Wine Stefan K. Estreicher,2006 There are many books that explore actual physical sacred space and pilgrimage sites This is a different kind of book It introduces seven traditional sacred spaces but then leads readers into a deeper reflection on what such sacred space means in our own lives and experience The various sacred spaces explored are the Celtic Cross the infinite knot hilltops wells and springs causeways and bridges thresholds and burial grounds and boundaries In each chapter the author introduces a sacred space as the main theme and then illustrates this by associating it with a particular stage of life and a particular sacramental experience The ideas are then brought together by means of a scripture story The Wine

Pioneers Anton Massel,2008 At first there were the horticulturists and wine growers then came the wine makers the coopers and the cellar masters Inevitably there were wine shippers and wine merchants Chemists and biologists added their skills in the past two centuries and only very recently came the oenologists and the professional wine tasters Wine writers play an important role in today s wine trade and there were always wine connoisseurs and wine snobs From 5000BC to the modern day this book provides a chronological history of the wine pioneers through the ages Encyclopedia of
