of Mary's prerogative as Coredemptrix Being (the Church) Beyond the South-North-divide Andrea Fröchtling, 2003 This book testifies to the fact that the embodiment of ideas of partnership can occur in many ways Contributors from South Africa and Germany engage in a search for identities in othernesses and for common ground beyond the divide Seventeen contributions address a variety of partnership related issues ranging from ecumenical hermeneutical foundations to practical applications Andrea Fröchtling is teacher in Celle Germany Ndanganeni Phaswana is a bishop in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Southern Africa Central Diocese Voices from the Borderland Chris Shannahan, 2016-04-01 Urban theology affirms the importance of context notably the place of the city in theological reflection However it has often been confined to particular contexts or theological camps and thus failed to engage with the fluidity of contemporary urban societies Voices from the Borderland presents an overview of urban theology arguing that the twenty first century demands a dialogical model of theology that enacts progressive change The volume draws on studies of the multicultural and multi faith British urban experience and situates these within the wider international context The works of influential theologians in the field are examined and the dialogue between theology globalisation post colonialism postmodernism and post religious urban culture critically explored The volume is unique in bringing together urban liberation theology urban black theology reformist urban theology globalisation urban theology and post religious urban theology Divine Freedom and the Doctrine of the Immanent Trinity Paul D. Molnar, 2017-02-23 Divine Freedom and the Doctrine of the Immanent Trinity is widely acclaimed by scholars in the field of Christian systematic theology Molnar's quest to place the doctrine of the immanent Trinity on the agenda of the Christian doctrine of God has proven to be a signal contribution to the debate in contemporary Christian theology The material in this second edition has been thoroughly updated it contains a new preface and a new introduction as well as a revised bibliography The book includes a brand new chapter titled Divine Freedom Revisited which addresses those questions that have arisen in connection with Molnar's original presentation of the divine freedom Molnar revisits here his discussion of the Logos Asarkos the theologies of Karl Rahner and Wolfhart Pannenberg He sheds new light on Rahner's and Torrance's discussions of the Resurrection and incorporates modern discussions by contemporary theologians to offer new insights into Eberhard Jüngel's thinking Introducing Feminist Christologies Lisa Isherwood, 2002-03-01 This volume critically engages with the problems traditional Christology raises for feminist theology It also explores the creative engagements of feminist theologians with the person of Jesus Loathsome Jews and Engulfing Women Andrea Freud Loewenstein, 1995-06 Biases held by artists have been a constant source of controversy in appraisals of their works most recently in critiques of such authors as H L Mencken and Paul de Man Should the belief systems of these thinkers be taken into account in assessing the value of the works which they made public Andrea Freud Loewenstein here undertakes to address this crucial issue At the heart of her study is an examination of the figures of Jew and woman in the works of three British male authors written between 1929 and 1945 While instances of misogyny and anti

Semitism were not uncommon in the literature of the period Loewenstein argues that a hatred and fear of women was often the dominating preoccupation of their work from which stemmed the intertwined and closely related loathing of Jews Basing her interpretations on biographical information and on the close analysis of a large body of fiction by each author Loewenstein reconstructs the psychological system through which each one envisions the world showing how Jews and women function in their texts and in each individual psychopathology as a representation of the Other Ranging far beyond a narrow study of three authors Loewenstein situates the works studied in the context of the history of Jews in Britain concentrating on recent historical scholarship on Britain and the Jews in the 1930s She questions the widespread belief that the British government was a friend to the Jews and shows as evident in the double talk and hypocrisy behind some British governmental policies that Britain instead actively collaborated in the Jews destruction To provide a greater context for her argument Loewenstein presents a timeline of the history of the Jews in Britain Firmly grounded in a range of disciplines Loathsome Jews and Engulfing Women is a masterful blend of history psychology and literary criticism Vladimir Solov'ëv William Peter van den Bercken, Manon de Courten, Evert van der Zweerde, 2000 Vladimir Solov'ev 1853 1900 is regarded as the most original and systematic of the Russian philosophers in the 19th century He has once again become the subject of international scholarly attention both in Slavic countries and the West This volume contains selected papers presented at the international conference on Vladimir Solov'ev held at Nijmegen University the Netherlands in September 1998 The scope of this conference was wide ranging dealing with theological metaphysical philosophical and historical themes Though Solov'ev's broad intellectual activity defies any strict attempt at categorisation the editors have classified its major themes under the dual characteristic of reconciliation and polemics Solov'ev was passionately committed to the reconciliation of all beings under the idea of all unity which he attempted to achieve by engaging in uncompromising polemics with his contemporaries The thirty contributors to this volume are specialists from Russia Ukraine Bulgaria Western Europe and the United States The volume makes a significant contribution to the intellectual reassessment of Vladimir Solov'ev since the rediscovery of his philosophical heritage in his own homeland in the 1980s In Defiance of History Victoria Leonard, 2022-02-16 This volume offers a counterbalance to the dismissal that Orosius's Histories Against the Pagans has suffered in most recent criticism Orosius is traditionally considered to be a mediocre scholar and an essentially worthless historian This book takes his literary endeavour seriously recognizing the unique contribution the Histories made at a crucial moment of debate and uncertainty where the present was shaped by restructuring the past The significance of the Histories is recognised intrinsically rather than only in comparison with other texts and authors principally Augustine of Hippo Orosius's mentor The approach of the book is historiographical exploring the form purpose and meaning of the Histories The themes of divine providence monotheism and imperial authority are examined and the subjects of war and the sack of Rome receive extended analysis The book foregrounds Orosius's significant historiographical innovations that are seldom explored such as the subversion of imperial history within a Christian spectrum in the synchronization of the emperor Augustus and Christ Each chapter contributes to the progression of knowledge about Orosius's Histories and the wider literary and historiographical culture of disruption that characterised the late fourth and early fifth centuries CE Living Witness Andy

