The Commands Of Love:

The Love Commandment in Mark George Keerankeri, 2003 This research work investigates the problem whether the texts of the love commandment of Mk 12 28 34 which are quotations of Deut 6 4 5 and Lev 19 18 have their original OT meaning in the gospel of Mark or whether they acquire besides this a specific Markan enrichment The study not only affirms such a specificity but also demonstrates its richness and depth It establishes that the distinctiveness of the Markan conception of the love commandment is closely linked to the person of Jesus and is expressed in a multiplicity of data both formal and thematic which can be discovered in an integral reading of the gospel The methodology employed is modern redaction criticism which differs from classical Redaction criticism in that it is synchronic and takes the text as it stands as a coherent and wholistic document to be understood in terms of itself and thus studies it in an integral reading The investigation has two parts involving four chapters and a general conclusion Part I comprising Ch I and Ch II dwells on the OT meaning and context of the texts of the love commandment and provides a lucid account of them which serves as the basis for its study in the gospel Part II researches the commandment in Mk in two chapters Of these Ch III represents the gospel's theoretical interpretation of the commandment and Ch IV Jesus' fulfillment of it in the Passion his instruction by example Together they complete Mark's total interpretation of the love commandment Following this the general conclusion sees the Markan specificities in a unifying theological vision defined by the gospel's Christology and closes by drawing its consequences George Keerankeri was born on 10 December 1944 at Kothanallloor in Kerala India He entered the Society of Jesus in 1962 and was ordained a priest in 1974 He holds an M A in Social Cultural Anthropology and completed his Licentiate in Sacred Scripture LSS at the Pontifical Biblical Institute Rome in 1979 Ever since he is a lecturer of the New Testament at Vidyajyoti College of Theology the Jesuit Faculty of Theology in Delhi India The Commands of Christ Tom Blackaby, 2012-01-01 Jesus says in John 15 10 11 If you keep My commands you will remain in My love just as I have kept My Father's commands and remain in His love I have spoken these things to you so that My joy may be in you and your joy may be complete The Commands of Christ is an unpacking of that key promise a simply powerful presentation of the loving imperatives we sometimes know more by rote than by heart Love your enemies Don't store up treasures on earth Seek first the kingdom of God Let your light shine before men etc Tom Blackaby's focused writing serves as a plumb line of sorts guiding us toward a vibrant commitment to the Lordship of Christ that better shapes our lives how we worship and how we relate to others You will begin to know more clearly and experience more fully the freedom that comes through obedient acts of love and service to God Love in the Gospel of John Francis J. SDB Moloney, 2013-11-19 The command to love is central to the Gospel of John Internationally respected scholar Francis Moloney offers a thorough exploration of this theme focusing not only on Jesus's words but also on his actions Instead of merely telling people that they must love one another Jesus acts to make God's love known and calls all who follow him to do the same This capstone work on John's Gospel uses a narrative approach to delve deeply into a theme at the heart of the Fourth Gospel and the life of the Christian church Uniting rigorous exegesis with theological and pastoral insight it makes a substantive contribution to contemporary Johannine scholarship Romans Jack Cottrell,2005 Dawnbringer: The Complete Story Joshua Elzner,2024-04-08 A complete epic medieval fantasy saga Dawnbringer is a series of novels set in the world of Ierendal upon the small continent of Telmerion cold and rugged and yet inhabited since the beginning of human history by the first family of humankind Though the setting is high fantasy a work of co creative imagination fashioning a mythical world with its own history and geography the plot and the ins and outs of the world are deeply realistic portraying as it were an ancient and long forgotten past of our own world Or more precisely what is offered here is a mythical exposition of the true past that we all share with very little magic or other fantasy tropes but with a great deal of magic in other words a world filled with wonders and terrors of all kinds from the ancient guardians of the world the Anaion to vicious and deadly beasts such as dragons e tenga and druadach The characters find themselves caught in the cosmic battle between light and darkness between the weakness of love and the power of hate which casts its rays and its shadows also into the heart of every man and woman The journey marked out before their feet calls for integrity fidelity and heroism and also something even more something that lies at the heart of every good adventure and every life and which is the very measure of man When Eldarien returns to his homeland after many years away burdened by the awareness that he has perpetrated great evil at the hands of an Empire whose knight he has become he encounters a continent riven by strife and war and threatened by creatures even more horrifying born of the very darkness itself He wishes to lay aside the sword to leave behind a past marked with violence and bloodshed but he also longs to aid his people against the forces that endanger their very existence And such a path he cannot walk alone facing obstacles both within and without and he finds given to him both the light that he wishes to serve and friends to share the journey All the while the land that he loves slides inexorably into conflict into what shall be known henceforth as the War of Darkness and he and those to whom he is joined are called upon to share the fate of their people looking forward in hope to the promised coming of dawn after darkest night Throughout time myth has been one of the fundamental activities of the human heart as it seeks to contemplate and understand the mystery of reality to find a path through the fabric of history as its tapestry is ever woven a path that unveils meaning in the enigmas of life and gives sense and stability to the drama of existence But especially the activity of myth of fantasy is born of a primal wonder before the awesome miracle of being and of the fundamental human activity which is play and serves to keep this wonder and play alive always In precisely this way it has been and shall always be a catalyst to enkindle and deepen the longing in the heart of each one of us for redemption for a new and better world a world where righteousness and happiness dwell and all is freedom and purpose unity and harmony ecstatic delight and true adventure Such does Dawnbringer humbly seek stepping into the flowing current of thought and imagination as it surges on through history offering in a narrative of proportions both intimate and epic a glimpse of the light that shines upon us all and of the conflict that resides at the center of every life that the weak again may be strong and the child again may be king

