The Collected Poems of George F. Butterick George F Butterick, 1988-09-01 Imagining Persons Robert J. Bertholf, Dale M. Smith, 2017-12-15 Robert Duncan s nine lectures on Charles Olson delivered intermittently from 1961 to 1983 explore the modernist literary background and influences of Olson s influential 1950 essay Projective Verse These transcribed talks pay tribute to Olson and expand our knowledge of Duncan s vision of modernist writing Late modernist poetics Anthony Mellors, 2024-06-04 This book explores the uncanny afterlife of modernist ideals in the second half of the twentieth century Rejecting the familiar notion that modernism dissolved during the 1930s it argues that the fusion of rationalism and mysticism which characterises modernist poetics was sustained long after its politics had been discredited by the events of World War Two The book s central concern is why the aesthetic mysticism that Walter Benjamin called the faith of those who made common cause with Fascism continued to be a guiding principle for literary elites and countercultural movements alike New light is shed on the relationship between occultism and the Pound tradition especially in terms of Pound s influence on post 1945 Anglo American poetry and a critical theory of late modernism is offered which shows how belated notions of cultural redemption have survived in contemporary poetry This wide ranging contextual study focuses on the poetry of Ezra Pound Charles Olson Paul Celan and J H Prynne and explores the development of modernist culture through its theories of phenomenology psychoanalysis science ethnography and ancient history Langston Hughes & the Blues Steven Carl Tracy, 2001 Drawing on a deep understanding of the shades and structures of the blues Steven C Tracy elucidates the vital relationship between this musical form and the art of Langston Hughes preeminent poet of the Harlem Renaissance Tracy provides a cultural context for the poet's work and shows how Hughes mined African American oral and literary traditions to create his blues inspired poetry Through a detailed comparison of Hughes's poems to blues texts Tracy demonstrates how the poetics structures rhythms and musical techniques of the blues are reflected in Hughes's experimental forms The volume also includes a discography of recordings by the blues artists Bessie Smith Ma Rainey Blind Lemon Jefferson and others who most influenced Hughes updated in a new introduction by the author

The Fire Robin Blaser, 2006-09-29 Spanning four decades of meditation on the avant garde in poetry art and philosophy the essays collected in The Fire reveal Robin Blaser's strikingly fresh perspective on New American poets deconstructive philosophies current events and the state of humanities now The essays gathered in one volume for the first time include commentaries on Jack Spicer Charles Olson Robert Duncan Mary Butts George Bowering Louis Dudek Christos Dikeakos and J S Bach Blaser emerged from the Berkeley Renaissance of the 1940s and 1950s having studied under legendary medieval scholar Ernst Kantorowicz and having been a major participant in the burgeoning literary scene His response to the cultural and political events of his time has been to construct a poetic voice that offers a singular perspective on a shareable world and to pose that voice alongside others as a source of countermemory and potential agency Conceived as conversations these essays brilliantly reflect that ethos as they re-read the cultural events of the past fifty years

The Cambridge Companion to American Poets Mark Richardson, 2015-10-15 This Companion brings together essays on some fifty four American poets from Anne Bradstreet to contemporary performance poetry This book also examines such movements in American poetry as modernism the Harlem or New Negro Renaissance confessional poetry the Black Mountain School the New York School the Beats and L A N G U A G E poetry

Places in the Making Jim Cocola, 2016-05-01 Places in the Making maps a range of twentieth and twenty first century American poets who have used language to evoke the world at various scales Distinct from related traditions including landscape poetry nature poetry and pastoral poetry which tend toward more idealized and transcendent lyric registers this study traces a poetics centered upon more particular and situated engagements with actual places and spaces Close generic predecessors of this mode such as topographical poetry and loco descriptive poetry folded themselves into the various regionalist traditions of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries but place making in modern and contemporary American poetics has extended beyond its immediate environs unfolding at the juncture of the proximate and the remote and establishing transnational planetary and cosmic formations in the process Turning to geography as an interdisciplinary point of departure Places in the Making distinguishes itself by taking a comparative and multiethnic approach considering the relationship between identity and emplacement among a more representative demographic cross section of Americans and extending its inquiry beyond national borders Positing place as a pivotal axis of identification and heralding emplacement as a crucial model for cultural intellectual and political activity in a period marked and imperiled by a tendency toward dislocation the critical vocabulary of this project centers upon the work of place making It attends to a poetics that extends beyond epic and lyric modes while relying simultaneously on auditory and visual effects and proceeding in the interests of environmental advocacy and social justice often in contrast to the more orthodox concerns of literary modernism global capitalism and print culture Focusing on poets of international reputation such as Elizabeth Bishop Pablo Neruda Charles Olson and William Carlos Williams Places in the Making also considers work by more recent figures including Kamau Brathwaite Joy Harjo Myung Mi Kim and Craig Santos Perez In its larger comparative multiethnic and transnational emphases this book addresses questions of particular moment in American literary and cultural studies and aspires to serve as a catalyst for further interdisciplinary work connecting geography and the humanities

