Knight, 2005 This user friendly devotional commentary divides the text of Galatians and Ephesians into bite sized passages using a new translation by the author Each passage is followed by an explanation that reveals themes and patterns moving from exegesis to practical application in the lives of twenty first century believers The format will prove helpful for church study groups midweek meetings equipping the reader to understand better God's message of transforming grace today Toronto, Old and New Graeme Mercer Adam, 1891 Life at Four Corners Carol Coburn, 1992 Defined less by geography than by demographic character Block Kansas in many ways exemplifies the prevalent yet seldom scrutinized ethnic religion based community of the rural Midwest Physically small the town sprang up around four corners formed by crossroads Spiritually strong and cohesive it became the educational and cultural center for generations of German Lutheran families In this book Carol Coburn analyzes the powerful combination of those ethnic and religious institutions that effectively resisted assimilation for nearly 80 years only to succumb to the influences of the outside world during the 1930s and 1940s Emphasizing the formal and informal education provided by the church school and family she examines the total process of how values identities and all aspects of culture were transmitted from generation to generation Fletcher A. Manning Fletcher A. Manning, 2010-05 The number of living representatives of The Greatest Generation becomes fewer with each passing year and with their diminution comes the relegation of their extraordinary experiences to second and third hand recounting an inherited oral tradition more suitable to mythology than true history Rarely one of them creates a memoir of first hand recollections framing major events in history with personal perspective and eyewitness urgency Fletcher Manning's book is such a memoir tracing the extraordinary events in the first half of the Twentieth Century with a distinctly personal hand while reviewing the historical content of a bygone age with clarity and journalistic conciseness Fletcher Manning was born in the rural America of the early Twentieth Century The eldest son of North Carolinian farmers he was born at the height of the First World War grew up in The Great Depression and as a young man distinguished himself in the Second World War while forging a new more urbane kind of life for himself and his family While serving as an officer in the US Navy he became the first member of his family ever to earn a liberal arts degree and upon leaving the Navy after thirty years of service established himself in a second career as a teacher of history In everything he undertook he ascended to leadership always by merit never by ambition His life was defined by service to country to faith and to family Christian Register and Boston Observer ,1926 Teaching for Spiritual Formation Kyle R. Hughes,2022-01-06 In Teaching for Spiritual Formation church historian and experienced Christian educator Kyle R Hughes advances a fresh vision of Christian teaching and learning by drawing upon the riches of the Christian tradition synthesizing the wisdom of the early church fathers with contemporary efforts to cultivate a distinctively Christian approach to education Of interest to a wide range of Christian educators this book examines how the writings of five significant church fathers can illuminate our understanding of the vocation of teachers the nature of students the purpose of curriculum decisions about pedagogy and how spiritual formation works Besides reimagining these aspects of Christian education Hughes also offers habits and practices that can help bring this vision of Christian teaching and learning to life challenging Christian educators to sharpen their approach to the integration of faith and learning in practical and accessible ways The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned,1923 The Christian Science Journal ,1912 The Unitarian Register ,1926
