The Mandate Of The Church In The Apocalypse Of John:

The Mandate of the Church in the Apocalypse of John Olutola K. Peters, 2005 The Mandate of the Church in the Apocalypse of John fills a gap in the scholarly literature on the Apocalypse of John by offering a comprehensive discussion of what the Church is called upon to be and do. It delineates various tasks and functions of the Church showing how they relate to one another and also how they are all unified under the mandate to provide faithful witness to Jesus. With its strong emphasis on the ethical concerns of the Apocalypse, this book challenges the view that John's Apocalypse is sub-Christian in its ethics.

Why Mission? Dean Flemming, 2015-11-03 Recent years have seen heightened interest in how to read scripture from a missional perspective. This book addresses that question by exploring both how the New Testament bears witness to the mission of God and how it energizes the church to participate in that mission. It also makes a distinctive contribution by applying a missional reading to a variety of New Testament books, offering insights into New Testament theology and serving today's discussions about mission and the church. Dean Flemming has written a game-changing book on the interpretation of scripture for the mission of the church. This relatively slim but rich volume is absolutely mandatory reading for all serious students of the New Testament and for all who wish to understand the church's participation in the mission of God. It should be on the syllabus of every ecclesially focused course on the New Testament and every biblically attuned course in ecclesiology and in missiology.

Michael J. Gorman, Raymond E. Brown, Professor of Biblical Studies and Theology, St. Mary's Seminary and University, Baltimore, MD. I am always grateful when another book by Dean Flemming appears. His writing arises out of his significant cross-cultural experience, his outstanding scholarship, and his careful listening to the Spirit in the text. This book is written clearly and is full of nourishing insight.

Michael W. Goheen, Professor of Missiology, Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, MI, former Geneva Chair of Worldview Studies, Trinity Western University, Langley, BC, and Teaching Fellow in Mission Studies, Regent College, Vancouver, BC. Why mission is a critical question, one not asked or understood often enough. Here is a stirring reading of the New Testament that demonstrates a living triune God on mission, bringing redemption to the world through a living apostolic church. So much rich theological interpretation packed into a small book.

Nijay K. Gupta, assistant professor of New Testament, George Fox Evangelical Seminary, Portland, OR. Since writing The Mission of God, I have felt guilty that it paid so much more attention to a missional reading of the Old than of the New Testament. This fine book relieves me of that guilt. This is an outstandingly clear and faithful exposition of what it means to read the New Testament from the perspective of and with the intention of participating in the mission of God as revealed in the whole Bible.

Christopher J. H. Wright, International Ministries Director, Langham Partnership.

A Theology of Revelation J. Scott Duvall, 2025-03-25 A Theology of Revelation by J. Scott Duvall in Zondervan's Biblical Theology of the New Testament series provides a comprehensive look at the theology of John's Apocalypse. One of only a few dedicated theologies of Revelation, Duvall's book leaves no stone unturned in the study of the final book of the Christian canon.

Scripture This thoroughly researched study includes an investigation into the historical framework of the book authorship date and occasion and purpose a survey of literary theological foundations genre text and canonicity grammar and symbolic language use of the Old Testament literary structure and interpretation and a full literary theological reading of the book culminating in an exploration of the book s most significant theological themes God Jesus Christ the Holy Spirit the people of God worship discipleship salvation God s judgment of evil and the new creation Readers will find here a study that is clearly written attentive to the historical literary context with special attention given to the primary theological themes in the book Perhaps above all readers will have their hope in God and his amazing plan reinforced and strengthened Johannine Writings and Apocalyptic Stanley E. Porter, Andrew K. Gabriel, 2013-09-15 Johannine Writings and Apocalyptic provides a wide ranging and thorough annotated bibliography for John s Gospel the Johannine letters Revelation and apocalyptic writings pertinent to these books More inclusive than many other bibliographies this volume provides reference to over 1300 individual entries often including references to multiple works with a given description Annotations are designed to provide guidance to a wide range of readers from students wishing to gain entry to the subject to graduate students engaging in research to professors needing ready access to useful materials The volume is topically organized and indexed for easy access A Linguistic Approach to Revelation 19:11-20:6 and the Millennium Binding of Satan Alan E.

