The Aging Gap Between Species Anca Ioviță, 2016-12-18 Aging is a puzzle to solve This process is traditionally studied in a couple of biological models like fruit flies worms and mice What all these species have in common is their fast aging This is excellent for lab budgets It is a great short term strategy Who has time to study species that live for decades But lifespan differences among species are magnitudes of order larger than any lifespan variation achieved in the lab This is the reason for which I studied countless information resources in an attempt to gather highly specialized research into one easy to follow book I wanted to see the forest among the trees I wanted to expose the aging gap between species in an easy to follow and logical sequence This book is my attempt at doing just that What are the mechanisms underlying the aging gap between species I intentionally chose to write the answer to this question in plain English Aging research is too important to hide it behind the closed doors of formal scientific jargon This book could not have existed if green tea libraries and the Internet were not invented The amount of data I had to browse in order to keep the essential patterns is huge Yet this book is not exhaustive This is not a dry academic textbook I tried to instill life in a topic that is hugely important for the extension of human lifespan Only you can decide if I achieved this TABLE OF CONTENTS Finding the Forest Among the Trees Being Reliable Counts The Mathematics of Aging The Speed of Senescence Case Study Aging in Fish How to Estimate

Rudin,1996 It s true Specific fats play a crucial role in protecting us from many serious diseases from heart disease to cancer to manic depressive illness Certain fats also have an impact on such everyday complaints as dry skin intestinal troubles and achy joints The problem for most of us is that we hear only about one or two of these good fats and figure that by including some healthy oils in our diets we're covered What we don't realize is that by not understanding what makes a good fat good we unknowingly create imbalances in our systems that may lead to these terrible disorders despite our best intentions In The Omega 3 Oils pioneering researcher and physician Dr Donald Rudin tells us how we can improve our physical and mental health by correcting these imbalances Dr Rudin shows how different fats act within our body and how modern food processing techniques have stripped a vital family of oils the Omega 3 fatty acids out of our food He discusses his groundbreaking Omega 3 study in which people suffering from a variety of chronic ailments showed remarkable improvement after taking oil rich in Omega 3 in combination with other healthful supplements He then shows the connection between Omega intake and a variety of modern day health concerns including heart disease skin problems reproductive difficulties in both men and women pregnancy and breastfeeding mental health and the problems we experience as we age Finally Dr Rudin presents the Omega Program to help bring our diet and our health back into balance Free Radicals and Aging Ingrid Emerit,Chance,2013-03-13

Among the various theories proposed to account for the process of aging the free radical theory is of practical interest since it includes the possibility of retarding this process by administering natural or synthetic antioxidants and free radical scavengers The book Free Radicals and Aging summarizes knowledge accumulated during recent years in 42 reviews written by experts in the field Aspects of free radical involvement in the intrinsic aging process and in age related diseases as well as the importance of the pro antioxidant balance throughout life are discussed Epidemiological studies from several European countries are reported showing correlations between low plasma levels of essential antioxidants and the occurrence of coronary heart disease cancer and cataract formation Appropriate nutrition as well as prophylactic and therapeutic use of antioxidants are considered This book represents a milestone in the field of age related free radical biology and medicine With contributions by A Azzi B Chance R G Cutler H Esterbauer P H Evans F Gey C Guarneri D Harman N I Krinsky M Meydani J Miquel A Mori L Packer C Rice Evans M Simic A Taylor T Yoshikawa

The Future of Aging ,2010-08-17 Just as the health costs of aging threaten to bankrupt developed countries this book makes the scientific case that a biological bailout could be on the way and that human aging can be different in the future than it is today Here 40 authors argue how our improving understanding of the biology of aging and selected technologies should enable the successful use of many different and complementary methods for ameliorating aging and why such interventions are appropriate based on our current historical anthropological philosophical ethical evolutionary and biological context Challenging concepts are presented together with in depth reviews and paradigm breaking proposals that collectively illustrate the potential for changing aging as never before The proposals extend from today to a future many decades from now in which the control of aging may become effectively complete Examples include sirtuin modulating pills new concepts for attacking cardiovascular disease and cancer mitochondrial rejuvenation stem cell therapies and regeneration tissue reconstruction telomere maintenance prevention of immunosenescence extracellular rejuvenation artificial DNA repair and full deployment of nanotechnology The Future of Aging will make you think about aging differently and is a challenge to all of us to open our eyes to the future therapeutic potential of biogerontology

Molecular Biology of Aging Avril D. Woodhead, Anthony D. Blackett, Alexander Hollaender, 2013-11-22 It is delightful but humbling to find my face at the start of these Proceedings there are innumerable other faces which could equally well stand there from among the band who have fore gathered at every gerontology conference since the subject was launched in its present form but I deeply appreciate being there Gerontology did not grow by accident Its present standing is the fruit of careful planning undertaken by European and American scientists back in the 1950 s In those days it was still a fringe science and the conspirators had much the standing of the 1920 s Interplanetary Society The United States itself is the offspring of conspiracy for when the results of conspiracy are beneficent the conspirators become Founding Fathers This has been the case with gerontology The present meeting is especially gratifying because the papers have been recitals of normal hard science investigation We had to get through the rigors of a long period of semantic argument and a long period of one shot general theories before this kind of meeting normal in all other research fields could take place It was also necessary to breed in the menagerie a generation of excellent investigators aware of the theoretical background but unintimidated by it who share our conviction that human aging is comprehensible and probably controllable and who go into the laboratory to attack specifics
