The Icicle Thief:

Maurizio Nichetti's The Icicle Thief Silvia Carolosi, 2001 New York Magazine, 1993-02-01 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The second practice of nineteenth-century tonality William Kinderman, Harald Krebs, 1996-01-01 In 1861 a half century before Arnold Schoenberg's break with tonality a young composer associated with Liszt saw a threshold to musical modernism as lodged in the suspension of the main key As the unified tonal perspective of earlier music yielded increasingly to dualistic key structures often laden with chromaticism the language of music was transformed In The Second Practice of Nineteenth Century Tonality nine prominent theorists and historians explore aspects of this musical evolution from Schubert to the end of the nineteenth century Many works discussed are masterpieces of the performance repertory ranging from Chopin's piano pieces and Wagner's music dramas to the symphonies of Bruckner The integration of analytical and historical approaches in the essays seeks to avoid narrow specialization as well as the polemic stance of some recent studies A critical assessment of issues including intertextuality narrative and dramatic symbolism enriches this investigation of what may be described as the second practice of nineteenth century tonality After Fellini Millicent Joy Marcus, 2002-06-05 In this work Marcus interprets a body of work that managed to transcend the decline of Italian cinema's prominence within the industry during the last two decades of the 20th century A Short History of Film, Third Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2018-03-30 With more than 250 images new information on international cinema especially Polish Chinese Russian Canadian and Iranian filmmakers an expanded section on African American filmmakers updated discussions of new works by major American directors and a new section on the rise of comic book movies and computer generated special effects this is the most up to date resource for film history courses in the twenty first century The Movie Guide James Monaco, 1992 From The Big Sleep to Babette's Feast from Lawrence of Arabia to Drugstore Cowboy The Movie Guide offers the inside word on 3 500 of the best motion pictures ever made James Monaco is the president and founder of BASELINE the world's leading supplier of information to the film and television industries Among his previous books are The Encyclopedia of Film American Film Now and How to Read a Film The Routledge Handbook of Emotions and Mass Media Katrin Döveling, Katrin Döveling, Christian von Scheve, Elly A. Konijn, 2010-10-04 The impact of mass media on individuals and society is to a great extent based on human emotions Emotions in turn are essential in understanding how media messages are processed as well as media's impact on individual and social behavior and public social life Adopting an interdisciplinary approach to the study of emotions within a mass media context the Handbook of Emotions and Mass Media addresses areas such as evolutionary psychology media entertainment sociology cultural studies media psychology political communication persuasion and new technology Leading experts from across the globe explore cutting edge research on issues including the evolutionary functions of mediated emotions emotions and media entertainment measurements of emotions within the context of mass media media violence fear evoking media politics and public emotions features forms and functions of emotions beyond the message and provide the reader a glimpse into future generations of media technology This compelling and authoritative Handbook is an essential reference tool for scholars and students of media communication studies media psychology emotions cultural studies sociology and other related disciplines

Sound and Horror in the Giallo Film

Damien Pollard,2025 The Italian giallo was a sleazy violent and stylistically baroque form of horror film that was produced in the hundreds from the 1960s to the 1980s Sound and Horror in the Giallo Film listens closely to these films asking how their soundtracks and their use of the human voice can help us understand the giallo s significance at a time when Italy was undergoing profound postwar social economic political and cultural change Throughout the history of Italian cinema soundtracks have been a site of concerted and sustained intervention by political and economic forces In Sound and Horror in the Giallo Film author Damien Pollard argues that because the giallo film pushed the boundaries of film form while also touting unapologetic commercialism the voices on its soundtracks were both aesthetically exaggerated and directly shaped by commercial imperatives which were influenced by Italy s turbulent postwar years Featuring case studies of several well known giallo films including The Girl Who Knew Too Much The Bird with the Crystal Plumage and Tenebrae Sound and Horror in the Giallo Film is an original analysis that reveals how the cinematic voice binds film and history

Science Fiction Film Directors, 1895-1998

Dennis Fischer,2011-07-01 This enormous and exhaustive reference book has entries on every major and minor director of science fiction films from the inception of cinema circa 1895 through 1998 For each director there is a complete filmography including television work a career summary a critical assessment and behind the scenes production information Seventy nine directors are covered in especially lengthy entries and a short history of the science fiction film genre is also included

A Short History of Film, Fourth Edition

Wheeler Winston Dixon,Gwendolyn Audrey Foster,2025-10-14 This updated and expanded edition of A Short History of Film provides an accessible overview of the major movements directors studios and genres from the 1880s to the present Succinct yet comprehensive with more than 250 rare stills and illustrations it brings readers face to face with many of the key players and films that have shaped the industry Beginning with the precursors of moving pictures Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster lead a fast paced tour through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day They detail significant periods in world cinema including the creation of early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s They also highlight independent efforts in developing nations and the corresponding more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States Along the way the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Compact and easily readable this is a vital history of international cinema is a one stop resource for students teachers and general readers alike

