Genesis Survey: Understanding the First Book of the Bible Edwin Walhout,2016-04-02 Does this view of Genesis violate the doctrine of revelation inspiration and authority of the scriptures Indeed not Surely God could and did inspire the unknown persons who wrote and compiled Genesis to write as they did using whatever sources were at hand The authority of Biblical versions of ancient legends is not diminished by having been adapted from pre existing documents of the world from which Abraham came We may believe that God was in control of the process by which these documents were transmitted as well as of the modifications made to these ancient documents in the Hebrew accounts There is no reason to think that the resulting documents which we now have are any less important and authoritative than if they had been provided by God by direct insertion into the minds of the authors We may have confidence that the final result of the editorial process by which the Bible came to be written is precisely what God wanted it to be
