The Christological Foundation for Contemporary Theological Education Joseph D. Ban, 1988      The Omnipresence of Jesus Christ Theodore Zachariades, 2015-06-01 This important book reassesses the classic Chalcedonian view of Jesus one person two natures It carefully rejects all forms of kenotic Christology and affirms that Jesus possessed and used all the divine attributes in particular that of omnipresence arguing that evangelical scholars have abandoned this important truth This has ramifications for our view of the Holy Spirit and of Christ's presence with his people It challenges us to read the Scriptures again and to live in the presence of Jesus Publisher Commendation In this important study of orthodox Christology Dr Zachariades develops an aspect of it that has generally been neglected How should we understand the universal presence of the risen ascended and glorified Christ Starting with the controversies of the early church he takes us through the questions involved in the discussion and points us to a deeper understanding of how Christ is both God and man at the same time Gerald L Bray Research Professor of Divinity History and Doctrine Beeson Divinity School USA      Christ: The First Two Thousand Years Martyn Whittock, 2016-03-18 How has Christ been seen for the last two millennia From the Christ of the Gospels to the Isa of Islam this book explores the way Jesus Christ has been viewed described promoted opposed and written about What did the word Christ mean in the first century and how did it resonate with the politics and religion of the time And beyond that how was Jesus seen in the New Testament and then onto the time of the Desert Fathers What of the heretical Christs and who decided and why And from the 2nd century onwards people started to draw and to paint images of Christ how did this change and develop The book then traces the history of Christ through the militant leader of the Crusaders via the multi faceted Christ of the Middle Ages and the opposing views of Him thrown up by the Reformation and the wars that followed Finally the authors consider the Christ of the technological age and the age of total war before looking also at the Christ of Liberation Theology Marxism the Developing world the Dalits other faiths and the Post modern Christ of the 21st century      Schleiermacher on Christian Consciousness of God's Work in History Abraham Varghese Kunnuthara, 2008-01-01 This work is a fresh unusually lucid approach to Christian theology and interfaith dialogue from India Its basic aim is to examine the Christian consciousness of God's work in history redemption history within the entire history of the world It uses Christian Faith by Friedrich Schleiermacher 1768 1834 as its main text so as to view this theme in a reversed order from the way it is presented there This approach which centers on God's new creation in Christ leads to an incisive understanding of Christianity's relation to other modes of faith Throughout Dr Kunnuthara compares the thought of another Indian Christian leader steeped in Hindu thought Pandipedi Chenchiah 1886 1959 to enable renewed interfaith dialogue across a wide spectrum      Critical Essays on Edward Schillebeeckx's Theology Cornelius C. Simut, 2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today s world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today s world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx s thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man s terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today s people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way

The Appeal to Experience in the Christologies of Friedrich Schleiermacher and Karl Rahner

Allen G. Jorgenson,2007 Despite its controversy experience remains a perdurable category for contemporary theology This book explores the appeal to experience in the Christologies of Friedrich Schleiermacher and Karl Rahner two theologians often accused of reducing theology to anthropology by allowing apologetic concerns to dictate their method in their appeal to experience This work demonstrates that both theologians develop their hermeneutics under the tutelage of theology even while using experience as a category by which to provide leverage in apprehending Jesus Both the perils and possibilities of their Christologies are explored in preparation for an account of experience construed sacramentally

The Gospel of John in Modern Interpretation Stanley E. Porter,Ron C. Fay,2018-10-30 The Gospel of John in Modern Interpretation provides a unique look at the lives and work of eight interpreters who have significantly influenced Johannine studies over the last two centuries The chapters contain short biographical sketches of the scholars that illuminate their personal and academic lives followed by summaries and evaluations of their major works and concluding with an analysis of the ongoing relevance of their work in contemporary Johannine scholarship Key thinkers surveyed include C H Dodd Rudolph Bultmann Raymond Brown Leon Morris and R Alan Culpepper An introduction and conclusion by general editors Stanley Porter and Ron Fay trace the development of Johannine scholarship from F C Baur to the present and examine how these eight scholars contributions to Johannine studies have shaped the field Anyone interested in the recent history of the study of John will find this volume indispensable

From Logos to Christos Ellen M. Leonard,Kate Merriman,2011-06-27

From Logos to Christos is a collection of essays in Christology written by friends and colleagues in memory of Joanne McWilliam McWilliam was a pioneer woman in the academic study of theology specializing in Patristic studies and internationally recognized for her work on Augustine For countless students she was a teacher a mentor an inspiration These fourteen essays are a fitting tribute to her memory Written by recognized North American scholars the essays explore various aspects of Christology inviting the reader to probe the meaning and significance of Jesus Christ for today They address a broad range of issues including the

Christology of the Acts of Thomas Hooker on divinization and Christ figures in contemporary Canadian culture Teachers of theology and religious studies pastors and informed general readers will find the essays stimulating and instructive They present the readers with considered mature and current scholarship These are the questions that engaged Joanne McWilliam throughout her life and she was happy to know that the critical dialogue would continue in this volume as friends and colleagues wrestled with Christological questions For her In Jesus we come to know the compassion the power the wisdom the love and the faithfulness of God

Christian Faith as Religion Paul E. Capetz, 2011-05-26 Christian Faith as Religion investigates the theologies of John Calvin and Friedrich Schleiermacher with respect to the questions What is Religion and What is Christian Religion The author argues that the classical and liberal exemplars of Protestant theology are best compared when these two questions are thoroughly examined and calls into question the contention of neo orthodox theologians Karl Barth and Emil Brunner that Schleiermacher's theological use of the category religion signifies a departure from the tradition of the Reformation He offers a revised comparative framework that discloses the material and formal similarities between Calvin and Schleiermacher with respect to their employment of the categories religion and revelation and allows the historical theologian to delineate the trajectory that accounts for both continuity and discontinuity in the transition from classical to modern Protestant theology This allows the systematic hermeneutical question of a contemporary Protestant theology informed by the historical and philosophical study of religion to be taken up anew

Trinitarian Personhood Bill Ury, 2002-02-01 The concept of the person is a crucial yet elusive component in the development of Western thought Few concepts are as replete with definitional difficulty Equally important is the application of a proper definition to all major Christian doctrinal commonplaces This work recognizing the insufficiency of modern theology to offer a cogent concept of person proposes a thorough historical and theological evaluation of Trinitarian personhood presented in three critical paradigm shifts by which one can measure the development of the idea of true personhood presented The three watershed eras of discernment of divine personhood presented are seen here as first the Cappadocian position of the mutual indwelling perichoresis of the divine persons is contrasted with Augustine's view of the place of relations in defining divine persons Second the ideas of Richard of St Victor whose caritas consummata and its relational implications met the nemesis of the Thomistic category of subsistent relations And last as an example of this important discussion in modernity the German Heribert Mhlen's dynamic phenomenological approach to Triune personhood is offered as a means of countering the implicit modalisms of Barth and Rahner If the personhood of God is in essence Being in Another then Christianity must apply that ontology to all sectors of reality to be fully Christian
