endeavor that a person starts usually ends either in success or failure because this is how the world works and nothing will change until the Dnieper dries up But if in the first case when a person manages to cope with what he has conceived the individual goes publicly for each occasion to sound about his genius victory and success explaining in details to everyone he meets who is not at all interested in the details of the triumphant In the person of the narrator to Olympus In the second variant when the same person suffers a fiasco he invariably tries avoiding publicity and any explanations to find the perpetrators of failure in every possible way trying to lose responsibility for failure He does not find a place until he comes up with a story that he tells others whenever it comes to what is so unpleasant for a blundered individual People are cunning greedy unfair cruel and this you will agree is not a complete palette of human vices In everyone sits if not a fire breathing dragon abounding in all these far from the best qualities then a goggle eyed creature whose like the above sins are in an embryonic state ready to germinate at any moment in the blink of an eye appearing in all its abomination A person is egotistical selfish prone to pathos and hedonism Youth and Other Stories Mori Ōgai, 1994-05-01 Ōgai s 1862 1922 stature

About the book Out of Print in print A decade ago in 2010 Indira Chandrasekhar set up Out of Print to address a need she felt as a writer a focused platform for the short story a space for robust editorial discussions as well as one that would serve as a platform for discoveries of newer facets of the form itself and of new writing This commemorative volume hopes to capture something of that adventure It is thus not a best of volume but one that speaks to the spirit of the magazine its diversity of literary voices its openness to experimentation its focus on Indian language publishing and its stand against mediocrity Most crucially of course this is an ode to the short story form its art of brevity and honesty Catalogue of English Prose Fiction and Juvenile Books in the Chicago Public Library. Watchman Halfdan and His Little Granddaughter, and Fisherman Niels Norwegian Stories, 1878 Walking on Lava The Dark Mountain Project, 2017-07-14 The Dark Mountain Project began with a manifesto published in 2009 by two English writers Dougald Hine and Paul Kingsnorth who felt that literature was not responding honestly to the crises of our time In a world in which the climate is being altered by human activities in which global ecosystems are being destroyed by the advance of industrial civilisation and in which the dominant economic and cultural assumptions of the West are visibly crumbling Dark Mountain asked where are the writers and the artists Why are the mainstream cultural forms of our society still behaving as if this were the twentieth century or even the nineteenth Dark Mountain s call for writers thinkers and artists willing to face the depth of the mess we are in has made it a gathering point for a growing international network Rooted in place time and nature their work finds a home in the pages of the Dark Mountain books with two new volumes published every year Walking on Lava brings together the best of the first ten volumes along with the original manifesto This collection of essays fiction poetry interviews and artwork introduces The Dark Mountain Project s groundbreaking work to a wider audience in search of the hope beyond hope the paths which lead to the unknown world ahead of us Jewish Stories One Generation Tells Another Peninnah Schram, 1996-05-01 Peninnah Schram widely regarded as one of the great Jewish storytellers of our generation has collected and retold sixty four delightful Jewish folktales to create Jewish Stories One Generation Tells Another Ms Schram who believes that stories form the link between the generations helps forge that link with this book ensuring that these stories will continue to live and breathe in the modern world The life force animating these tales is almost tangible The printed words seem to vibrate as if the author possessed the voices of various tellers and lent their lilting tones and ripe inflections to the printed page Furthermore the laughter sobs and delighted cries of countless listeners also echo in these pages Schram who has written a thoughtful informative introduction for each story demonstrates on every page her belief that the stories connect to our lives And when the lifelike characters woven into Schram s magic tapestry suffer or enjoy the fates they most deserve we rejoice secure in their storybook world a world where justice however incomprehensible is always done and where we attain happiness by living in accordance with Jewish law and in harmony with the world s natural order Jewish Stories One Generation Tells Another abounds in a gentle wisdom that presses itself upon our complex and often self contradictory lives infusing us with patience tolerance and hope We identify with the kings and princes fools and beggars heroes and leaders villains and witches of yesteryear because though our lives are vastly different from theirs we share their moral choices and experience their dilemmas Schram joins Jewish storytellers throughout the ages linking past to present and preserving an invaluable legacy for generations yet unborn Gleason's Literary Companion ,1864 Brother Jonathan Horatio Hastings Weld,John Neal,George M.
