennedy Yeboah, 1988 A comprehensive and well researched study which highlights the contributions made by peoples of African descent to the treasure house of global civilisation whilst critically examining the attempts to conceal and undermine these works Now in its second edition Education and the Ideologies of Racism Madan Sarup, 1991 Handbook of Racism, Xenophobia, and Populism Adebowale Akande, 2022-12-08 This handbook presents the roots of symbolic racism as partly in both anti black antagonism and non racial conservative attitudes and values representing a new form of racism independent of older racial and political attitudes By doing so it homes in on certain historical incidents and episodes and presents a cogent analysis of anti black Jim Crowism anti people of color Black Latino Native Americans and prejudice that exists in the United States and around the world as a central tenet of racism The book exposes the reader to the nature and practice of stereotyping negative bias social categorization modern forms of racism immigration law empowerment racialized incarceration and police brutality in the American heartland It states that several centuries of white Americans negative socializing culture marked by widespread negative attitudes toward African Americans are not eradicated and are still rife Further the book provides a panoramic view of trends of racial discrimination and other negative and desperate challenges that Black Indigenous and People of Color face across the world Finally the volume examines xenophobia racism prejudice and stereotyping in different contexts including topics such as Covid 19 religion and racism information manipulation and populism The book therefore is a must read for students researchers and scholars of political science psychology history sociology communications media studies diplomatic studies and law in general as well as ethnic and racial studies American politics global affairs populism and discrimination in particular

The Ideology of Religious Studies Timothy Fitzgerald, 2000 Arguing that the concept of religion should be abandoned Fitzgerald maintains that the so called study of religions is really a barely disguised form of liberal ecumenical theology on the basis of his own research in Japan and India

Race and Racism in the United States Charles A. Gallagher, Cameron D. Lippard, 2014-06-24 How is race defined and perceived in America today and how do these definitions and perceptions compare to attitudes 100 years ago or 200 years ago This four volume set is the definitive source for every topic related to race in the United States In the 21st century it is easy for some students and readers to believe that racism is a thing of the past in reality old wounds have yet to heal and new forms of racism are taking shape Racism has played a role in American society since the founding of the nation in spite of the words all men are created equal within the Declaration of Independence This set is the largest and most complete of its kind covering every facet of race relations in the United States while providing information in a user friendly format that allows easy cross referencing of related topics for efficient research and learning The work serves as an accessible tool for high school researchers provides important material for undergraduate students enrolled in a variety of humanities and social sciences courses and is an outstanding ready reference for race scholars The entries provide readers with comprehensive content supplemented by historical backgrounds relevant examples from primary documents and first hand accounts Information is presented to interest and appeal to readers but also to support critical inquiry and understanding A fourth volume of related primary documents supplies additional reading and resources for research

Marx and Haiti Wulf D. Hund, 2023-10-31 Although modern racism was fully developed by their time Marx and Engels did not engage in a theoretical discussion of its essential features This analytical silence is investigated in the chapter Marx and Haiti Notes on a Blank Space At the same time the chapters of this volume demonstrate that and why the principles of a historical materialist analysis of society present links for a critical theory of racism In the chapter Dehumanization and Social Death Fundamentals of Racism this is shown concerning the various historical shapes of racisms caused by different forms of class relations The chapter Racismflq Birth of a Concept connects the conceptual history of racism with the socio historical conflicts of differently affected social groups Finally the chapter A Historical Materialist Theory of Racism Introduction addresses basic elements of a Marxist analysis of racism It elucidates the necessity of a theoretical conjunction of classist and racist discrimination as well as the historical differentiation of racisms

Why Race Still Matters Alana Lentin, 2020-04-22 Why are you making this about race This question is repeated daily in public and in the media Calling someone racist in these times of mounting white supremacy seems to be a worse insult than racism itself In our supposedly post racial society surely it's time to stop talking about race This powerful refutation is a call to notice not just when and how race still matters but when how and why it is said not to matter Race critical scholar Alana Lentin argues that society is in urgent need of developing the skills of racial literacy by jettisoning the idea that race is something and unveiling what race does as a key technology of modern rule hidden in plain sight Weaving together international examples she eviscerates misconceptions such as reverse racism and the newfound acceptability of race realism bursts the I'm not racist but justification complicates the common criticisms of identity politics and warns against using concerns about antisemitism as a proxy for antiracism Dominant voices in society suggest we are talking too much about race Lentin shows why we actually need to talk about it more and how in doing so we can act to make it matter less

The Ideological Foundations of Qing Taxation Taisu Zhang, 2023-02-09 This survey of the fiscal history of China's last imperial dynasty explains why its ability to tax was unusually weak It argues that the answer lies in the internal ideological worldviews of the political elite rather than in external political or economic constraints

