With 1 125 entries and 170 contributors this is the first encyclopedia on the history of classical archaeology. It focuses on Greek and Roman material but also covers the prehistoric and semi historical cultures of the Bronze Age Aegean, the Etruscans and manifestations of Greek and Roman culture in Europe and Asia Minor. The Encyclopedia of the History of Classical Archaeology includes entries on individuals whose activities influenced the knowledge of sites and monuments in their own time, articles on famous monuments and sites as seen, changed and interpreted through time, and entries on major works of art excavated from the Renaissance to the present day as well as works known in the Middle Ages. As the definitive source on a comparatively new discipline, the history of archaeology, these finely illustrated volumes will be useful to students and scholars in archaeology, the classics, history, topography, and art and architectural history. The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1992

Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences John D. McDonald, Michael Levine-Clark, 2017-03-15. The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences comprising of seven volumes now in its fourth edition compiles the contributions of major researchers and practitioners and explores the cultural institutions of more than 30 countries. This major reference presents over 550 entries extensively reviewed for accuracy in seven print volumes or online. The new fourth edition which includes 55 new entries and 60 revised entries continues to reflect the growing convergence among the disciplines that influence information and the cultural record with coverage of the latest topics as well as classic articles of historical and theoretical importance.

The Princeton Encyclopedia of Classical Sites Richard Stillwell, 2017-03-14. Here are over 1 000 pages of authoritative information on the archaeology of Greek and Roman civilization. The sites discussed in the more than 2 800 entries are scattered from Britain to India and from the shores of the Black Sea to the coast of North Africa and up the Nile. They are located on sixteen area maps keyed to the entries. The entries were written by 375 scholars from sixteen nations many of whom have worked at the sites they describe. Until now our knowledge of the Classical period has been scattered in hundreds of sources dating from antiquity to our own times. This volume provides essential information on work accomplished in progress and still to be undertaken. Originally published in 1976, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.
