The Christian World A Social And Cultural History:

The Christian World Geoffrey Barraclough, 1981 The Christian World, 1981 Handbook of Early Christianity Anthony J. Blasi, Paul-André Turcotte, Jean Duhaime, 2002 Visit our website for sample chapters Socio-cultural History of Shüpfomei Naga Tribe William Nepuni, 2010 Hymns and the Christian Myth Lionel Adey, 2011-11-01 From its beginnings in the Bible Christian hymnology has fulfilled three functions praise recital and teaching of the Myth and collective and personal adoration as well as the foundation and worship of the church In Hymns and the Christian Myth Lionel Adey demonstrates that over the centuries shifts emphasizing particular elements of the Christian faith accord with the interests and concerns of the times in which the hymns were composed Using a broad range of texts Adey deals with major themes of every period from biblical times to the early twentieth century In tracing the changes in representation of the Father Son Holy Spirit and Four Last Things in early and medieval Latin hymns post Reformation chorales and psalm based hymns and English hymns from the time of Watts the book shows an increasing sense of personal response to the Incarnation and Passion of Christ and of participation in His redemptive work Chapters on hymnody of the Nativity and Passion illustrate the tendency of monastic poets the Learned tradition to focus on dogma mystery and paradox and carolists the Popular tradition to convey devotional tenderness Those on hymnody of the Holy Spirit illustrate a shift through the medieval period from representing pentecostal events to exploring their spiritual meaning During the Reformation and the Evangelical Revival the weight of hymnody shifts first to the Father and then to the Son's Passion and Atonement applied personally and inwardly re-lived by the convert Most consistently hymnic representations of the Last Things shift their focus from collective to individual judgement from death as sleep until the general awakening to death as instant passage to reunion with family and friends As a hymnologist rather than a theologian Adey makes no pronouncements on the truth of Christian beliefs His focus is on how poets have expressed them over two millennia As such the book will interest not only students of religion but also those in such related disciplines as literature psychology history and sociology Secularization in the Long 1960s Clive D. Field, 2017-03-16 Secularization in the Long 1960s Numerating Religion in Britain provides a major empirical contribution to the literature of secularization It moves beyond the now largely sterile and theoretical debates about the validity of the secularization thesis or paradigm Combining historical and social scientific perspectives Clive D Field uses a wide range of quantitative sources to probe the extent and pace of religious change in Britain during the long 1960s In most cases data is presented for the years 1955-80 with particular attention to the methodological and other challenges posed by each source type Following an introductory chapter which reviews the historiography introduces the sources and defines the chronological and other parameters Field provides evidence for all major facets of religious belonging behaving and believing as well as for institutional church measures The work engages with and largely refutes Callum G Brown's influential assertion that Britain experienced revolutionary secularization in the 1960s which was highly gendered in nature and with 1963 the major tipping point. Instead a more nuanced picture emerges with some religious indicators in crisis others continuing on an existing downward trajectory and yet others remaining stable. Building on previous research by the author and other scholars and rejecting recent proponents of counter secularization the long 1960s are ultimately located within the context of a longstanding gradualist and still ongoing process of secularization in Britain.

Empowerment of the Catholic Laity in the Nigerian Political Situation Peter Chidi Okuma, 2009. In light of this research work the Vatican II Council remains a landmark and its document Apostolicam Actuositatem what we decided to call a Text of witness of actions for the Catholic Laity the Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity inter alia Lumen gentium and Gaudium et spes that border on the mission of the Catholic Laity in the human society is a great achievement. After the Vatican II Council the Church saw the need to enhance and harness the witnessing message of the Council for the Catholic Laity mission in the Church and in the world. In the light of the foregoing this work is part of these efforts. We developed a hermeneutical model via the political theology of Johann Baptist Metz in the light of the Vatican II Council message that becomes a challenge for concrete action of the Nigerian Catholic Laity in the existential socio political situation of Nigeria.

Force of Words: A Cultural History of Christianity and Politics in Medieval Iceland (11th- 13th Centuries) Haraldur Hreinnsson, 2021-03-29. In Force of Words Haraldur Hreinnsson examines the social and political significance of the Christian religion as the Roman Church was taking hold in medieval Iceland in the 11th 12th and 13th centuries. By way of diverse sources primarily hagiography and sermons but also material sources the author shows how Christian religious ideas came into play in the often tumultuous political landscape of the time. The study illuminates how the Church which was gathering strength across entire Europe established itself through the dissemination of religious vernacular discourse at the northernmost borders of its dominion.

Barbarian Queens and the Conversion of Europe Burnam W. Reynolds, 2024-11-19. The conversion of the Roman Empire to Christianity occurring in the golden glint of the sunset of the Ancient World was not a concluding chapter but an opening one. The sequential conversion of the barbarian tribal invaders of the Empire and the subsequent conversion of those beyond the old imperial limes was the making of European culture a prototypical Christendom. The process has been well studied from the perspective of kings popes and missionaries by some of the finest historians of our era. But the missing component in this civilizational change is that of the decisive influence of barbarian queens Christian women who led their royal husbands in the dangerous journey from one religion to another. In recent years much has been done to illuminate queenship in general but a study focusing specifically on the queen's role in conversion is lacking. This book seeks to remedy that and provide a missing piece in women's history.

