describes many mysterious traits that make the little girl's presence worth Penelope's long wait. That magical box that she has left back at her mother's house is a constant concern for her. It is filled with valuable little friends that only she can see and talk with. The mysterious story comes to an end as the little girl hurries back to her mother's house. The magical forest disappears as she turns to look back. Penelope is heard promising another story when she returns and reminds her to come back soon. Hope believes that it is not necessary that one should have the Mark to believe this story. She has stressed that having the mark is truly magnificent and believes in the possibility of other types of life in busy little cities or towns. The author wrote this book for the young at heart describing a mysterious magical fairy tale of fiction or was it?
