The Incognito Lounge Denis Johnson, 1982 Incognito Lounge Denis Johnson, 2025-02-20 Real Things Jim Elledge, Susan Swartwout, 1999-03-22 What a great premise for an anthology And it succeeds both in its celebration of our crazy culture and its fascinating analysis through the poems of popular myths that have stood the test of time Kliatt In the past few decades poetry about and around popular culture has become a very hip contemporary art form Real Things is a collection of over 150 poems by more than 130 poets who themselves represent the cultural diversity of the United States With subjects ranging from the influence of Mickey Mouse on child raising to the relationship of Barbie to sex in America from the societal effects of the movie Psycho to our fascination with dirty politics and Ralph Kramden the poems in this anthology question and celebrate the attitudes that our society shares Where the Angels Come Toward Us David St. John, 1995 For almost twenty years from the publication of his seminal and highly influential collection of poems Hush to the appearance of the stunning Study for the World's Body New and Selected Poems David St John has been considered one of the most accomplished and innovative of all American poets Here for the first time David St John has selected from essays and reviews written over the course of his career about many of the major figures of our time W S Merwin Philip Levine Mark Strand Charles Wright Donald Hall Marvin Bell Donald Justice Jorie Graham and dozens of others and brought them together with six uncompromising and refreshingly candid interviews about the craft of poetry and the state of poetry today Always passionate about the poets he loves and always provocative in his poetic judgements David St John has given us a lucid and exciting volume of prose that all readers of poetry can turn to for both pleasure and instruction Back cover Just Business Julie Cannon, 2009-03-01 What should be just business becomes much more when two women agree to a deal that changes their lives Real estate tycoon Dillon Matthews in the middle of negotiating the deal of her life is stunned when the owner of the small parcel of land she desperately needs to complete her latest project presents the final condition she must meet to close the deal Callie Sheffield is struggling to pay the attorney she has hired to appeal her brother's conviction for a crime he didn't commit When Dillon and Callie meet by chance they realize each has what the other needs A simple business transaction will give them both what they need until love threatens to derail the negotiations Holding Patterns Daniel McGuinness, 2001-03-29 Argues that if poems are to matter in American culture they must be read rather than theorized over

Food and Loathing Betsy Lerner, 2004-02-23 The author traces her lifetime struggle with an eating disorder and depression describing how her size and self esteem were intertwined her experiences with support groups and therapy her education and the family secrets that haunted her recovery The Soho Press Book of '80s Short Fiction Dale Peck, 2016-06-07 In The Soho Press Book of 80s Short Fiction editor Dale Peck offers readers a fresh take on a seminal period in American history when Ronald Reagan was president the Cold War was rushing to its conclusion and literature was searching for ways to move beyond the postmodern unease of the 1970s Morally charged by newly politicized notions of identity but fraught with anxiety about a body whose fragility had been freshly emphasized by the AIDS epidemic the 34 works gathered here are individually vivid but taken as a body of work they challenge the prevailing notion of the 80s as a time of aesthetic as well as financial maximalism Formally inventive yet tightly controlled they offer a more expansive inclusive view of the era s literary accomplishments The anthology blends early stories from writers like Denis Johnson Jamaica Kincaid Mary Gaitskill and Raymond Carver which have gone on to become part of the American canon with remarkable and often transgressive work from some of the most celebrated writers of the underground including Dennis Cooper Eileen Myles Lynne Tillman and Gary Indiana Peck has also included powerful work by writers such as Gil Cuadros Essex Hemphill and Sam D Allesandro whose untimely deaths from AIDS ended their careers almost before they had begun Almost a third of the stories are out of print and unavailable elsewhere The Soho Press Book of 80s Short Fiction is a daring reappraisal of a decade that is increasingly central to our culture Will Alexander's Poetics Joshua Schuster,2025-09-26 This volume brings together academic and poetic essays which focus on Will Alexander s complete oeuvre The collection explores Alexander s long career in African American avant garde poetry and sheds light on other genres of Alexander s work in addition to poetry including essays plays aphorisms novels dialogues and drawings Each contribution contextualizes Alexander s work in the many traditions and literatures his work draws from including African American poetics ecopoetics post colonial and anti colonial poetics bio and geo histories and global practices of consciousness raising and spiritual transformation among other topics The volume also includes a new interview with Alexander as well as one of his long unpublished poems Alexander s writings are multi generic and traverse many fields and states of consciousness This edited collection thus provides a deep and sustained engagement with Alexander s work surveying how it has transformed the landscape of poetics the avant garde and the individual reader Both Flesh and Not David Foster Wallace,2024-09-24 Fifteen never before collected essays by one of America s most daring and talented writers all published in book form for the first time Los Angeles Times Book Review Never has Wallace s seemingly endless curiosity been more evident than in this compilation of work spanning nearly 20 years of writing Here Wallace turns his critical eye with equal enthusiasm toward Roger Federer and Jorge Luis Borges Terminator 2 and The Best of the Prose Poem the nature of being a fiction writer and the quandary of defining the essay the best underappreciated novels and the English language s most irksome misused words and much more Both Flesh and Not restores Wallace s essays as originally written and it includes a selection from his personal vocabulary list an assembly of unusual words and definitions Scarily astute For Wallace devotees these essays are required reading Booklist Displays the late author s vast intellectual curiosity showcase s Wallace s ever evolving intimate and often humorous relationship with language The New Yorker At their best these essays remind us of Wallace s arsenal of talents his restless heat seeking reportorial eye his ability to convey the physical or emotional truth of things with a couple of flicks of the wrist his capacity to make leaps from the mundane to the metaphysical with breathtaking velocity and ardor New

Williamson,1984 In this bold defense of so called confessional poetry Alan Williamson shows us that much of the best writing of the past twenty five years is about the sense of being or having a self a knowable personal identity The difficulties posed by this subject help explain the fertility of contemporary poetic experiment from the jaggedness of the later work of Robert Lowell to the montage like methods of John Ashbery from the visual surrealism of James Wright and W S Merwin to the radical plainness of Frank Bidart Williamson examines these and other poets from a psychological perspective giving an especially striking reading of Sylvia Plath Jesus' Son Denis Johnson,2009-10-13 American master Denis Johnson's
