Musto,2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography      Changing Relations Between Churches in Europe and Africa Katharina Kunter,Jens Holger Schøjrring,2008 Proceedings from the conference Changing relationships between churches in Africa and Europe in the 20th century Christian identity in the times of political crises which took place October 8 12 2005 at Makumira University College of Tumaini University in Tanzania      The African Philosophy Reader P.H. Coetzee,A.P.J. Roux,2004-03-01 Divided into eight sections each with introductory essays the selections offer rich and detailed insights into a diverse multinational philosophical landscape Revealed in this pathbreaking work is the way in which traditional philosophical issues related to ethics metaphysics and epistemology for instance take on specific forms in Africa s postcolonial struggles Much of its moral political and social philosophy is concerned with the turbulent processes of embracing modern identities while protecting ancient cultures      The Third World in the Global 1960s Samantha Christiansen,Zachary A. Scarlett,2013 Decades after the massive student protest movements that consumed much of the world the 1960s remain a significant subject of scholarly inquiry While important work has been done regarding radical activism in the United States and Western Europe events in what is today known as the Global South Asia Africa and Latin America have yet to receive the attention they deserve This volume inserts the Third World into the study of the 1960s by examining the local and international articulations of youth protest in various geographical social and cultural arenas Rejecting the notion that the Third World existed on the periphery it situates the events of the 1960s in a more inclusive context building a richer more nuanced understanding of the era that better reflects the dynamism of the period

Understanding Comparative Politics Mehran Kamrava,2002-11-01 Comparative politics has undergone significant theoretical changes in recent decades Particularly since the 1980s a new generation of scholars have revamped and rejuvenated the study of the subject Mehran Kamrava examines current and past approaches to the study of comparative politics and proposes a new framework for analysis This is achieved through a comparative examination of state and social institutions the interactions that occur between them and the political cultures within which they operate The book also offers a concise and detailed synthesis of existing comparative frameworks that up to now at least have encountered analytical shortcomings on their own Although analytically different in its arguments and emphasis from the current Mainstream genre of literature on comparative politics the present study is a logical outgrowth of the scholarly works of the last decade or so It will be essential reading for all students of comparative politics Visions of Humanity Sönke Kunkel, Jessica C.E.

Gienow-Hecht, Sebastian Jobs, 2023-09-15 This book offers a critical reflection of the historical genesis transformation and problematic of humanity in the transatlantic world with a particular eye on cultural representations Humanity the essays show was consistently embedded in networks of actors and cultural practices and its meanings have evolved in step with historical processes such as globalization cultural imperialism the transnationalization of activism and the spread of racism and nationalism Visions of Humanity applies a historical lens on objects work and sounds to provide a more nuanced understanding of the historical tensions and struggles involved in constructing invoking and instrumentalizing the we of humanity Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien L. Joseph, 2020-04-15 In Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien Joseph provides a fresh and careful reexamination of Haiti's intellectual history by focusing on the ideas and writings of five prominent thinkers and public intellectuals Toussaint Louverture Joseph Antenor Firmin Jacques Roumain Dantes Bellegarde and Jean Price Mars The book articulates a twofold argument First of all Haiti has produced a strong intellectual tradition from the revolutionary era to the postcolonial present and that Haitian thought is not homogeneous and monolithic Joseph puts forth the idea that the general interweaving themes of rhetoric the race concept race vindication universal emancipation religious pluralism secular humanism the particular and the universal and cosmopolitanism are representative of Haiti's intellectual tradition Secondly the book also contends that Haitian intellectuals have produced a religious discourse in the twentieth century that could be phrased religious metissage The religious ideas of these thinkers have been shaped by various forces ideologies religious traditions and philosophical schools In the same way the religious experience of the Haitian people should be understood in terms of conflicting heterodox and pluralistic manifestations of religious piety as the people in Haiti reacted to the crisis of slavery Western colonialism and imperialism and the arrogance of race in modernity in their striving to reposition themselves within the framework of universal and human metanarratives The book departs from the dominant contemporary Vodou scholarship that is often characteristic of North American and Western studies on the religious life of the Haitian people and Haitian thinkers The Missionary

Letters of Vincent Donovan John P. Bowen, 2011-01-01 Vincent Donovan is best known as the author of the influential bestseller Christianity Rediscovered 1978 This new book contains the monthly letters he wrote home from Tanzania between 1957 and 1973 These letters give us previously unknown stories how Donovan met Julius Nyerere first prime minister of Tanzania how a group of Protestants attempted to kill him of his early disastrous attempt to hear confession in Swahili of the relationship between Donovan's work and Vatican II and much about the mysterious Sonjo tribe among whom Donovan spent his last years in Tanzania They also give insights from the hilarious to the poignant into Donovan the man in relationship to his family his missionary colleagues and the Maasai Copies of original photographs are also included Most significantly the letters show Donovan's evolution over the years from a young missionary who was passionate about acquiring land for church buildings into a mature visionary convinced that the only job of the missionary is to preach the gospel. A concluding essay looks at the legacy of Donovan thirty five years later with contributions from three Spiritan missionaries who continue to live out his legacy in Tanzania and elsewhere today. Finally the essay looks at Donovan's continuing influence on contemporary renewal movements in North America and in Britain. Those who have been inspired by Christianity Rediscovered missiologists church renewal leaders and students of Gospel and culture will find much here to delight and to challenge.

