The Color Of Guilt And Innocence Racial Profiling And Police Practices In America:

The Color of Guilt & Innocence Steve Holbert,Lisa Rose,2004 Reared in the Hindu tradition quantum physicist Amit Goswami integrates our spiritual heart with our scientific head   The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Race Naomi Zack,2017 The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Race provides up to date explanation and analyses by leading scholars in African American philosophy and philosophy of race Fifty one original essays cover major topics from intellectual history to contemporary social controversies in this emerging philosophical subfield that supports demographic inclusion and emphasizes cultural relevance

Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman,2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century   The Handbook of Research on Black Males Theodore S. Ransaw,C.P. Gause,Richard Majors,2018-11-01 Drawing from the work of top researchers in various fields The Handbook of Research on Black Males explores the nuanced and multifaceted phenomena known as the black male Simultaneously hyper visible and invisible black males around the globe are being investigated now more than ever before however many of the well meaning responses regarding media attention paid to black males are not well informed by research Additionally not all black males are the same and each of them have varying strengths and challenges making one size fits all perspectives unproductive This text which acts as a comprehensive tool that can serve as a resource to articulate and argue for policy change suggest educational improvements and advocate judicial reform fills a large void The contributors from multidisciplinary backgrounds focus on history research trends health education criminal and social justice hip hop and programs and initiatives This volume has the potential to influence the field of research on black males as well as improve lives for a population that is often the most celebrated in the media and simultaneously the least socially valued

Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Shaun L. Gabbidon,2010 This book provides case studies from countries around the world regarding the nature and scope of concerns related to race ethnicity crime and justice The text centres primarily on English speaking countries where they have encountered problems related to race ethnicity crime and justice The book is designed to be used as either a main or supplementary text for courses focusing on race and crime minorities and crime and diversity in criminal justice Additionally it can also be used in sociology and ethnic studies courses that focus on race and crime

Seeing Beauty, Sensing Race in Transnational Indonesia L. Ayu Saraswati,2013-03-31 In Indonesia light skin color has been desirable throughout recorded history Seeing Beauty Sensing Race explores Indonesia s changing beauty ideals and traces them to a number of influences first to ninth century India and some of the oldest surviving Indonesian literary works then a thousand years later to the impact of Dutch colonialism and the wartime occupation of Japan and finally in the post colonial period to the popularity of American culture The book shows how the transnational circulation of people images and ideas have shaped and shifted discourses and hierarchies of race gender skin color and beauty in Indonesia The author employs affect theories and feminist cultural studies as a lens through which to analyze a vast range of materials including the Old Javanese epic poem Ramayana archival materials magazine advertisements commercial products and numerous interviews with Indonesian women The book offers a rich repertoire of analytical and theoretical tools that allow readers to rethink issues of race and gender in a global context and understand how feelings and emotions Western constructs as well as Indian Javanese and Indonesian notions such as rasa and malu contribute to and are constitutive of transnational and gendered processes of racialization Saraswati argues that it is how emotions come to be attached to certain objects and how they circulate that shape the emotionscape of white beauty in Indonesia Her ground breaking work is a nuanced theoretical exploration of the ways in which representations of beauty and the emotions they embody travel geographically and help shape attitudes and beliefs toward race and gender in a transnational world

But is it Racial Profiling? Vikas Kiernan Gumbhir,Vikas Kumar Gumbhir,2007   Biometrics Joseph Pugliese,2012-12-06 Biometric technologies such as finger or facial scan are being deployed across a variety of social contexts in order to facilitate and guarantee identity verification and authentication In the post 9 11 world biometric technologies have experienced an extraordinary period of growth as concerns about security and screening have increased This book analyses biometric systems in terms of the application of biopolitical power corporate military and governmental on the human body It deploys cultural theory in examining the manner in which biometric technologies constitute the body as a target of surveillance and as a data information object The book thereby provides a comprehensive overview and critical analysis of both the local and global ramifications of biometric technologies