Archaeopoetics Mandy Bloomfield, 2016-05-10 Explores poetry as historical investigation examining works by five contemporary poets whose creations represent new materially emphatic methods of engaging with the past and producing new kinds of historical knowledge Archaeopoetics explores archaeological poetry ground breaking and experimental writing by innovative poets whose work opens up broad new avenues by which contemporary readers may approach the past illuminating the dense web of interconnections often lost in traditional historiography Critic Mandy Bloomfield traces the emergence of a significant historicist orientation in recent poetry exemplified by the work of five writers American poet Susan Howe Korean American artist Theresa Hak Kyung Cha British poet Maggie O Sullivan and diasporic African Caribbean writers Kamau Brathwaite and M NourbeSe Philip Bloomfield sets the work of these five authors within a vigorous tradition including earlier work by Ezra Pound and Walter Benjamin and then shows how these five poets create poems that engender new encounters with pivotal episodes in history such as the English regicide or Korea's traumatized twentieth century Exploring our shared but imperfectly understood history as well as omissions and blind spots in historiography Bloomfield outlines the tension between the irretrievability of effaced historical evidence and the hope that poetry may reconstitute such unrecoverable histories She posits that this tension is fertile engendering a form of aesthetically enacted epistemological enquiry Fascinating and seminal Archaeopoetics pays special attention to the sensuous materiality of texts and most especially to the visual manifestations of poetry The poems in this volume employ the visual imagery of the word itself or incorporate imagery into the poetry to propose persuasive alternatives to narrative or discursive frameworks of historical knowledge

Purple Passages Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2012-03-15 What is patriarchal poetry How can it be both attractive and tempting and yet be so hegemonic that it is invisible How does it combine various mixes of masculinity femininity effeminacy and eroticism At once passionate and dispassionate Rachel Blau DuPlessis meticulously outlines key moments of choice and debate about masculinity among writers as disparate as Ezra Pound T S Eliot Louis Zukofsky Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Allen Ginsberg choices that construct consequential models for institutions of poetic practice As DuPlessis writes There are no genderless subjects in any relationship structuring literary culture not in production dissemination or reception not in objects discourses or practices not in reading experiences or in interpretations And as she reveals in careful and enthralling detail for the poets at the center of this book questions of masculinity loomed large and were continuously articulated in their self creation as writers in literary bonding and in its deployment These gender laden choices debates and contradictions all have a striking influence today In this empathic yet critical historical polemic DuPlessis reveals the outcomes of these many investments in the radical reconstruction of masculinity in their strains incompleteness tensions and failures At the heart of modernist maleness and poetic practices are contradictions and urgencies gender ideas both progressive and defensive In a striking book on male behavior in poetic dyads the third book in a feminist critical trilogy DuPlessis tracks the poetic debates and arguments about gender that continuously affirm patriarchal poetry

The Poetics of the Common Knowledge Don Byrd, 1994-01-01 The Poetics of the Common Knowledge focuses on Descartes Hegel Freud and the information theorists on the one hand and the poets of the American avant garde on the other This book is a call literally for a new poetry a new making that manifests the possibility for sense making in a postmodern condition without universals or absolutes In such a poetry fragmentation bespeaks not brokenness but the richness of the world apprehended without the habits of recognition