Kurschner, 2022-08-22 This study argues that the establishment of the millennium binding of Satan and the vindication of the saints in Revelation 20 1 6 are cohesively linked with Jesus s victorious battle in Revelation 19 11 21 The major implication of this analysis views both these events as consequent effects of Christ s victory at the eschatological battle Applying systemic functional linguistics and discourse analysis of cohesion this study advances critical scholarship on the Book of Revelation by offering the first fully sustained answer to this frequently debated question regarding Satan s binding from a modern linguistic approach Sacra Pagina: Revelation Wilfrid J. Harrington, OP, 2023-06-13 More than any other New Testament writing the Book of Revelation demands commentary Its often bewildering text is easily open to less than scholarly interpretation Priesthood and Temple in John's Apocalypse Timothy B. Tse, 2024-12-12 Timothy B Tse argues that while John uses language drawn from the Hebrew Bible s descriptions of YHWH s dwelling place scholarship has overlooked the importance of his spatial transformation of that language Tse thus uses theories relating to Relevance Resistance Theory Critical Space Theory and Conceptual Metaphor to demonstrate that a significant part of John s apocalyptic strategy of resistance is to re present his vision to his audience spatially so that they can experience a divinely ordained alternative to the world in which they live Tse first demonstrates John s attempts to relegate his audience s experience of space to his own revelation John s description of the visionary world creates the metaphors the earth is a Sanctuary and the Saints are its priests Tse argues that under this view life on earth must be evaluated according to the concerns of the Sanctuary which by definition requires the removal of everything impure and the Saints namely all Christians in both the historic and visionary worlds must take priestly responsibility for the earth John therefore portrays the Saints joining in the removal of all impurity upon the earth by fighting as priests in God and the Lamb's war against Satan Babylon and all her impurities Tse concludes that overall John means to realign the church's experience of space so that they understand themselves as priests of the Sanctuary and live according to that reality Drawing and Transcending Boundaries in the New Testament and Early Christianity Jacobus Kok, Martin Webber, Jemo van Nes, 2020-03-10 The construction of early Christian identity was a dynamic process in which social boundaries were drawn but also transcended The source documents of Christianity bear witness to the process and dynamics involved in the construction of insiders and outsiders determining who is to be included and who excluded In the super diverse and super mobile time in which we live identity boundaries are often drawn This volume explores not only New Testament and Early Christian texts to investigate these dynamics but also how contemporary ideology can shape the reading of scripture to exclude or include others Revelation Wilfrid J. Harrington, 2008 Revelation a prophetic apocalyptic letter is a profoundly Christian text Father Harrington is concerned to open up Revelation and to convey its Christian message After an introduction he provides a new translation of each section of the writing followed by notes which deal with matters of text and content that require clarification He then treats the passage as a whole by discussing its literary character its theological significance and its relevance to our situation Bibliographies direct the reader to important modern studies Father Harrington brings his scholarship to the Book of Revelation and conveys its Christian message He puts the work in its historical and social setting a first century c e province of the Roman Empire and explores its social and religious background and its literary character Through Father Harrington we hear clearly the challenge of John the prophet to the Churches of his time and to ours not to compromise the gospel message Johannine Theology Paul A. Rainbow, 2014-09-05 In this magisterial synthesis Paul A Rainbow presents the most complete account of the theology of the Johannine corpus available today Both critical and comprehensive this volume includes all the books of the New Testament ascribed to John the Gospel the three epistles and the book of Revelation A Dynamic Reading of the Holy Spirit in Revelation Hee Youl Lee, 2014-04-07 A Dynamic Reading of the Holy Spirit in Revelation attempts to read the book of Revelation in a new way as a narrative embracing literary elements such as plot point of view narrative voice character and story structure to help readers discover its meanings by tracing the story anew Lee's unique narrative perspective offers readers a bird's eye view to experience four levels of the story heaven earth abyss and the lake of fire Lee develops a theological account of John's pneumatology and surely extends Christian pneumatology a doctrine inseparable from the life of the church Readers will come away with a greater understanding of the role of the Holy Spirit which will enable them to enjoy a deeper fellowship with the Holy Spirit more intimately than ever before Lee portrays the book of Revelation as a mission oriented book that tells how the kingdom of God will be built in this world through spiritual warfare rather than as a book of eschatology Lee's book will serve as a spiritual wake up call to the modern church and the people of God in its accurate portrayal of the Holy Spirit and vivid description of spiritual warfare      The Temple and the Church's Mission G. K.