Breaking Through the Plate Glass Window—Prophetic Fragments Michael Granzen,2022-05-31 This is a selection of writings on themes of trauma and transformation hope and anguish in a time of reckoning The first section offers biographical fragments about life after the bulldozer runs you over How do you get up How do you live with others who don t understand How do you keep walking They draw upon life experiences in Boston Iona and New Jersey Faith is not so much about agreeing with doctrine but a dynamic active seeking questioning trust in God It includes both audacity and humility The second section draws upon fragments of historical reflection On Violent Innocence Mourning and Metanoia in New Jersey This is an exploration of the principality of white racism state based violence and exploitation of the poor It asks the question How did the Confederate flag get in the front window of the Presbyterian church on Lincoln s birthday Some of the white terrorism that happened at the Capitol is prefigured here Yet there is grace hidden in judgment We cannot heal from what we do not name The third section contains fragments of prophetic wisdom from Lorna Goodison Richard Fenn Mike Gecan Karen Hernandez Granzen and Archange Antoine Along with Traci West and Chris Hedges their voices are strong and true   Encouraging and Supporting Student Inquiry Harriet S. Selverstone,2007-09-30 Assignments that engage students in inquiry topics of their own choosing contribute to motivation and thus to learning Very often the topics chosen particularly by high school students are considered controversial by school administration parents community organizations and others This practical book discusses the processes actions and policies needed to support and encourage high school students in that type of inquiry Building trusting relationships over time with administration and the school community will be stressed as a way to build a community of true inquiry in your school and library Classroom teachers and high school librarians will value the advice and scaffolding techniques presented that will enable their school and high school library to become a safe place for student inquiry into issues of their own choosing controversial or not The author draws on her 30 plus years as a high school librarian deeply concerned with the intellectual freedom of the researchers in her library media center and with offering help and reassurance to those trying to implement school library programs that allow all voices to be heard Grades 9-12     Education Level and Police Use of Force John Vespucci, 2020-05-07

This brief presents a study addressing the impact of a college degree upon officer use of force The average American municipal police academy only requires 26 weeks of training despite previous studies showing overwhelming support that college educated police officers apply more discretion in their use of force than officers without a college degree Taking into account contemporary public police conflicts and how American perceptions of police are based largely on officer use of force this study offers a more current perspective on the profession's changing dynamic over the past decade With data gathered from over 400 officers from 143 distinct municipal police agencies in 6 American states the study examines the association between a college education and the level of force used to gain compliance during arrest situations and notes discrepancies between previously studied factors and contextual variables This brief will be useful for researchers of policing and for those involved with police training     Raza Rising Richard J. Gonzales, 2016-03-15

Based on articles written for the Fort Worth Star Telegram author Richard J Gonzales draws on his educational inner city and professional life experiences to weave eyewitness testimony into issues facing Chicanos including economic health education criminal justice politics immigration and cultural issues Raza Rising presents a personal recounting of a Chicano's struggle with and understanding of the socio economic policies and historical actions that impact their ascendancy Raza Rising offers first hand observations supported by well documented scholarly research of Chicanos growth and subsequent struggles to participate fully in North Texas political and economic life Raza Rising takes the reader to the organization of a Fort Worth immigration reform march to the actual march with 20 000 people on Main Street on Palm Sunday to a protest demonstration of the City of Farmers Branch's attempt to prohibit renting to the undocumented immigrant to the author's awakening in Chicago on the importance of learning and to his poignant experience as a guest speaker in a Fort Worth public school classroom Other observations offer insight on how Chicanos struggle with their ethnic identity and understanding of their history In addition the book highlights important historical and political events that illustrate Chicanos attempts to overcome barriers to their rise At a time when global economic competition threatens the United States first world status this country must nurture academic excellence for all its citizens Raza Rising provides specific explanations for the Chicano educational lag and workable solutions to accelerate their political economic and academic achievements Prophetic state and national demographers have forecasted the steady increase in Chicano populations and decrease in white populations Raza Rising offers students instructors policy makers politicians and neighbors a deeper understanding of Chicanos who in the near future will transition from minority to majority status in Texas

