John Steinbeck, 1976 The Collected Poems of Amnesia Glasscock John Steinbeck, 1976 The Great American Poetry Bake-off Robert Peters, 1979 No descriptive material is available for this title John Steinbeck, a Guide to the Collection of the Salinas Public Library Salinas Public Library, 1979 Nobel Writers on Writing Ottar G. Draugsvold, 2000
When in 1901 Alfred Nobel bequeathed to the world the funds to support the Nobel Prize one of his few directives for the category of literature was that the artists selected be of idealistic tendency Since its inception the prize has given a very public voice to some of the world's greatest writers and their responses to the honor their acceptance speeches have themselves often been epochal within each author's body of literature From the famed call to arms by William Faulkner to the multicultural song of Derek Walcott from 1903's Bjørnstjerne Bjørnson to 1999's Günter Grass this collection traces the ideals of the artists and the selection committee itself throughout the entirety of the 20th century Interestingly writes Draugsvold none of the writers discuss the more technical aspects of their craft Equally striking is the strength of the common thread of idealism found in these addresses a firm belief in humankind and the power of art in its role in the service of truth and the service of liberty as Albert Camus said in 1957 I decline to accept the end of man wrote the Old Man William Faulkner The speeches presented here were chosen not by subjective but rather by substantive criteria with biographical presentations and brief statements of gratitude omitted Included are an introduction to each of the 28 writers chosen an excerpted copy of the speech or lecture and a bibliography of works in English The work concludes with a complete list of prize winners in literature and a bibliography of sources cited in the writer's introductions The Male Homosexual in Literature Ian Young, 1982 San José Studies, 1985 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1978
