The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti modernist Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision how to connect present day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art s claim to moral spiritual or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena For Jeffers as for no other important modern American poet there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems the current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers lifetime or from his posthumous volume Now for the first time all of Jeffers completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition The first three volumes of this four volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers published work from 1920 to 1963 The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best known poems Tamar Roan Stallion The Women at Point Sur and Cawdor as well as a recently discovered long poem Home There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction

Robinson Jeffers James Karman, 2015-08-05 A deeply informative biography situates the poet in his time and place tracing the effect of both contemporary history and wild nature on his work Edwin Cranston Harvard University The precipitous cliffs rolling headlands and rocky inlets of the California coast come alive in the poetry of John Robinson Jeffers an icon of the environmental movement In this concise and accessible biography Jeffers scholar James Karman reveals deep insights into this passionate and complex figure and establishes Jeffers as a leading American poet of prophetic vision In a move that would define his life s work Jeffers family relocated to California from Pennsylvania in 1903 when he was sixteen At the height of his popularity in the 1920s and 1930s Jeffers became one of the few poets ever featured on the cover of Time magazine and posthumously put on a U S postage stamp Writing by kerosene lamp in a granite tower that he had built himself his vivid and descriptive poetry of the coast evoked the difficulty and beauty of the wild and inspired photographers such as Edward Weston and Ansel Adams He was known for long narrative blank verse that shook up the national literary scene but in the 1940s his interest in the Greek classics led to several adaptations which were staged on Broadway to great success Inspiring later artists from Charles Bukowski to Czeslaw Milosz and even the Beach Boys Robinson Jeffers contribution to American letters is skillfully brought back out of the shadows of history in this compelling biography of a complex man of poetic genius who wrote so powerfully of the astonishing beauty of nature

Centennial Essays for Robinson Jeffers Robert Zaller,1991 This work is the first volume of critical essays devoted to the poetry of Robinson Jeffers Although Jeffers was likened to some of the greatest figures in the literary world his work was controversial His preoccupation with violence and sexuality was denounced by some his alleged blasphemy by others Condemned by moralists Marxists and Cold Warriors alike Jeffers fell into obscurity until his death in 1962 Included are nine original essays by leading Jeffers scholars

Nature's Writers Donald S. Clark,2024-09-03 A photographic celebration of the landscapes that have influenced some of America s most important nature writers from John Muir to Terry Tempest Williams to Barbara Kingsolver Since 2019 Donald S Clark has documented the places that have been instrumental in influencing the lives and words of both historic and contemporary nature and environmental writers throughout the United States While we have always felt their passionate connection to their own environments no book has ever made this visual connection between writers and their land before the relationship between prose and place Featuring more than 40 of America s most important writers the content is as far reaching as America itself from sea to shining sea forest to prairie and mountain to coastline Accompanying each gallery of stunning photography is a selected excerpt by the writer about their land With the increasingly noticeable effects of climate change the significance of these writers and their personal connections to the environment is even more timely This unique and compelling story of the land and how it has inspired some of our greatest poets and authors will make a wonderful gift for budding environmentalists students of nature writing or anyone interested in conservation

Learning the Secrets of English Verse David J. Rothman,Susan Delaney Spear,2022-08-09 This textbook teaches the writing of poetry by examining all the major verse forms and repeating stanza forms in English It provides students with the tools to compose successful lines of poetry and focuses on meter including free verse rhythm rhyme and the many other tools a poet needs to create both music and meaningfulness in an artful poem

Presenting copious examples from strong poets of the past and present along with many recent student examples all of which are scanned each chapter offers lessons in poetic history and the practice of writing verse along with giving students a structured opportunity to experiment writing in all the forms discussed In Part 1 Rothman and Spear begin at the beginning with Anglo Saxon Strong Stress Alliterative Meter and examine every major meter in English up to and including the free verse forms of modern and contemporary poetry Part 2 presents a close examination of stanza forms that moves from the simple to the complex beginning with couplets and ending with the 14 line Eugene Onegin stanza The goal of the book is to give students the essential skills to understand how any line of poetry in English may have been composed the better to enjoy them and then also write their own the keys to the treasure chest Rothman and Spear present a rigorous curriculum that teaches the craft of poetry through a systematic examination and practice of the major English meters and verse forms Under their guidance students hone their craft while studying the rich traditions and innovations of poets writing in English Suitable for high school students and beyond I studied with Rothman in graduate school and went through this course with additional scholarly material This book will help students develop a keen ear for the music of the English language Teow Lim Goh author of Islanders Westernness Alan Bacher Williamson, 2006 A first person meditation on the literary and visual arts of the American West Westernness A Meditation explores how this region has developed its own distinct culture in literature and painting from the point of view of someone who has been at different times in his life both a westerner and an easterner An engaging and astute reader and observer Alan Williamson uses his poetic lens to examine the new connections notably with the Far East that have been forged in the West but also the fear anxiety and sense of cultural vacancy that western artists have had to overcome in confronting their new landscape much as the writers of the American Renaissance did a century earlier Writing as a displaced easterner with significant western roots Williamson looks at writers and poets such as Cather Lawrence Steinbeck Jefferes Silko and Snyder as well as artists such as the Yosemite painters Georgia O Keefe and Wayne Thiebaud to show how despite the inflated optimism of many western patriots the work of these individuals relates to the anxieties suffered by their eastern predecessors By revealing what he sees as the repetition of the evolution of American literature in the rise of western literature Williamson provides us with a fresh vantage point from which we can appreciate western literature art and culture and simultaneously dismantle the literary war between East and West A tribute to the author's lifelong engagement with a particular landscape and its writers Westernness speaks to the general reader who is curious about his or her native place and relationship to it as well as to scholars in literary and ecocritical studies

