The Maccabean Martyrs As Saviours Of The Jewish Pe:

The Maccabean Martyrs as Saviours of the Jewish People Jan Willem van Henten, 2021-11-22 This volume deals with the presentation of the so called Maccabean martyrs and the elder Razis in 2 and 4 Maccabees discussing the religious the political as well as the philosophical aspects of noble death in these writings It argues that the theme of martyrdom is a very important part of the self image of the Jews as presented by the authors of both works Eleazar the anonymous mother with her seven sons and Razis should therefore be considered heroes of the Jewish people. The first part of the book discusses the sources and the second part deals with the descriptions of noble death This section of the book also offers extensive discussions of related non Jewish traditions which highlight the political patriotic dimension of noble death as described in 2 Neither Jew nor Greek? Judith Lieu, 2015-11-19 A ground breaking study in the formation of early and 4 Maccabees Christian identity by one of the world's leading scholars In Neither Jew Nor Greek Judith Lieu explores the formation and shaping of early Christian identity within Judaism and within the wider Graeco Roman world in the period before 200 C E Lieu particularly examines the way that literary texts presented early Christianity She combines this with interdisciplinary historical investigation and interaction with scholarship on Judaism in late Antiquity and on the Graeco Roman world The result is a highly significant contribution to four of the key questions in current New Testament scholarship how did early Christian identity come to be formed How should we best describe and understand the processes by which the Christian movement became separate from its Jewish origins Was there anything special or different about the way women entered Judaism and early Christianity How did martyrdom contribute to the construction of early Christian identity The chapters in this volume have become classics in the study of the New Testament and for this Cornerstones edition Lieu provides a new introduction placing them within the academic debate as it is now From Martyr to Mystic Ra'anan S. Boustan, 2005 This study provides a critical analysis of Nurcholish Madjid's attempt to interpret Islam within the framework of modern Indonesia Special attention is paid to his ideas and activities during the years leading to the 1998 downfall of President Soeharto and the development towards democracy that followed Although many of these ideas have been embraced by significant sectors of official Indonesia they have also received harsh criticism from the representatives of more conservative interpretations of Islam and more recently from secular Muslims as well BOOK JACKET Passion, Persecution, and Epiphany in Early Jewish Literature Nicholas Peter Legh Allen, Pierre J. Jordaan, József Zsengellér, 2020-04-08 This volume examines Jewish literature produced from c 700 B C E to c 200 C E from a socio theological perspective In this context it offers a scholarly attempt to understand how the ancient Jewish psyche dealt with times of extreme turmoil and how Jewish theology altered to meet the challenges experienced The volume explores various early Jewish literature including both the canonical and apocryphal scripture Here reference is often made to a divine epiphany a moment of unexpected and prodigious revelation or insight as a response to abuse suffering and passion Many of the chapters deal with these issues in relation to the Antiochan crisis of 169 to 164 B C E in Judea one of the more notable periods of oppression This watershed event appears to have served as a catalyst for the new apocalyptic texts which were produced up until c 200 C E and which reflect a new theological dynamic in Judaism one that informed subsequent Christianity and Rabbinic Judaism Passion Persecution and Epiphany in Early Jewish Literature will be of interest to anyone working on the Bible both Masoretic and LXX and early Jewish literature as well as students of Jewish history and the Levant in the classical period Jewish Martyrs in the Pagan and Christian Worlds Shmuel Shepkaru, 2006 This book presents a linear history of Jewish martyrdom from the Hellenistic period to the high Middle Ages Following the chronology of sources the study challenges the general consensus that martyrdom was an original Hellenistic Jewish idea Instead Jews like Philo and Josephus internalized the idealized Roman concept of voluntary death and presented it as an old Jewish practice The centrality of self sacrifice in Christianity further stimulated the development of rabbinic martyrology and the talmudic guidelines for passive martyrdom However when forced to choosed between death and conversion in medieval Christendom Ashkenazic Jews went beyond these quidelines sacrificing themselves and loved ones Through death not only did they attempt to prove their religiosity but also to disprove the religious legitimacy of their Christian persecutors While martyrs and martyrologies intended to show how Judaisim differed from Christianity they in fact reveal a common mindset Violence, Scripture, and Textual Practices in Early Judaism and Christianity Raanan Shaul Boustan, Alex P. Janssen, Calvin J. Roetzel, 2010 This volume analyzes the emergence of Jewish and Christian discourses of religious violence within their Roman imperial context with an emphasis on the shared textual practices through which authoritative scriptural traditions were redeployed to represent legitimate and indeed sacralize violence Religious Violence in the Ancient World Jitse