Social Control James J. Chriss,2007-09-19 James J

Chriss carefully guides readers through the debates about social control The book provides a comprehensive guide to historical debates and more recent controversies examining in detail the criminal justice system medicine everyday life and national security

Racial Issues in Criminal Justice Marvin D. Free,2003-09-30 Almost a third of all African American men in their twenties in the United States are in jail or prison or on probation or parole African Americans who comprise approximately 13% of the general population make up about half of the prison population Between 1980 and 2000 38 states added more African American men to their prison systems than were added to their respective systems of higher education However these statistics fail to tell the entire story To understand how the dynamics of disproportionate minority confinement came to exist one must examine the historical and cultural antecedents that affected and continue to affect this group Examining proposed solutions and providing alternative perspectives this volume addresses the overrepresentation of African Americans in the criminal justice system by critically examining the significance of race in American society and criminal justice responses to crime and African Americans Offering a critical examination of the issues this collection begins with a discussion of the marginalization of African Americans in the academic discipline of criminal justice and in the larger society an assessment of the impact of the legacy of slavery on private prisons and mass imprisonment and an empirical examination of the depiction of African Americans in prime time television crime programs Part II looks at racial profiling the underrepresentation of African Americans in hate crime victimization research the impact of race on presentencing the trend toward trying juveniles in adult court and the discriminatory treatment of African Americans in capital eligible cases Finally Part III discusses the impact of African American police officers on the profession analyzes black juror nullification proposes an increase in the presence of African American jurors and assesses the potential ameliorative impact of restorative justice on the current racial imbalance in the criminal justice system

About Guilt and Innocence Donald A. Dripps,2002-12-30 This remarkably original and vital work argues that the problems are rooted in a disjunction between prevailing values and the prevailing doctrinal regime in constitutional law Dripps asserts that the Fourteenth Amendment's more general standards of due process and equal protection encompass the values that ought to govern the criminal process Why does the American criminal justice system punish too many innocent people failing to punish so many guilty parties and imposing a disproportionate burden on blacks This remarkably original and vital work argues that the problems are rooted in a disjunction between prevailing values and the prevailing doctrinal regime in constitutional law Dripps asserts that the Fourteenth Amendment's more general standards of due process and equal protection encompass the values that ought to govern the criminal process Criminal procedure ought to be about protecting the innocent punishing the guilty and doing equal justice Modern legal doctrine however hinders these pursuits by concentrating on the specific procedural safeguards contained in the Bill of Rights Dripps argues that a renewed focus on the Fourteenth Amendment would be more consistent than current law with both our values and with the legitimate sources of Constitutional law and will promote the instrumental values the criminal process ought to serve Legal and constitutional scholars will find his account of our criminal system's disarray compelling and his argument as to how it may be reconstructed important and provoking

Whispers on the Color Line Gary Alan Fine, Patricia A. Turner, 2023-09-01 Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys and candy teenagers share stories about sex drugs and rock and roll young professionals commiserate over the hazards of the work world These stories address aspects of life about which we receive mixed or ambiguous messages Given that matters relevant to race remain confused and divisive in many corridors of American society it is not surprising that rumors and legends that reflect racial misunderstanding and mistrust frequently circulate Whispers on the Color Line focuses on a wide array of tales told in black and white communities across America Topics run the gamut from alleged governmental conspiracies possible food tampering gang violence and the sex lives of celebrities Such beliefs travel by word of mouth in print and increasingly over the Internet In many instances these stories reflect the tenacious level of racial misunderstanding that continues to vex efforts to foster racial harmony creating separate racialized pools of knowledge The authors have spent over twenty years collecting and analyzing rumors and contemporary legends from the ever durable Kentucky Fried Rat cycle to persistent beliefs about athletic footwear manufacturers and their support for white supremacist regimes These implausible stories serve many purposes they assuage anxieties entertain friends increase our sense of control all without directly proclaiming our own attitudes Fine and Turner consider how these tales reflect attitudes that blacks and whites have both about each other and about the world they face In an engaging and penetrating narrative they brilliantly demonstrate how by transforming unacceptable impulses into a narrative that is claimed to have actually happened we are able to express the inexpressible Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin
