The Aesthetic Animal Henrik Høgh-Olesen, 2018-08-17 The Aesthetic Animal answers the ultimate questions of why we adorn ourselves embellish our things and surroundings and produce art music song dance and fiction Humans are aesthetic animals that spend vast amounts of time and resources on seemingly useless aesthetic activities However nature would not allow a species to waste precious time and effort on activities completely unrelated to survival reproduction and the well being of that species Consequently the aesthetic impulse must have some important biological functions A number of observations indicate that the aesthetic impulse is an inherent part of human nature and therefore a primary impulse in its own right with several important functions The aesthetic impulse may guide us toward what is biologically good for us and help us choose the right fitness enhancing items in our surroundings It is a valid individual fitness indicator as well as a unifying social group marker and aesthetically skilled individuals get more mating possibilities higher status and more collaborative offers The book is written in a lively and entertaining tone with beautiful color illustrations It covers a wide field of aesthetic behaviors from cave art graffiti tattoos and piercings over fashion design music song and dance It presents an original and comprehensive synthesis of the empirical field synthesizing data from archeology cave art anthropology biology ethology behavioral and evolutionary psychology and neuro aesthetics It is a must read for people interested in biology psychology anthropology architecture design fashion body culture art and the evolution of aesthetics

Domesticated: Evolution in a Man-Made World Richard C. Francis, 2015-05-25 Without domestication civilization as we know it would not exist Since that fateful day when the first wolf decided to stay close to human hunters humans and their various animal companions have thrived far beyond nearly all wild species on earth Tamelessness is the key trait in the domestication of cats dogs horses cows and other mammals from rats to reindeer Surprisingly with selection for tameness comes a suite of seemingly unrelated alterations including floppy ears skeletal and coloration changes and sex differences It s a package deal known as the domestication syndrome elements of which are also found in humans Our highly social nature one of the keys to our evolutionary success is due to our own tameness In Domesticated Richard C Francis weaves history and anthropology with cutting edge ideas in genomics and evo devo to tell
