Original, Translated, and Selected, 1876      Terrors of the Flesh David Huckvale, 2020-07-17 The horror and psychological denial of our mortality along with the corruptibility of our flesh are persistent themes in drama Body horror films have intensified these themes in increasingly graphic terms The aesthetic of body horror has its origins in the ideas of the Marquis de Sade and the existential philosophies of Arthur Schopenhauer and Friedrich Nietzsche all of whom demonstrated that we have just cause to be anxious about our physical reality and its existence in the world This book examines the relationship between these writers and the various manifestations of body horror in film The most characteristic examples of this genre are those directed by David Cronenberg but body horror as a whole includes many variations on the theme by other figures whose work is charted here through eight categories copulation generation digestion mutilation infection mutation disintegration and extinction innumerable minor tragedies that arise from clashes among religious and ethnic communities Focusing on central events such as the Partition of 1947 the assassination of Indira Gandhi in 1984 and more recent religious conflicts between India and Pakistan Nagappan demonstrates the differing ways that narratives engage the political violence that has marked the last fifty years of South Asian history Is it possible to tell fully the stories of those who have died and those who have survived Can writing really act as a counter to silence In his compassionate engagement with these concerns Nagappan demonstrates the relevance of literature and literary studies to fundamental sociological anthropological and political issues With its interdisciplinary scope historical perspective and lucid style Speaking Havoc is destined to become a foundational text for scholars of South Asian studies and postcolonial and cultural studies and for readers interested in trauma and social suffering as well as in the literature films and histories that take this field as their topic Paul Ray at the Hospital Peter Henry