Selected Poems of Robert Creeley, 1945-2005 Robert Creeley, 2008 Here is Creeley at his skillfully selected best full of the melodies of plain speech concise yet resonant with emotion Juliana Spahr author of This Connection of Everyone with Lungs So fantastically simple and so satisfyingly complicated these poems band together like the days in One Day One day after another perfect They all fit John Ashbery Beautifully edited by Ben Friedlander with tenderness intelligence and care A superb selection well introduced Selected Poems provides a great sense of the range of Creeley's accomplishment these poems among the most important of our time a way of writing with the hesitations and grace of a new found line thinking informed by sources from Emily Dickinson to Charlie Parker Selected Poems is at once a tribute to Creeley a perfect introduction for new readers and a valuable distillation for those who have already acquired a taste for Creeley's poetry The perfect assembly to and for one so fond of saying onward We can now go onward with these selected poems onward with these well chosen words with thanks to Robert Creeley and to Ben Friedlander Hank Lazer author of The New Spirit Benjamin Friedlander himself a fine poet critic and a great connoisseur of Creeley's poetry has put together a superb selection Marjorie Perloff An excellent selection and introduction It is an edition that acknowledges work that has defined the poet's career while offering a new narrative for the entire oeuvre It will join UC Press's distinguished and definitive editions of postwar poetry and will provide us all with a summary guide to Creeley's best work Michael Davidson In a quiet moment I hear Bob pause where I never would have expected it Such resolve Such heart And an ear to reckon with No truly further American poem without his Clark Coolidge author of Counting on Planet Zero The Cambridge Introduction to Modernist Poetry Peter Howarth, 2011-11-10 Modernist poems are some of the twentieth century's major cultural achievements but they are also hard work to read This wide ranging introduction takes readers through modernism's most famous poems and some of its forgotten highlights to show why modernists thought difficulty and disorientation essential for poetry in the modern world In depth chapters on Pound Eliot Yeats and the American modernists outline how formal experiments take on the new world of mass media democracies total war and changing religious belief Chapters on the avant gardes and later modernism examine how their styles shift as they try to re make the community of readers Howarth explains in a clear and enjoyable way how to approach the forms politics and cultural strategies of modernist poetry in English

Books in Print, 1994 Melville and Aesthetics G. Sanborn, S. Otter, 2011-09-26 In an original and provocative series of readings that range across Melville's career the contributors consider not only the sources and implications of Melville's aesthetics but the relationship between aesthetic criticism historical analysis and contemporary theory The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki, 2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post World War II American poetry Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments

by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years Crisis and the US Avant-Garde Ben Hickman, 2015-06-24 Crisis and the US Avant Garde examines the politics of poetry through the lens of crisis A timely commentary on the role poetic culture might play in political struggle going forward into our own various contemporary crises Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Staying Open: Charles Olson's Sources and Influences Joshua Hoeynck, 2019-08-19 Staying Open Charles Olson's Sources and Influences investigates the inter disciplinary influences on the work of the mid Century American poet Charles Olson This edited collection of essays covers Olson's diverse non literary interests including his engagement with the music of John Cage and Pierre Boulez his interests in abstract expressionism and his readings of philosopher Alfred North Whitehead The essays also examine Olson's pedagogy which he developed in the experimental environment at Black Mountain College as well as his six month archeological journey through the Yucatan Peninsula in 1950 to explore the culture of the Maya This book will therefore be a strong research aid to scholars working in diverse fields music archeology pedagogy philosophy art and psychology as it outlines methods for close inter disciplinary work that can uncover the mechanics of Olson's creative literary processes Building on the straightforward scholarship of George Butterick whose Guide to the Maximus Poems remains indispensable for readers of Olson's work the essays in this volume will also guide readers through the thick allusions within The Maximus Poems itself New interest in the wide ranging and non literary nature of Olson's thought in several recent academic works makes this book both timely and necessary Physics Envy American Poetry and Science in the Cold War and After by Peter Middleton as well as Contemporary Olson edited by David Herd have started the process of uncovering the extent to which Olson's inter disciplinary interests inflected his poetic compositions Staying Open extends the preliminary investigations of Olson's non literary sources in those volumes by bringing together a community of scholars working across disciplines and within a wide variety of humanistic concerns
