The Image Of The Turk In Europe:

The Image of the Turk in Europe from the Declaration of the Republic in 1923 to the 1990s Nedret Kuran Burçoğlu, 2000
The Image of the Turk in Europe Alexandrine N. St. Clair, 1973     The Image of the Turk in Europe Alexandrine N. St. Clair, 1973     Historical Image of the Turk in Europe Mustafa Soykut, 2003     Reflections on the Image of the Turk in Europe Nedret Kuran Burçoğlu, 2009     Historical Image of the Turk in Europe Mustafa Soykut, 2010 The European view of the Turk is taken up in this series of articles which address the representations of Turks and Turkey from the Ottoman period until the present     Images of the »Turk« in Italy Mustafa Soykut, 2021-10-11 No detailed description available for Images of the Turk in Italy     “The Turk” in the Czech Imagination (1870s-1923) Jitka Malečková, 2020-09-29 In The Turk in the Czech Imagination 1870s 1923 Jitka Male kov describes Czechs views of the Turks in the last half century of the existence of the Ottoman Empire and how they were influenced by ideas and trends in other countries including the European fascination with the Orient images of the Turk contemporary scholarship and racial theories The Czechs were not free from colonial ambitions either as their attitude to Bosnia Herzegovina demonstrates but their viewpoint was different from that found in imperial states and among the peoples who had experienced Ottoman rule The book convincingly shows that the Czechs mainly viewed the Turks through the lenses of nationalism and Pan Slavism in solidarity with the Slavs fighting against Ottoman rule     Imagology Manfred Beller, Joseph Theodoor Leerssen, 2007 How do national stereotypes emerge To which extent are they determined by historical or ideological circumstances or else by cultural literary or discursive conventions This first inclusive critical compendium on national characterizations and national cultural or ethnic stereotypes contains 120 articles by 73 contributors Its three parts offer 1 a number of in depth survey articles on ethnic and national images in European literatures and cultures over many centuries 2 an encyclopedic survey of the stereotypes and characterizations traditionally ascribed to various ethnicities and nationalities and 3 a conspectus of relevant concepts in various cultural fields and scholarly disciplines The volume as a whole as well as each of the articles has extensive bibliographies for further critical reading Imagology is intended both for students and for senior scholars facilitating not only a first acquaintance with the historical development typology and poetics of national stereotypes but also a deepening of our understanding and analytical perspective by interdisciplinary and comparative contextualization and extensive cross referencing     Imagined, Embodied and Actual Turks in Early Modern Europe Bent Holm, Mikael Bøgh Rasmussen, 2021-07-23 The confrontation between European countries and the expanding Ottoman Empire in the early modern era has played a major role in numerous fields of history The aim of this book is to investigate the European Ottoman interrelations from three angles One deals with the circumstances How did the Europeans meet the Turks in pragmatic and diplomatic connections Another concerns imagery how were the Turks depicted in literature and art The third examines performativity how were the Turks inserted into plays operas and ceremonies This book confronts mental visual and embodied images with historical positions and conditions The focus therefore is on the dynamic interactive processes of experience embodiment and imagination in context Bringing together Turkish and European scholars it applies a number of research strategies used by historians to the history of art literature music and theatre Contributions by P I cs Robert Born Asli irakman Anne Duprat Kate Fleet Bent Holm Marcus Keller Maria Pia Pedani Mogens Pelt Mikael B gh Rasmussen G nsel Renda Pia Schwarz Lausten Charlotte Colding Smith Suna Suner Dirk Van Waelderren