Draycott, Jonathan Rowe, 2013-01-24 Because God calls his people to be a living witness to him morality is mission Conversely immorality is anti mission a failure to give true testimony or witness This in essence is the theme of this stimulating and challenging volume The whole life of the people of God not just verbal proclamation testifies to the church's faith or lack of faith in her Lord The contributors explain that mission and ethics are intricately and necessarily interwoven and explore why this is so by unpacking the biblical and theological roots of missional ethics probing its limits and exploring its possibilities through examination of some foundational themes and a selection of specific issues Intended primarily for pastors and church leaders this volume encourages reflection and conversation that will feed the life of the body of Christ Missional ethics concerns all the ways in which Christian ethical practice flows out of and supports and advances the wider mission of the church to proclaim the gospel The contributors are Brian Brock M Daniel Carroll R Jonathan Chaplin Guido de Graaff Sean Doherty Andy Draycott Joshua Hordern Matt Jenson Grant Macaskill Nathan Moser Jonathan Rowe Sarah Ruble and Christopher J H Wright The Augustinian Alternative Benjamin J. Wood, 2017-07-15 This book's central claim is that a close reading of Augustine's epistemology can help political theologians develop affirmative accounts of political liberalism This claim is set in a scholarly context that is profoundly hostile to constructive theological readings of liberal culture As a corrective to such antagonism this book suggests that far from being natural opponents Christian communities can work fruitfully with political liberals based on common principles A key component in this argument is the theological reevaluation of the ancient skeptical tradition While the ancient skeptics are habitually treated by scholars as minor characters in the story of Augustine's theological development this volume argues that they played a significant role in shaping both Augustine's theology and the subsequent character of the Augustinian tradition By placing Augustine's reading of the skeptics in dialogue with contemporary culture this book constructs a viable form of liberal Christian politics that is attentive both to his sensitive account of public life and his eschatological vision of the church Christian Unity Thomas Ryan, 2015

Aelred of Rievaulx (1110-1167) Pierre-André Burton, OCSO, 2020-12-15 This book places the life of Aelred of Rievaulx third abbot of the English Cistercian abbey of Rievaulx within the hundred year period from the Norman Conquest of England in October 1066 through Aelred's death in January 1167 While exploring what is known of Aelred's life from his own works and especially from the principal work of Walter Daniel author of The Life of Aelred of Rievaulx Burton considers the influence of both English and church history on Aelred's personality and purpose as Christian abbot and writer He emphasizes the place of the crucified Christ at the center of Aelred's life while calling spiritual friendship not only personal but cosmological the hermeneutic key to his teaching The Living Church, 1954 Spirit of Liberty George M.

Newlands, 2014-12-03 The themes covered in this collection of essays span a wide area from Christology and the doctrine of God to human rights and Christian spirituality and they were written and delivered in a variety of contexts from colleges to churches on both sides of the Atlantic. Some have been published previously while others are new. The papers speak from within the liberal tradition of theology and were written from 2005-14 following on an earlier volume Traces of Liberality. The author has added a biographical essay and a personal bibliography.
