Choudhury,2005-10-09 This volume takes a unique and challenging look at how money has operated in Islamic society and at how Islamic theoretical frameworks have influenced perceptions of money The author draws upon historical data and policy analysis to present a comparative study of monetary theories including recent treatment of money by Islamic economists Discussion also covers the nature of joint venture stock markets banks and financial intermediaries price stability and international trade This work sheds pioneering light in this area and will be of interest to academics graduates and researchers internationally

Globalizing Political Theory Smita A. Rahman, Katherine A. Gordy, Shirin S. Deylami, 2022-12-02 Globalizing Political Theory is guided by the need to understand political theory as deeply embedded in local networks of power identity and structure and to examine how these networks converge and diverge with the global With the help of this book students of political theory no longer need to learn about ideas in a vacuum with little or no attention paid to how such ideas are responses to varying local political problems in different places times and contexts Key features include Central Conceptual Framework Introducing readers to what it means to globalize political theory and to move beyond the traditional western canon and actively engage with a multiplicity of perspectives Organization Focused on key topics essential for an introductory class aimed at both globalizing political theory and showing how political theory itself is a globalizing activity Themes Colonialism and Empire Gender and Sexuality Religion and Secularism Marxism Socialism and Globalization Democracy and Protest and Race Ethnicity and Indigeneity Pedagogy Each chapter features theoretical concepts and definitions political and historical context key authors and biographical context textual evidence and exegesis from the foundational texts in that thematic area a list of discussion questions and a list of resources for further reading Committed to a multiplicity of perspectives and an active engagement between the global and the local Globalizing Political Theory connects directly with undergraduate and graduate level courses in political theory global political theory and non western political thought

Islam Without Fear Raymond William Baker, 2009-06-01 For the last several decades an influential group of Egyptian scholars and public intellectuals has been having a profound effect in the Islamic world Raymond Baker offers a compelling portrait of these New Islamists Islamic scholars lawyers judges and journalists who provide the moral and intellectual foundations for a more fully realized Islamic community open to the world and with full rights of active citizenship for women and non Muslims The New Islamists have a record of constructive engagement in Egyptian public life balanced by an unequivocal critique of the excesses of Islamist extremists Baker shows how the New Islamists are translating their thinking into action in education and the arts economics and social life and politics and foreign relations despite an authoritarian political environment For the first time Baker allows us to hear in context the most important New Islamist voices including Muhammad al Ghazzaly Kamal Abul Magd Muhammad Selim al Awa Fahmy Huwaidy Tareq al Bishry and Yusuf al Qaradawy regarded by some as the most influential Islamic scholar in the world today A potentially transformative force in global Islam the New Islamists define Islam as a civilization that engages others and searches for common ground through shared values such as justice peace human rights and democracy Islam without Fear is an impressive achievement that contributes to the understanding of Islam in general and the possibilities of a centrist Islamist politics in particular      Islam, Muslims and the Modern State Hussin Mutalib,Taj ul-Islam Hashmi,2016-07-27 This is the most recent and up to date study on the state of affairs in the Muslim world at a time when Muslims like others are confronted with the challenges posed by a rapidly changing new world order Some 15 countries and regions are covered in this scholarly collection The contributors are well informed academics and experts from 10 leading universities and institutes      The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 6, Muslims and Modernity: Culture and Society since 1800 Robert W. Hefner,2010-11-04 Unparalleled in its range of topics and geographical scope the sixth and final volume of The New Cambridge History of Islam provides a comprehensive overview of Muslim culture and society since 1800 Robert Hefner s thought provoking account of the political and intellectual transformation of the Muslim world introduces the volume which proceeds with twenty five essays by luminaries in their fields through a broad range of topics These include developments in society and population religious thought and Islamic law Muslim views of modern politics and economics education and the arts cinema and new media The essays which highlight the diversity and richness of Islamic civilization engage with regions outside the Middle East as well as within Islam s historic heartland Narratives are clear and absorbing and will fascinate all those curious about the momentous changes that have taken place among the world s 1 4 billion Muslims in the last two centuries      Islam's Perfect Stranger Edward Thomas,2010-11-23 Can Sudan one of Africa s most diverse countries function as an Islamic state Mahmud Muhammad Taha posed an original answer to this question Taha was the charismatic leader of the Republican Brothers and Sisters a small group of Sudanese nationalists who called for a mystical inclusive reinterpretation of Islam that ended traditional legal discriminations against women and non Muslims Taha s followers pitched his sometimes controversial mix of law and mysticism on Sudanese street corners in the 1970s Sudanese Islamist politicians who used a more divisive interpretation of Islam opposed him vigorously When they gained control of the state in the chaotic 1980s Taha was executed In Taha s first biography Edward Thomas explores the life and ideas of an important Sudanese reformer who has become a symbol for resistance tolerance and human rights      Ideology and Revolution in Southeast Asia, 1900-1980 Clive J. Christie,2001 Drawing on books speeches documents and statements issued by key individuals and political and cultural movements in South East Asia between 1900 1975 this book is an ideological history of South East Asia      Ideology and Revolution in Southeast Asia 1900-1980 Clive J Christie,Clive J. Christie,2012-12-06 The concept of Asian Values has recently been emphasized by East and South East Asian political leaders These leaders have argued that European political values have exercised an unhealthy hegemony over the international system not only because of global influence exercised by European ideas during the colonial period but because of Anglo Saxon dominance over the world orders that were set up in the aftermath of both the First and Second World Wars This book considers the interaction between indigenous Asian values and European ideology and the influence this relationship had on the nationalist and revolutionary movements of Southeast Asia that dominated the political systems of Southeast Asia in the period 1945-1975. The Vanguard of the Islamic Revolution Seyyed Vali Reza Nasr, 1994-09-23 In this groundbreaking study Seyyed Vali Reza Nasr examines the origins, historical development and political strategies of one of the oldest and most influential Islamic revival movements, the Jama'at-i Islami of Pakistan. He focuses on the inherent tension between the movement's idealized vision of the nation as a holy community based in Islamic law and its political agenda of socioeconomic change for Pakistani society. Nasr's work goes beyond the exploration of a single party to examine the diverse sociopolitical roots of contemporary Islamic revivalism, challenging many of the standard interpretations about political expressions of Islam.
