The Color of Love Elizabeth Hordge-Freeman, 2015-10-30 Winner Section on the Sociology of Emotions Outstanding Recent Contribution Book Award American Sociological Association 2016 Charles Horton Cooley Award for Recent Book Society for the Study of Symbolic Interaction 2017 Best Publication Award Section on Body and Embodiment American Sociological Association ASA 2018 The Color Of Love reveals the power of racial hierarchies to infiltrate our most intimate relationships Delving far deeper than previous sociologists have into the black Brazilian experience Elizabeth Hordge Freeman examines the relationship between racialization and the emotional life of a family Based on interviews and a sixteen month ethnography of ten working class Brazilian families this provocative work sheds light on how families simultaneously resist and reproduce racial hierarchies Examining race and gender Hordge Freeman illustrates the privileges of whiteness by revealing how those with blacker features often experience material and emotional hardships From parental ties to sibling interactions to extended family and romantic relationships the chapters chart new territory by revealing the connection between proximity to whiteness and the distribution of affection within families Hordge Freeman also explores how black Brazilian families particularly mothers rely on diverse strategies that reproduce negotiate and resist racism She frames efforts to modify racial features as sometimes reflecting internalized racism and at other times as responding to material and emotional considerations Contextualizing their strategies within broader narratives of the African diaspora she examines how Salvador s inhabitants perceive the history of the slave trade itself in a city that is referred to as the blackest in Brazil She argues that racial hierarchies may orchestrate family relationships in ways that reflect and reproduce racial inequality but black Brazilian families actively negotiate these hierarchies to assert their citizenship and humanity What's the Color of Love! Tuija I Finnälä, 2023-05-04 What s The Color of Love A book that is about when a child s subconscious creates many of the false beliefs that a child between the ages of 0 and 7 carry with them into adulthood Life without blinders and just simple truths about how as an adult you can understand how subconscious feelings are created within a child A book that helps other people who want to grow and create the best life for themselves here on earth A book writing to help people help themselves WHAT'S THE COLOR OF LOVE! TUIJA I. FINNILA, 2023 The Colour of Love Anne Hemingway, 2004 The Colour of Love is a wonderful and delightful story It is more than just the coming together of our two young lovers Yosef and Lisa but the coming together of an entire Multicultural community Yosef and Lisa are the two catalysts that Bridge the Gap and show their families friends and neighbors the true meaning of real love From its graphic beginning to its climatic ending The Colour of Love will cause the reader to look carefully into the deepness of their own soul to perhaps see if there are any underlying prejudices that are still unresolved Prayerfully this story will help the reader to resolve these issues and see healing as the end result The Colour of Love with its mixture of Afro American and Jewish culture combined with its wonderful blend of humor and sensuality intrigue and mystery And the supernatural All interwoven to weave a tapestry of
