McGee, 2015-06-09 This bestselling textbook by leading missionary scholars offers an engaging introduction to the work of missions in the contemporary world It provides a broad overview of the biblical theological and historical foundations for missions It also considers personal and practical issues involved in becoming a missionary the process of getting to the mission field and contemporary challenges a mission worker must face Sidebars charts maps and numerous case studies are included This new edition has been updated and revised throughout and features a full color interior Additional resources for professors and students are available online through Baker Academic s Textbook eSources

The Missions Addiction David Shibley, 2001 God is calling out eleventh hour workers for His harvest people like you who are desperately in love with Jesus and who are passionately committed to see Him loved by every people and nation In these action packed pages you will discover a Global Jesus Generation that is creating discomfort in the church and change in missions worldwide God is injecting a missions serum into spiritual bloodstreams He is calling you to become part of a contagious epidemic of missions hearted believers who will bring global fame to His name David Shibley draws from a rich wealth of missions history calling a new generation to become anchored radicals with the missions addiction Book jacket

What in the World is God Doing? C. Gordon Olson, 2003 Veteran missionary and missiologist C Gordon Olson has distilled his knowledge and experience to produce an introductory text to missions that is marked by its balance between theory and practice

The Third Force in Missions Paul Anthony Pomerville, 2022-05-03 The Third Force in Missions challenges readers to recognize the indispensable role of the Holy Spirit as power for mission It confronts the Western mentality that ignores the miraculous in its missions strategy and the global Pentecostal movement Paul Pomerville suggests that such activity prompted and controlled by the Spirit is key to fruitful biblical missions When The Third Force in Missions was first published in 1985 Paul Pomerville sought to draw attention to the Pentecostal contribution to missions At that time he argued there was an information gap regarding the size of this movement in spite of two waves of worldwide Pentecostal renewal He argued that this gap existed because of evangelical bias against Pentecostalism bias against charismatics in mainline churches ethnocentrism toward Pentecostals in the developing world and faulty reporting Thirty years later Pomerville once again argues the importance of the global Pentecostal movement seeking to correct the ongoing tunnel vision of world missions programs which since the Protestant Reformation have tended to ignore the Holy Spirit's work in today's missions In this book Pomerville exposes the serious methodological and theological flaws of such a one-sided position

Preparing Missionaries for Intercultural

Communication: Lyman E. Reed, Arthur F. Glasser, 1985-06-01 Missionaries while being prepared in the Bible often receive little training in understanding the world in which we live and some experience great hardship out in the field as a result The purpose of this book is to enable cross-cultural missionaries to be more adequately prepared for the task of intelligent communication The authors set forth the major areas which are important in training the missionary to communicate with other cultures

Transcending Mission Michael W. Stroope, 2017-02-28 Is the language of mission clearly evident across the broad reaches of time Or has the modern missionary enterprise distorted our view of the past Michael Stroope investigates how the modern church has come to understand speak of and engage in the global expansion of Christianity offering a hopeful way forward in this pressing conversation

Encountering the History of Missions (Encountering Mission) John Mark Terry, Robert L. Gallagher, 2017-08-22 This new addition to a highly acclaimed series portrays the sweep of missions history revealing how God has fulfilled his promise to bless all the nations Two leading missionary scholars and experienced professors help readers understand how missions began how missions developed and where missions is going The authors cover all of missions history and provide practical application of history's lessons Maps tables box inserts sidebars and discussion questions add to the book's usefulness in the classroom

Repairing the Missional Breach Kevin

Blackwell, 2024-04-02 Making disciples is the primary calling of the church however in the past decades of American evangelicalism there has been a breach of Christ's Great Commission as found in Matt 28:19-20 Much of this failure can be attributed to the doctrine and practice within three modern church movements The book offers a history and critique of modern American evangelical church movements including the Church Growth Emergent Church and Missional Church movements Each of these movements did not result in disciple making multiplication In this book you will find an analysis of disciple making in these movements as compared to the methods and model of Jesus Informed by these critiques formative ministry adjustments are presented as a faithful path for future missional approaches

The Holy Spirit Movement in

Korea Young-hoon Lee, 2009-04-01 This book traces the historical and theological development of the Holy Spirit movement in Korea through six successive periods These periods are characterized by repentance and revival 1900-1920 persecution and suffering under Japanese occupation 1920-1940 confusion and division 1940-1960 explosive revival in which the

Pentecostal movement played a major role in the rapid growth of Korean churches 1960 1980 the movement s reaching out to all denominations 1980 2000 and the new context s demanding the Holy Spirit movement to open new horizons in its mission engagement 2000 The volume also discusses the relationship between this movement and other religions such as shamanism and looks forward to further engagement with issues of concern in the larger society Azusa Street and Beyond Grant McClung,2005-12 A collection of essays by men and women who help shape the modern day Pentecostal Movement Contributors include Jack Hayford Wayne Warner David du Plessis Maynard Ketcham Gary McGee Vinson Synan and David Yonggi Cho among others Missiology John Mark Terry,2015-09-01 Thoroughly updated and revised with half of the chapters new to the second edition Missiology equips the reader with a vast graduate level resource on contemporary missions The Good News of The Kingdom Charles E. Van Engen,Dean S. Gilliland,1999-09-17 World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 Humble Confidence Paul Weston,2023-05-09 Lesslie Newbigin remains one of the most important missionary theologians of the twentieth century In responding to the challenges of late modernity he developed a fresh paradigm of missionary theology and cultural engagement that continues to be compelling and prophetic This book also explores the way in which Michael Polanyi s understanding of personal knowledge helps to give language and metaphor to Newbigin s convictions about cultural engagement and responsive witness and suggests vibrant insights and applications for mission today Working Together with God to Shape the New Millennium Kenneth B. Mulholland,Gary Corwin,2000 This collection of presentations from the 1999 IFMA EFMA EMS Triennial Conference explores the incredibly ambitious purpose and challenging task of Working Together with God to Shape the New Millennium Topics include Biblical Foundations for the New Millennium Working Together Strategically and Leadership Needed for the New Millennium Introducing Christian Mission Today Michael W. Goheen,2014-07-14 Michael Goheen gives us a full scale introduction to mission studies today in its biblical theological and historical dimensions Goheen covers the full horizon of major issues in mission including its global urban and holistic contexts This text shows how the missional church encounters the pluralism of Western culture and global religions
