Copyright Office,1963 Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June      Margery Perham and British Rule in Africa Mary Bull,Alison Smith,2013-12-02 Margery Perham was an outstanding influence on official and academic thinking on British Colonial rule and decolonization in Africa during the middle part of the century The book traces how the Second World War transformed her view of colonial rule and of the rate at which it would have to be relinquished      Erased Patricia Owens,2025-01-21 How a field built on the intellectual labor and expertise of women erased them The academic field of international relations presents its own history as largely a project of elite white men And yet women played a prominent role in the creation of this new cross disciplinary field In Erased Patricia Owens shows that since its beginnings in the early twentieth century international relations relied on the intellectual labour of women and their expertise on such subjects as empire and colonial administration anticolonial organising non Western powers and international organisations Indeed women were among the leading international thinkers of the era shaping the development of the field as scholars journalists and public intellectuals and as heterosexual spouses and intimate same sex partners Drawing on a wide range of archival sources and weaving together personal institutional and intellectual narratives Owens documents key moments and locations in the effort to forge international relations as a separate academic discipline in Britain She finds that women s ideas and influence were first marginalised and later devalued ignored and erased Examining the roles played by some of the most important women thinkers in the field including Margery Perham Merze Tate Eileen Power Margaret Cleeve Coral Bell and Susan Strange Owens traces the intellectual and institutional legacies of misogyny and racism She argues that the creation of international relations was a highly gendered and racialised project that failed to understand plurality on a worldwide scale Acknowledging this intellectual failure and recovering the history of women in the field points to possible sources for its renewal

The Dissolution of the Colonial Empires Franz Ansprenger, 2018-05-01 First published in 1989 On the eve of the First World War almost 72 million square kilometres of territory and more than 560 million people were under colonial rule By 1980 the European colonial empires had disappeared from the map Concentrating in particular on the British Commonwealth and the French colonial empire the author shows how economic and political changes in the mother countries the awakening national consciousness of the African and Asian peoples and the effects of two World Wars had all compelled Europe to decolonize He argues that although a satisfactory new order in world politics and the global economy has not been achieved in the process the dissolution of the empires came about with remarkably little bloodshed thereby laying a solid foundation for the future The author concludes by looking at the legacy of the decolonized world in the late 1980s He examines the last bastion of European colonial domination South Africa and discusses the emerging new North South relations

Islam in German East Africa, 1885-1918 Jörg Haustein, 2023-07-14 In this rich and multi layered deconstruction of German colonial engagement with Islam Jörg Haustein shows how imperial agents in Germany's largest colony wielded the knowledge category of Islam in a broad set of debates ranging from race language and education to slavery law conflict and war These representations of Mohammedanism often invoked for particular political ends amounted to a serious misreading of Muslims in East Africa with significant long term effects As the first in depth account of the politics of Islam in German East Africa the book makes an essential contribution to the history of religion in Tanzania before British rule It also offers a template for re reading the colonial archive in a manner that recovers Muslim agency beyond a European paradigm of religion

African Perspectives on Colonialism A. Adu Boahen, 2020-10-06 This history deals with the twenty year period between 1880 and 1900 when virtually all of Africa was seized and occupied by the Imperial Powers of Europe Eurocentric points of view have dominated the study of this era but in this book one of Africa's leading historians reinterprets the colonial experiences from the perspective of the colonized The Johns Hopkins Symposia in Comparative History are occasional volumes sponsored by the Department of History at the Johns Hopkins University and the Johns Hopkins University Press comprising original essays by leading scholars in the United States and other countries Each volume considers from a comparative perspective an important topic of current historical interest The present volume is the fifteenth Its preparation has been assisted by the James S Schouler Lecture Fund