Frontier Orientalism and the Turkish Image in Central European Literature Charles D. Sabatos, 2020-01-02 This comparative study analyzes the ways that Central European writers used stereotypes of the Turks to develop their national identities from the early modern period to the present Charles D Sabatos uses Andre Gingrich s concept of frontier Orientalism to foreground his analysis of Central European Orientalism designating the nations of the former Habsburg Empire as the occident and the Turks as the oriental Other This study applies theoretical approaches to literary history as developed by scholars such as Stephen Greenblatt and Linda Hutcheon to a range of texts from the early modern period the nineteenth century national revivals interwar independence and the communist and postsocialist regimes By following these depictions across literatures and over an extensive historical period this study illustrates how the Turkish stereotype evolved from a menace to a more abstract yet still powerful metaphor of resistance and finally to a mythical figure that evoked humor as often as fear Imagining 'the Turk' Božidar Jezernik, 2009-12-14 A human being is a symbolic creature and to the same extent an active inventor of otherness Europe and Turkey The West and the Balkans are infinitely exploitable symbols Any symbol inherently polysemic and socially construed is continuously contested and negotiated The image of the Turk as a ruthless plunderer is still vivid in European collective memory Although it occasionally still verges on ethnic mythology it clearly belongs to a past where along with the plague and famine this name used to be mentioned in prayers more frequently than that of God itself In the past the name Turk implied the negative of the European self image The Turk assuming the role of the defining other was considered as everything a European was not primitive barbarian savage vs civilised As such this concept was one of the constitutive elements of European Western cultural identity The aim of this book is nothing less than a better understanding of the European past related to the Ottomans An intellectual traveller who takes his Orient Express at Victoria however will have to get off somewhere half way and spend some time in the part of Europe set between the Alps and the Adriatic before ending his journey in Istanbul

Discourse, Identity and the Question of Turkish Accession to the EU Catherine MacMillan, 2016-05-23 Discourse Identity and the Question of Turkish Accession to the EU Through the Looking Glass provides an invaluable analysis of the issues of Turkish accession to the EU The focus on elite discourse provides a new and engaging approach to this contentious topic and offers a unique understanding of the competing arguments within the EU regarding the question of Turkey s accession and the differing visions for the European Union that underlie them Utilising the Habermasian Theory of Communicative Action Catherine MacMillan focuses on how political elites from the member states and EU institutions engage with the issue analyses the different attitudes to the Turkish candidacy to the EU and explores the wider implications and competing visions of the EU the differences highlight By closely examining the different ways that EU elites view and react to this issue vital lessons about the potential wider enlargement of the union to central and eastern Europe can be drawn      Discourses on Türkiye in the European Parliament Sezgi Erdoğan, 2025-02-12

This book analyses how Türkiye and Europe were discursively constructed through the representations of Türkiye in the European Parliament EP between 2007 and 2015 By providing an in depth analysis of the discursive representations of Türkiye in the EP the book discusses the European perception of Turkish identity and in turn reveals the different visions of Europe that these EP discourses relationally construct in Türkiye s de Europeanization process compared to its Europeanization process in the 1997 2007 term This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Political Sociology International Relations Discourse Analysis European Studies Turkish Studies and Identity Studies      Europe in Motion

Maurizio Bach, 2006 Die europäische Integration ist ein zunehmend umstrittenes Thema weil die Europäische Union nicht nur den Umfang ihrer politischen Kompetenzen ausweitet sondern zugleich auch die Zahl ihrer Mitglieder vergrößert Die Erweiterung fordert insbesondere die europäischen Institutionen heraus und bringt substantielle Reformen auf die Tagesordnung um deren Funktionsfähigkeit zu sichern Zugleich müssen sich die Institutionen dem Problem stellen eine Reihe von Gesellschaften mit spezifischen historischen Entwicklungspfaden und besonderen sozialen Rissen zu integrieren Der Band Europe in Motion versammelt fundierte Einblicke in diesen janusköpfigen Vorgang Zum einen widmen sich die Beiträge den institutionellen Anpassungsprozessen und den gesellschaftlichen Auswirkungen die durch die Erweiterung in Gang gesetzt wurden Zum anderen nehmen die Autoren die sich verändernde soziale Architektur der EU in den Blick soziale Konflikte Solidarität und Identität Potentiale für institutionelle Regulierung Der Sammelband plädiert nachdrücklich dafür da die Institutionalisierung der EU Rücksicht auf die Spezifika der einzelnen europäischen Gesellschaften nimmt um institutionelle Fehlanpassungen Verteilungskonflikte und soziale Spaltungen zu vermeiden      Representations and Othering in Discourse

