The Christmas Lists:

The Christmas List Richard Paul Evans, 2009-10-06 A heartwarming and inspirational Christmas novel in the tradition of The Christmas Box Grace The Gift and Finding Noel The New York Times bestselling author of The Christmas Box and The Walk series returns with a holiday novel of hope love and redemption Dear Reader When I was in seventh grade my English teacher Mrs Johnson gave our class the intriguing if somewhat macabre assignment of writing our own obituaries Oddly I don't remember much of what I wrote about my life but I do remember how I died in first place on the final lap of the Daytona 500 At the time I hadn't considered writing as an occupation a field with a remarkably low on the job casualty rate What intrigues me most about Mrs Johnson's assignment is the opportunity she gave us to confront our own legacy How do we want to be remembered That question has motivated our species since the beginning of time from building pyramids to putting our names on skyscrapers As I began to write this book I had two objectives First I wanted to explore what could happen if someone read their obituary before they died and saw firsthand what the world really thought of them Their legacy Second I wanted to write a Christmas story of true redemption One of my family's holiday traditions is to see a local production of Charles Dickens's A Christmas Carol I don't know how many times I've seen it perhaps a dozen but it still thrills me to see the change that comes over Ebenezer Scrooge as he transforms from a dull tight fisted miser into a penitent giddy as a schoolboy man with love in his heart I always leave the show with a smile on my face and a resolve to be a better person That's what I wanted to share with you my dear readers this Christmas a holiday tale to warm your season your homes and your hearts Merry Christmas

50 Fantastic Ideas for Celebrations and Festivals Alistair Bryce-Clegg, 2015-10-08 Important dates and occasions are often marked with a variety of celebrations and festivals These occasions are also important markers for children in the passing of time and repeated experience In Early Years education the best time to talk about a celebration or festival is often after it has occurred rather than before it happens This is because many young children don t have a strong memory or understanding of something that occurred a year ago So the closer they are to the experience the richer their learning can be In this colourful new book by Alistair Bryce Clegg there are activities that cover Christmas Diwali Easter Hanukkah Chinese New Year Halloween Bonfire Night Each activity encourages the children to learn about a particular celebration or festival and also to acquire new skills or techniques Each of these skills and techniques can be taught on their own or linked to other activity ideas that you or the children might have The list of celebrations and festivals that are covered is by no means exhaustive but the activities are flexible enough to allow practitioners to keep their core content and apply a different theme They are limited only by your imagination
