The Classical Age Of Islam Volume 1 The Classical Age Of Islam:

The Venture of Islam, Volume 1 Marshall G. S. Hodgson, 1974-10-01 The Venture of Islam has been honored as a magisterial work of the mind since its publication in early 1975. In this three volume study illustrated with charts and maps Hodgson traces and interprets the historical development of Islamic civilization from before the birth of Muhammad to the middle of the twentieth century. This work grew out of the famous course on Islamic civilization that Hodgson created and taught for many years at the University of Chicago. This is a nonpareil work not only because of its command of its subject but also because it demonstrates how ideally history should be written. The New Yorker Volume 1 The Classical Age of Islam analyzes the world before Islam, Muhammad's challenge and the early Muslim state between 625 and 692. Hodgson then discusses the classical civilization of the High Caliphate. The volume also contains a general introduction to the complete work and a foreword by Reuben Smith who, as Hodgson's colleague and friend, finished the Venture of Islam after the author's death and saw it through to publication.

This fascinating microhistory unveils networks of extended interpersonal relationships between Jewish villagers and members of their Muslim surroundings in the decades preceding their 1949 departure from Lower Yemen In a multi layered narrative crafted from letters and legal documents in Arabic and an accompanying supply of Judeo Arabic narratives the book portrays how religiously subordinated individuals strove to pursue their interests without forgoing the protection of the dominant majority At once shedding new light on both Jewish history and on rural Yemeni Muslim history the work provides a rare pre republican pre 1962 portrait of rural life in Lower Yemen while positioning the Jewish community in the context of hitherto little understood social legal economic and political systems Sectarianism in Islam Adam R. Gaiser,2022-11-24 Sectarian divisions within the Islamic world have long been misunderstood and misconstrued by the media and the general public In this book Adam R Gaiser offers an accessible introduction to the main Muslim sects and schools returning to the roots of the sectarian divide in the Medieval period Beginning with the death of Muhammed and the ensuing debate over who would succeed him Gaiser outlines how the umma Muslim community came to be divided He traces the history of the main Muslim sects and schools the Sunnis Shi ites Kharijites Mu tazila and Murji a and shows how they emerged developed and diverged from one another Exploring how medieval Muslims understood the idea of sect Gaiser challenges readers to consider the usefulness and scope of the concept of sectarianism in this historical context Providing an overview of the main Muslim sects while problematising the assumptions of previous scholarship this is a valuable resource for both new and experienced readers of Islamic history

Interpreting Islam in China Kristian Petersen,2018 During the early modern period Muslims in China began to embrace the Chinese characteristics of their heritage Several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional Chinese education into their promotion of Islamic knowledge As a result some Sino Muslims established an educational network which utilized an Islamic curriculum made up of Arabic Persian and Chinese works The corpus of Chinese Islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the Han Kitab Interpreting Islam in China explores the Sino Islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some its brightest luminaries Three prominent Sino Muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition Wang Daiyu Liu Zhi and Ma Dexin Kristian Petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition Through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions How malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time How do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices How do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority How do practices inform belief Overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of Islam through which Sino Muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of Muslims The growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to Mecca comprehensive knowledge of the Qur an and personal knowledge of Arabic stimulated communal engagement Petersen demonstrates that the integration of Sino Muslims within a growing global environment where international travel and communication was increasingly possible was accompanied by the rising self awareness of a universally engaged Muslim community The Journeys of a Taymiyyan