H. F. Dijkstra, Christian R. Raschle, 2020-10-01 Much like our world today Late Antiquity fourth seventh centuries CE is often seen as a period rife with religious violence not least because the literary sources are full of stories of Christians attacking temples statues and pagans However using insights from Religious Studies recent studies have demonstrated that the Late Antique sources disguise a much more intricate reality The present volume builds on this recent cutting edge scholarship on religious violence in Late Antiquity in order to come to more nuanced judgments about the nature of the violence At the same time the focus on Late Antiquity has taken away from the fact that the phenomenon was no less prevalent in the earlier Graeco Roman world This book is therefore the first to bring together scholars with expertise ranging from classical Athens to Late Antiquity to examine the phenomenon in all its complexity and diversity throughout Antiquity An Apocryphal God Mark McEntire, 2015 Mark McEntire continues the story begun in Portraits of a Mature God extending his narrative beyond the conclusion of the Hebrew Bible as Israel and Israels God moved into the Hellenistic world The narrative McEntire perceives in the apocryphal literature describes a God protecting and guiding the scattered and persecuted a God responding to suffering in revolt and a God disclosing mysteries yet also hidden in the symbolism of dreams and visions McEntire here provides a coherent and compelling account of theological perspectives in the writings of Hellenistic Judaism The Talmud - A Personal Take Daniel Boyarin, 2018-01-15 This collection of Daniel Boyarin's previously uncollected essays on the Talmud represents the different methods and lines of inquiry that have animated his work on that text over the last four decades Ranging and changing from linguistic work to work on sex and gender to the relations between formative Judaism and Christianity to the literary genres of the Talmud in the Hellenistic context he gives an account of multiple questions and provocations to which that prodigious book gives stimulation showing how the Talmud can contribute to all of these fields The book opens up possibilities for study of the Talmud using historical classical philological anthropological cultural studies gender and literary theory and criticism As a kind of intellectual autobiography it is a record of the alarums and excursions of a life in the Talmud and the Origins of Rabbinic Judaism Alexei Sivertsev, 2022-01-04 This book suggests a new approach to the social history of Jewish religious movements in the Second Temple and early Rabbinic periods It argues that most of these movements and their traditions emerged within the context of complex interaction between traditional families and disciple circles The first part of the book examines the development of Jewish religious movements during the Second Temple period It culminates with the discussion of the Dead Sea Sect which is analyzed as the first unambiguous example of a movement shifting from a social structure based on families to a social structure based on disciple circles. The second part of the book discusses the history of pharisaic and early rabbinic movements from a similar perspective Topics covered in the book will be of interest to scholars of Judaism and Early Christianity Post-mortem Divine Retribution Angukali Rotokha, 2023-05-31 While a Christian understanding of divine judgement tends to focus on the afterlife the Hebrew Bible is far more concerned with divine retribution as something experienced in this life Yet if the same God enacts both should there not be significant continuity between biblical accounts of divine retribution whether experienced in this world or the hereafter In this study Dr Angukali Rotokha provides an overview of Old Testament and Second Temple sources that express conceptions of post mortem judgement Alongside these passages she examines the perspective on judgement presented in Deuteronomy with its orientation towards divine retribution as experienced on this side of death She explores Deuteronomy's varying emphases on the impersonal anthropocentric theocentric and limited aspects of divine retribution as well as the relevance of these conceptions to the descriptions of post mortem judgement found in Isaiah Daniel 1 Enoch and 2 Maccabees In clarifying points of continuity and discontinuity between earthly and post mortem divine retribution she provides a foundation for deeper insight into the Judeo Christian understanding of both God's judgement and God's grace The Construct of Identity in Hellenistic Judaism Erich S. Gruen, 2016-09-12 This book collects twenty two previously published essays and one new one by Erich S Gruen who has written extensively on the literature and history of early Judaism and the experience of the Jews in the Greco Roman world His many articles on this subject have however appeared mostly in conference volumes and Festschriften and have therefore not had wide circulation By putting them together in a single work this will bring the essays to the attention of a much broader scholarly readership and make them more readily available to students in the fields of ancient history and early Judaism The pieces are quite varied but develop a number of connected and related themes Jewish identity in the pagan world the literary representations by Jews and pagans of one another the interconnections of Hellenism and Judaism and the Jewish experience under Hellenistic monarchies and the Roman empire The Pseudepigrapha and Christian Origins Gerbern S. Oegema, James H.
