The Iban Of Sarawak:

The Iban of Sarawak Vinson H. Sutlive, 1978 This book focuses on the independence geographic social mobility of the Iban culture of Borneo The Iban of Sarawak Vinson H. Sutlive, 1988 Migration and Its Alternatives Among the Iban of Sarawak Christine Padoch, 1983 Iban Or Sea Dayak Fabrics and Their Patterns Alfred C. Haddon, Laura E. Start, 2011-04-14 This 1936 memoir was the first investigation into and illustration of the beautiful and intimate patterns of Iban textiles Haddon began his study of these native fabrics and garments with the collection in the Sarawak museum Kuching His own collection is now in the Cambridge Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology Rajahs and Rebels Robert Pringle, 1970 Iban of Sarawak, 1988 Emotion Concepts of the Ibans in Sarawak Lilly Metom, 2013-01-31 This book explains the emotion concepts of the Ibans one of the indigenous peoples in Sarawak Malaysia It is an outcome of a research study which aims to analyse the Iban emotion concepts utilizing Natural Semantic Metalanguage NSM an analytical tool developed by Anna Wierzbicka 1991 and the concrete abstract cultural continuum framework a framework introduced by J Vin DCruz and G Tham 1993 and later J Vin DCruz and William Steele 2000 NSM enables emotion terminologies in Iban to be explicated and further defined along the concrete abstract cultural continuum framework The respondents of this study were the village community of Sbangki Panjai a longhouse located in Lubok Antu Sarawak The findings reveal the core cultural values that underlie the peoples behaviours in the ways they express their emotions The complex rules of logic called adat and the rules of speaking in this speech community are discussed in detail in this book which explain the Ibans communicative behaviours Although the semantic analysis of the emotion words is exhaustive and comprehensive it is necessary in order to reveal the complete meaning of the emotions being examined without creating ethnocentric bias Thus this book essentially describes how the Ibans relate themselves to others in their interaction Place and Cultural Identity Among the Iban of Sarawak, Malaysia Carol S. Jennings, 1990 Modernization Among the Iban of Sarawak Peter Mulok Kedit, 1975 The Ritual Lament of the Iban of Sarawak Motomitsu Uchibari, 1986 The Ending of Tribal Wars Jürg Helbling, Tobias Schwoerer, 2021-03-24 All over the world and throughout millennia states have attempted to subjugate control and dominate non state populations and to end their wars This book compares such processes of pacification leading to the end of tribal warfare in seven societies from all over the world between the 19th and 21st centuries It shows that pacification cannot be understood solely as a unilateral imposition of state control but needs to be approached as the result of specific interactions between state actors and non state local groups Indigenous groups usually had options in deciding between accepting and resisting state control State actors often had to make concessions or form alliances with indigenous groups in order to pursue their goals Incentives given to local groups sometimes played a more important role in ending warfare than repression In this way indigenous groups in interaction with state actors strongly shaped the character of the process of pacification This volume s comparison finds that pacification is more successful and more durable where state actors mainly focus on selective incentives for local groups to renounce warfare offer protection and only as a last resort use moderate repression combined with the quick establishment of effective institutions for peaceful conflict settlement

Report on the Iban Derek Freedman, 2021-01-07 The Iban or the Sea Dayaks of Sarawak have probably been the best known of the indigenous peoples of Borneo for well over a century Much has been written about them but until the results of Dr Freeman's field research were published by the Government of Sarawak and by Her Majesty's Stationery Office in 1955 there was little information on their methods of agriculture and their social system The book has become a landmark in the studies of shifting cultivation and of cognatic kinship organization and the ideas around which it is written have proved over the years to be a continuing and powerful stimulus in the development of kinship theory The field work on which the account is based was undertaken from 1949 to 1951 Although fundamental changes have taken place in the life of the Iban since the book was first published it has been decided to republish it substantially unaltered