The Bonn Handbook of Globality Ludger

Kühnhardt, Tilman Mayer, 2019-02-26 This two volume handbook provides readers with a comprehensive interpretation of globality through the multifaceted prism of the humanities and social sciences Key concepts and symbolizations rooted in and shaped by European academic traditions are discussed and reinterpreted under the conditions of the global turn Highlighting consistent anthropological features and socio cultural realities the handbook gathers coherently structured articles written by 110 professors in the humanities and social sciences at Bonn University Germany who initiate a global dialogue on meaningful and sustainable notions of human life in the age of globality Volume 1 introduces readers to various interpretations of globality and discusses notions of human development communication and aesthetics Volume 2 covers notions of technical meaning of political and moral order and reflections on the shaping of globality The Rise and Fall of the Christian Myth Burton L. Mack, 2017-02-07 This book is the culmination of a lifelong scholarly inquiry into Christian history religion as a social institution and the role of myth in the history of religions Mack shows that religions are essentially mythological and that Christianity in particular has been an ever changing mythological engine of social formation from Roman times to its distinct American expression in our time The author traces the cultural influence of the Christian myth that has persisted for sixteen hundred years but now should be much less consequential in our social and cultural life since it runs counter to our democratic ideals We stand at a critical impasse badly splintered by conflicting groups pursuing their own social interests a binding common myth needs to be established by renewing a truly cohesive national and international story rooted in our democratic and egalitarian origins committed to freedom equality and vital human values Muslim Spain S. M. Imamuddin, 1981 A Cultural History of the Emotions in the Medieval Age Juanita Ruys, Clare Monagle, 2020-08-20 Our period opens at the end of the Roman Empire when intellectual currents are indebted to the Greek philosophical inheritance of Plato and Aristotle as well as to a Romanized Stoicism Into this mix entered the new and from 313CE imperially sanctioned religion of Christianity In art literature music and drama we find an increasing emphasis on the arousal of individual emotions and their acceptance as a means towards devotion In religion we see a move from the ascetic regulation of emotions to the affective piety of the later medieval period that valued the believer's identification with the Passion of Christ and the sorrow of Mary In science and medicine the nature and causes of emotions their role in constituting the human person and their impact on the same became a subject of academic inquiry Emotions also played an increasingly important public role evidenced in populace wide events such as conversion and the strategies of rulership Between 350 and 1300 emotions were transformed from something to be transcended into a location for meditation upon what it means to be human Women, Education, and Science within the Arab-Islamic Socio-Cultural History Zakia Belhachmi, 2008-01-01 From a rationale of multiculturalism and a based on systemic approach grounded in the Arab Islamic tradition this book integrates history education science and feminism to understand the implications of culture in social change cultural identity and cultural exchange Dr Belhachmi's praxis maintains the relationship between socio political movements and their corollary scientific movements to explain women's role in social change of the Arab Islamic world thus linking the region's past and the present in a historical continuum. In one masterful move she immediately engages into a discovery journey of the 13 century old Arab Islamic socio cultural and intellectual history thus exploring the independent Arab Islamic Worldview of development modernism science education and discusses the corollary socio political and reform movements that integrated women in the region's governance over time. Thus she not only highlights women's involvement in social change as a recurrent cyclical phenomenon in the region but also chronicles the women led independent 120 years of Arab Islamic feminist science. Above all Dr Belhachmi offers an innovative operational three levelled model of analysis of education and feminist practice that reconciles particularism and universalism and yields to systemic analyses of women in education cross culturally. In doing so the book shifts focus from the woman's question into the more radical issues of women's science in the Arab Islamic culture illustrating with the work of al Sa dawī Egypt and Mernissi Morocco. As such this study is both a groundbreaking epistemological study on the role Arab Muslim women and social change over time and an essential textbook on women in contemporary Arab Islamic education and social sciences. In a tour de force Dr Belhachmi reclaims Arab Islamic feminist scientific legacy as organic to the region's institutional memory and its collective cultural reference while restoring to Arab Muslim women feminists including herself their epistemic space within the contemporary multi discursive practice space of international feminism thus offering us a timely pioneering book on Arab Islamic feminist epistemology. Equally she provides us with a new scientific framework for self representation and cultural exchange much needed both in international education and a new feminist international order. In brief this is an original scholarly work that provides us with creative empowerment methods qualitative methodologies and holistic conceptual tools thus enabling us to re think our rapport to knowledge and the place of knowledge itself and how its related research strategies can move us beyond the pitfalls of cultural relativism and scientism. As such this is an invaluable addition to the literature on the Middle East and North Africa region MENA that will benefit the layman tremendously and a must reference for specialists and students alike.

Faith and Wealth Justo L. Gonzalez,2002-04-16 Ideas pertaining to economics and social order were central concerns of the early Christian church yet modern theologians and scholars have paid little or no attention to these issues as important theological questions This brilliant and thorough study is a history of the views that Christians held of the origin significance and use of wealth Justo Gonzalez examines early Christian ideas beliefs and teachings about the use of money property communal sharing and the rights and obligations of rich and poor Setting the Christian community in the political social and economic contexts of the times Gonzalez highlights the ideas of such prominent writers as Cyprian Ambrose Augustine John Chrysostom and the Desert Fathers concerning wealth noting what traditional scholarship has overlooked As the author points out this book is not a social or economic history of Christianity during the first four centuries it is a history of the views that Christians held on economic matters This profound enlightening and highly readable work of excellent scholarship is a major contribution to the study of the history of Christian thought It clearly demonstrates that the issues of economics and social justice are central theological concerns deeply rooted in Christian doctrine and Christian tradition