Beyza Ç Tekin, 2010 This volume examines the construction of Turkey s possible European Union accession in French political discourse In today s France heated debates regarding Turkey s EU membership are turning into an essential part of European identity formation Once again the Turkish Other functions as a mirror for defining not only the European Self but also European values By providing a genuine and multi disciplinary approach for studying the Otherness attributed to Turkey this book contributes to our understanding of the Self Other nexus in International Relations Within a Critical Discourse Analysis framework this study explores the socio historical basis of the construction of Turkey s Otherness in an attempt to identify the processes through which past memories representations images and fantasies regarding Turkey are inserted into the French social imaginary Focusing on these significations which are reproduced and become manifest through language this book strives to uncover the link between discourse and political action Beyza Tekin s book helps us make sense of the complexities in an unusually detailed and explicit way by deploying the sophisticated techniques we now have for the analysis of discourse This is a book with historical depth It is also a book that offers precise analysis Historians sociologists policymakers as well as discourse analysts all have much to learn from this book Paul Chilton University of Lancaster This is an original and insightful study of the construction of Turkey in French political discourse and offers a valuable analysis of the formation of European identity Gerard Delanty University of Sussex From the Saracen slayer to the ally of renaissance Kings to civilisation s apprentice to hotly contested EU applicant here the changing social fact of Turkey in French discourse is given its fullest treatment to date Iver B Neumann author of Uses of the Other the East in European Identity Formation

Negotiating Transcultural Relations in the Early Modern Mediterranean Stephen Ortega, 2016-04-22 Negotiating Transcultural Relations in the Early Modern Mediterranean is a study of transcultural relations between Ottoman Muslims Christian subjects of the Venetian Republic and other social groups in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Focusing principally on Ottoman Muslims who came to Venice and its outlying territories and using sources in Italian Turkish and Spanish this study examines the different types of power relations and the social geographies that framed the encounters of Muslim travelers While Stephen Ortega does not dismiss the idea that Venetians and Ottoman Muslims represented two distinct communities he does argue that Christian and Muslim exchange in the pre modern period involved integrated cultural economic political and social practices Ortega s investigation brings to light how merchants trade brokers diplomats informants converts wayward souls and government officials from different communities engaged in similar practices and used comparable negotiation tactics in matters ranging from trade disputes to the rights of male family members to guarantees of protection In relying on sources from archives in Venice Istanbul and Simancas the book demonstrates the importance of viewing Mediterranean history from a variety of perspectives and it emphasizes the importance of understanding cross cultural history as a negotiation between different social cultural and institutional actors Images of Islam, 1453-1600 Charlotte Colding Smith, 2015-10-06 Using evidence from contemporary printed images Smith examines the attitudes of Christian Europe to the Ottoman Empire and to Islam She also considers the relationship between text and image placing it in the cultural context of the Reformation and beyond Postcolonial Approaches to the European Middle Ages Ananya Jahanara Kabir, Deanne Williams, 2005-03-10 This collection of original essays is dedicated to exploring the intersections between medieval and postcolonial studies Ranging across a variety of academic disciplines from art history to cartography and from Anglo Saxon to Hispanic studies this volume highlights the connections between medieval and postcolonial studies through the exploration of a theme common to both areas of study translation as a mechanism of and metaphor for cultures in contact confrontation and competition Drawing upon the widespread medieval trope of the translation of empire and culture this collection engages the concept of translation from its most narrow lexicographic sense to the broader applications of its literal meaning to carry across It carries the multilingual multicultural realities of medieval studies to postcolonial analyses of the coercive and subversive powers of cultural translation offering a set of case studies of translation as the transfer of language culture and power

Albrecht Dürer and the Depiction of Cultural Differences in Renaissance Europe Heather Madar, 2023-07-31 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of Dürer's depictions of human diversity focusing particularly on his depictions of figures from outside his Western European milieu Heather Madar contextualizes those depictions within their broader artistic and historical context and assesses them in light of current theories about early modern concepts of cultural ethnic religious and racial diversity The book also explores Dürer's connections with contemporaries his later legacy with respect to his imagery of the other and the broader significance of Nuremberg to early modern engagements with the world beyond Europe The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Renaissance studies and Renaissance history