Race Frameworks Zeus Leonardo, 2015-04-26 This is a comprehensive introduction to the main frameworks for thinking about conducting research on and teaching about race and racism in education Renowned theoretician and philosopher Zeus Leonardo surveys the dominant race theories and more specifically focuses on those frameworks that are considered essential to cultivating a critical attitude toward race and racism The book examines four frameworks Critical Race Theory CRT Marxism Whiteness Studies and Cultural Studies A critique follows each framework in order to analyze its strengths and set its limits The last chapter offers a theory of race ambivalence which combines aspects of all four theories into one framework Engaging and cutting edge Race Frameworks is a foundational text suitable for courses in education and critical race studies

Understanding Bonhoeffer Peter Frick, 2017-05-23 How are we to understand Bonhoeffer In these essays Peter Frick attempts to answer this question by examining different aspects of Bonhoeffer's thought thus illuminating the hermeneutical philosophical theological and social dimensions of his writings All sixteen essays collected here were written between 2007 and 2014 some of them address the question of methodology others contribute to Bonhoeffer's intellectual formation and still others seek to connect with contemporary questions The aim of the volume is to present Bonhoeffer's key theological and philosophical ideas and to emphasize their contemporary relevance A Reckoning with Racism Augie Fleras, 2022-11-07

The politics of racism have returned with a bang What was once a whisper is now a roar in the wake of public outrage over charges of police racism that claimed the lives of racialized minorities and Indigenous peoples Yet confusion and uncertainty unsettle the challenge of clarifying the nature and scope of racism in general systemic racism in particular resulting in a glaring disconnect between public perceptions and lived experiences Reckoning with Racism is themed around the prospect of problematizing the idea of racism as articulated understood and debated in response to new realities emergent demands and contested dynamics A profoundly new racism world is evolving one so fundamentally different from the iterations of the past as to trigger a foundational shift in reconceptualizing how we see think and talk about and act on racism Changing the conversation on racism must also acknowledge its uncanny knack of reinventing itself while intersecting with other axes of identity and differentiation to amplify the inequalities of exclusion Mediated Racism and Democracy in Canada Ahmed

Al-Rawi, 2025-09-22 Based on studying political systems and the news industry this book examines the tension between the hierarchical configurations of racial discrimination and the ideals of equality found in Western democracy to explore how and why the reality of racism persists in modern day democratic societies Taking Canada as a case study of a multicultural society it uses a mixed methods approach to present insights from racialized politicians and journalists that explore how they navigate the issues of democracy and racism Drawing on empirical critical race theory it addresses crucial knowledge gaps about the political realities of people of color in a democratic nation and how they perceive these experiences to impact the functioning and progress of democracy It will therefore appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in race and racism multiculturalism democracy and critical race theory Conservatism and Racism, and Why in America They Are the Same

Robert C. Smith, 2010-09-09 In this provocative wide ranging study Robert C Smith contends that ideological conservatism and racism are and always have been equivalent in the United States In this carefully constructed and thoroughly documented philosophical historical and empirical inquiry Smith analyzes conservative ideas from John Locke to William F Buckley Jr as well as the parallels between the rise and decline of the Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s and 1970s and the ascendancy of the conservative movement to national power in 1980 Using archival material from the Reagan library the book includes detailed analysis of the Reagan presidency and race focusing on affirmative action the Voting Rights act the

Grove City case welfare reform South Africa policy and the Martin Luther King Jr holiday Conservatism and Racism and Why in America They are the Same goes beyond a focus on the right wing concluding with an analysis of the enduring impact of the conservative movement and the Reagan presidency on liberalism race and the Democratic Party The African Diaspora in the Austrian Political Economy: A Marxist Analysis Mathias Sajovitz, 2008-10-12 More than 25 000 people of African descent are living in Austria one of the richest political economies in the world that is part and parcel of one of the strongest neo imperialist blocks in the form of the European Union Migration of Africans to Austria thus must be seen in the context of global capitalism which has harmfully impacted on the global South by means of neo imperialism and thus has led to migration to the global North Byreferring to Marxist theory more particularly world systems theory and Marxist migration theory the book at hand examines the African Diasporain Austria from a twofold perspective First it illustrates the role of Austria in the global economy after World War II and during the emergence of global turbo capitalism Second the narrative illustrates how people deprived of their livelihoods on the African continent become subjects of exploitation and discrimination in Austria via the asylum route Nurturing Strangers Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, Jane Hall Fitz-Gibbon, 2018-12-07 Nurturing Strangers focuses on loving nonviolent re parenting of children in foster care This book is a jargon free mix of narrative and real life case studies together with the theory and practice of nonviolence Nurturing Strangers and the authors previous book Welcoming Strangers are the first books to apply philosophies of nonviolence directly to the care of children in the foster care system One of their strengths is that the books are not merely theoretical but rooted in the practice of nonviolence with children for over thirty years Nurturing Strangers is for foster carers caseworkers case managers social work students and parents as well as the general reader interested in children who have been victims of violence in and out of the foster care system