Toward a Theology of Struggle Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2009-02-01. The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain, North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship. Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor. This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles, poems, art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle. In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged. Part Two represents Fernandez's own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood. In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole.

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1984. Justice Church Frederick Herzog, 2005-09-13. Frederick Herzog's focus on the praxis context of the church is right on target. He makes a much needed contribution to the critical development of liberation theologies in the North American situation. Letty M. Russell, Yale University Divinity School. I am particularly grateful for the clear articulation in the book of a number of concerns emerging in Third World theology such as the recognition of poverty as a political and not a natural phenomenon, the shift from elite universals to people's universals, the emphasis on Christopraxis as the key to orthodoxy, the interpretation of theology as praxis seeking understanding and the emphasis on the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper as affirming that the bifurcation of history into a bodily history and spiritual history has been overcome. I hope that the book will be widely read in all continents and stimulate dialogue for promoting praxis rooted theology. J. Russell Chandran, United Theological College, Bangalore, India. Herzog refuses to do an easy or obvious theology but insists on raising difficult questions which require theology to be done with some anguish. He has seen more clearly than most that we are in a crisis of categories which must be reshaped in shattering ways not only to do a new theology but to re-understand the nature of theology. Members of the United Church of Christ, his own church body, will especially benefit from Herzog's proposals as this militantly liberal church is urged in critical and self-critical directions.

Walter Brueggemann Professor Emeritus Columbia Theological Seminary No one has been more passionately involved than Frederick Herzog in responding to the challenges to mainstream North American Christianity from Latin American and black liberation theologians Addressing liberal Protestant theology and denominational structures in Justice Church Herzog unfolds a new theological method and a new understanding of the church This is an important book for all who believe that Christian faith involves response to injustice Lee Cormie University of St Michael s College University of Toronto Frederick Herzog was Professor at the Duke University Divinity School He served on numerous commissions of the World Council of Churches and the United Church of Christ In the spring of 1970 he wrote the first North American article on liberation theology and in 1972 his Liberation Theology was published a study of the Fourth Gospel described by Robert McAfee Brown as a pioneer North American work In Justice Church Herzog continues his pioneering work with a North American methodology of liberation theology Revolution & Political Change in the Third World Barry Mayer Schutz,Robert Owen Slater,1990

Red Letter Revolution Colin McCartney,2008-04-15 The Red Letter Revolution is about a global movement of Christians who are taking the actions of Jesus and his exact words the red letters in some versions of the Bible seriously Colin challenges his readers to join this movement by responding to the poverty racism economic disparity violence classism sexism and all other forms of injustice and oppression all around us like Jesus did Through biblical exposition rousing stories and practical application Colin demonstrates that we can follow the radical words of Jesus only with the love of God and the power of the Holy Spirit This book draws our allegiance to the mission of Christ to the poor and oppressed and calls for us to act It will truly challenge the way we view others and how we should respond to the oppression and injustice present in our world

Decolonizing Christianity Darcie Fontaine,2016-06-20 This book traces Christianity s change from European imperialism s moral foundation to a voice of political and social change during decolonization The Donghak Concept of God/heaven Kiyul Chung,2007 Original Scholarly Monograph

One-Dimensional Queer Roderick A. Ferguson,2018-12-06 The story of gay rights has long been told as one of single minded focus on the fight for sexual freedom Yet its origins are much more complicated than this single issue interpretation would have us believe and to ignore gay liberation s multidimensional beginnings is to drastically underestimate its radical potential for social change Ferguson shows how queer liberation emerged out of various insurgent struggles crossing the politics of race gender class and sexuality and deeply connected to issues of colonization incarceration and capitalism Tracing the rise and fall of this intersectional politics he argues that the one dimensional mainstreaming of queerness falsely placed critiques of racism capitalism and the state outside the remit of gay liberation As recent activism is increasingly making clear this one dimensional legacy has promoted forms of exclusion that marginalize queers of color the poor and transgender individuals This forceful book joins the call to reimagine and reconnect the fight for social justice in all its varied forms