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt, 1988 The first three volumes of this four volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers published work from 1920 to 1963 Jeffers publishers sometimes adjusted his punctuation presumably to bring the poems punctuation into accord with grammatical convention The texts for this edition revert to Jeffers own preferences insofar as the best methods of modern textual editing can reveal them How Not to Be

Human Matthew Calarco, 2024-07-09 Current debates in the environmental humanities animal studies and related fields increasingly revolve around this question What to do with the human Is the human a category worth preserving Should it be replaced with the post human Should marginalized and minoritarian groups advocate for a universal humanism What is the relationship between humanism and anthropocentrism Is a genuinely non anthropocentric mode of thinking and living possible for human beings This book argues that the writings of twentieth century poet Robinson Jeffers offer twenty first century readers a number of crucial insights concerning such questions and timely advice about how not to be human For Jeffers our tendency to turn inward on ourselves and to indulge in human narcissism is at the heart of the social economic and existential ills that plague modern societies As a remedy Jeffers recommends turning ourselves outward beyond the self and beyond the human and learning to affirm and even love the inhuman cosmos in all of its terrible beauty In the process Jeffers helps us find our way back to ourselves but this time no longer as human in the traditional sense but as plain members of the inhuman world      The Hermits of Big Sur Paula Huston, 2021-10-15 Between World War II and Vatican II as Italy struggled to rebuild after decades of Mussolini's fascism an eleventh century order of contemplative monks in the Apennines were urged by Thomas Merton to found a daughter house on the rugged coast of California A brilliant but world weary ex Jesuit who had recently withdrawn from a high intensity public life to go into reclusion at the ancient Sacro Eremo of Camaldoli was tapped for the job Based on notes kept for over sixty years by an early American novice at New Camaldoli Hermitage The Hermits of Big Sur tells the compelling story of what unfolds within this small and idealistic community when medievalism must finally come to terms with modernism It traces the call toward fuga mundi in the young seekers who arrive to try their vocations only to discover that the monastic life requires much more of them than a bare desire for solitude And it describes the miraculous transformation that sometimes occurs in individual monks after decades of lectio divina silent meditation liturgical faithfulness and the communal bonds they have formed through the practice of the privilege of love

Why Conserve Nature? Stephen Trudgill, 2022-02-24 How we view nature transforms the world around us People rehearse stories about nature which make sense to them If we ask the question why conserve nature and the answers are based on myths then are these good myths to have Scientific knowledge about the environment is fundamental to ideas about how nature works It is essential to the conservation endeavour However any conservation motivation is nested within a society's meanings of nature and the way society values it Given the therapeutic and psychological significance of nature for us and our culture this book considers the meanings derived from the poetic and emotional attachment to a sense of place which is arguably just as important as scientific evidence The functional significance of species is important but so too is the therapeutic value of nature together with the historic and spiritual meanings entwined in a human feeling for landscape and wildlife      CliffsNotes AP English Literature and Composition, 3rd Edition Allan Casson, 2010-10-07 A new edition of the

Varner, 2013-10-03 The writers of these chapters are often working with changing assumptions about literary and media interpretations of an American West Here we see critical approaches to a West that never was a West of myth so enduring that the myth dominates nearly all artistic representation about this place that never was In this collection we see critical approaches to a New West a West that is a state of mind not a geographical place but a mythic space with no boundaries and no political inevitabilities These New Western studies accept the idea of a West that includes Canada Mexico Alaska and in the case of the US every geographic and historical point west of the historic founding settlements The West we study today is a post West an idea of the West past the traditional views of an old West dominated by white US nationalism and gendered as uncompromisingly masculine The idea itself of a single West no longer holds validity We now understand that all renderings of the West are renderings of multiple Wests Wests constructed by American nationalists Wests constructed by EuroAmerican writers and filmmakers Wests constructed by native peoples or Wests constructed outside the geographical boundaries of the US This collection presents an eclectic array of new scholarship ranging freely over the New Wests and Post Wests dealing with issues such as the literature of a 1950s California West eco crime genre fiction the West of Edward Dorn and the Beat Movement images of prostitution in California Gold Rush literature European perspectives on film representations of the first peoples the six shooter and the American West German Westerns and Italian Westerns The Authentic Death of Hendry Jones by Charles Neider and films such as The

Treasure of Sierra Madre Into the Wild There Will Be Blood and The Last Picture Show A unique aspect of this collection is the range of writers interpreting the American West in film and literature besides those writing from within the United States five of the writers provide international perspectives from the United Kingdom and the Universities of Tunis Vienna and Rome Each chapter includes a review of scholarship on its subject and an extended bibliography for further research