Picturing Japaneseness Darrell William Davis,1996 Explores the role of 1930s Japanese cinema in the construction of a national identity and in the larger context of Japan s encounter and struggle with the West and modernity Davis lends a new perspective to such celebrated films as Gate of Hell Kagemusha and Ran New York Magazine ,1990-11-05 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Loiterature Ross

Chambers,1999-01-01 The fabric of the western literary tradition is not always predictable In one wayward strand waywardness itself is at work delay becomes almost predictable triviality is auspicious and failure is cheerfully admired This is loiterature Loiterature is the first book to identify this strand to follow its path through major works and genres and to evaluate its literary significance By offering subtle resistance to the laws of good social order loiterly literature blurs the distinctions between innocent pleasure and harmless relaxation on the one hand and not so innocent intent on the other The result is covert social criticism that casts doubt on the values good citizens hold dear values like discipline organization productivity and above all work It levels this criticism however under the guise of innocent wit or harmless entertainment Loiterature distracts attention the way a street conjurer diverts us with his sleight of hand If the pleasurable has critical potential may not one of the functions of the critical be to produce pleasure The ability to digress Ross Chambers suggests is at the heart of both and loiterature s digressive waywardness offers something to ponder for critics of culture as well as lovers of literature The Media in Italy Matthew Hibberd,2007-12-16 The Italian media the press cinema radio and television is one of the largest and most controversial media industries in mainland Europe In this introductory text Matthew Hibberd explores the key historical processes and events in the growth and development of Italy s main media and considers it in the context of the economic political socio cultural and technological movements that have affected Italy Featuring a timeline of key Italian events the book begins with the Unification or Risorgimento of Italy in 1861 and charts the rise of Italy from a fragmented and rural based society through to a leading industrialised and urbanised world power It details Fascism s reliance on the exploitation of the mass media analyses Italy s remarkable post war recovery the development of democratic institutions and the contribution that a pluralistic media has made to this Finally it examines Silvio Berlusconi s rise to high political office and questions whether the involvement of Italy s leading media mogul in politics has harmed Italy s international reputation The Media in Italy addresses key themes that show how the Italian state and Italian media operate such as How governing parties and individuals have been able to assert influence over media intuitions Why there is a close relationship between political elites and media professionals The lack of consensus over key media reforms The importance of the Catholic Church in the development of the Italian media How a unique Italian media system has been shaped by issues of citizenship democracy and nation state The Media in Italy is key reading for students on media journalism politics and modern language courses

The A to Z of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2009-10-12 The Italian cinema is regarded as one of the great pillars of world cinema Films like Ladri di biciclette 1948 La dolce vita 1960 and Nuovo cinema Paradiso 1988 attracted unprecedented international acclaim and a reputation which only continue to grow Italian cinema has produced such acting legends as Sophia Loren and Roberto Benigni as well as world renowned filmmakers like Federico Fellini Sergio Leone Mario Bava Dario Argento and Lina Wertmüller the first woman to ever be nominated for the Best Director award The A to Z of Italian Cinema provides a better understanding of the role Italian cinema has played in film history through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology

Humorous Texts Salvatore Attardo, 2010-12-14 This book presents a theory of long humorous texts based on a revision and an upgrade of the General Theory of Verbal Humour GTVH a decade after its first proposal The theory is informed by current research in psycholinguistics and cognitive science It is predicated on the fact that there are humorous mechanisms in long texts that have no counterpart in jokes The book includes a number of case studies among them Oscar Wilde's Lord Arthur Savile's Crime and Allais story Han Rybeck A ground breaking discussion of the quantitative distribution of humor in select texts is presented

How the Movies Saved Christmas William D. Crump, 2017-03-29 Santa Claus is in trouble Who will save Christmas This A to Z guide to holiday films television movies and series specials provides cast credits production information and commentary for 228 cinema Christmases that were almost ruined by villains monsters spirits secularism greed misanthropy or elf error but were saved by helpful animals magic snowmen selfless children or compassionate understanding Reviews and references are included

The Fluctuating Sea Saygin Salgirli, 2021-08-12 This volume fluctuates between conceptualizations of movement either movements that buildings in the medieval Mediterranean facilitated or the movements of the users and audiences of architecture From medieval Anatolia to Southern France and the Genoese colony of Pera across Constantinople The Fluctuating Sea investigates how the relationship between movement and the experiences of a multiplicity of users with different social backgrounds can provide a new perspective on architectural history The book acknowledges the shared characteristics of medieval Mediterranean architecture but it also argues that for the majority of people inhabiting the fragmented microecologies of the Mediterranean architecture was a highly localized phenomenon It is the connectivity of such localized experiences that The Fluctuating Sea uncovers The Fluctuating Sea is a valuable source for students and scholars of the medieval Mediterranean and architectural history