Amer,2009-09 In The Five Commandments of Jesus A New Approach to Christianity Patrick Amer presents to the ordinary Christian and the theologian alike his new refreshing and clear approach to the mission and meaning of Jesus of Nazareth Amer identifies the five commandments of Jesus as central within the recorded ethical teachings of Jesus These five commandments show the continued relevance and importance of Jesus in expressing God's will and plan for humankind The book is clearly written and readily accessible to all readers Discussion groups across denominations will find that this book meets each reader at the exact point at which we all find ourselves today Roger Haight S J Union Theological Seminary In this book Patrick Amer describes his discovery of the five commandments of Jesus He shows that the commandments are not a random selection of commands They are an integrated and focused attack on humanity's most deeply embedded anti social behaviors those placed there by natural selection He shows that these behaviors were in ancient times absorbed into humanity's public institutions and they are still there The kingdom of God is the community of men and women who live by the five commandments of Jesus applying them in their personal lives and to public institutions as well This book examines each commandment to show how it is to be practiced in one's personal life and how it is to be applied to public institutions By practicing the five commandments of Jesus the followers of Jesus participate in his redeeming mission and with him save the world

The Spirituality of the Gospels Stephen C. Barton,2006-09-06 Probably no other works of ancient literature have had a greater influence on religious life and thought than the Four Gospels Certainly no other works have been the subject of such intense study by those determined to learn more about the Gospels central often enigmatic figure And yet despite the bewildering variety of scholarly approaches few have sought to interpret the Gospels in terms of the distinctive spirituality that each contains and seeks to evoke in its readers That is the aim of this important new book to help today's readers explore what each Gospel has to offer when viewed by its own right as a classic of Western spirituality Written in a clear non technical style the fresh perspectives this work presents will open new vistas on the familiar stories about the life teaching and ultimate significance of Jesus Friends of the Bridegroom Marc Ouellet,2019-10-15 With the mind of a theologian and the heart of a pastor Marc Cardinal Ouellet releases this timely book to help Catholics arrive at a deeper understanding of the Church's traditional teaching on the priesthood and the discipline of celibacy

Paul Ricœur, Philosophical Hermeneutics, and the Question of Revelation Christina M. Gschwandtner,2024-01-08 The topic of revelation is fundamental to any account of religious experience playing a special role in the Judeo Christian tradition where the texts of Scripture are regarded as revealed Yet any reflection on the revealed status of a given message or text requires interpretation Paul Ricoeur one of the most important hermeneutic philosophers of the twentieth century provides crucial insights on how such interpretation might proceed and what it might mean for texts to be revealed Edited by Christina M Gschwandtner Paul Ricoeur Philosophical Hermeneutics and the Question of Revelation brings together major scholars of Ricoeur's work on the topic of revelation showing both the role it already plays in his work and how his thinking might be taken further. Several contributors trace the development of his thought in regard to the concept of revelation. Others discuss the revelatory dimensions of Ricoeur's hermeneutics of the self especially for such issues as identity, trauma, and forgiveness. Several contributions also place his work in conversation with that of other seminal thinkers on the topic of revelation such as Karl Barth and Paul Tillich.

Preaching the Fear of God in a Fear-Filled World Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, 2021-11-30 Fear runs rampant in the world today including fears related to the rise of nationalism, refugees, political corruption, violence, religious extremism, and climate crises. Amid these existential realities, the biblical idea of the fear of God poses theological opportunities and challenges for those who address these themes in their preaching and public ministry. This collection of conference presentations from the 2018 meeting of Societas Homiletica focuses on how preaching and homiletical studies around the world address the rhetorical, biblical, political, and spiritual dimensions of fear as it has emerged in recent decades in church and society.

The Passion of Possibility Ingolf U. Dalferth, 2023-02-20 For Kierkegaard, the most important thing in life is to become a single individual or a true self. We are all born as human beings, but this makes us only members of a crowd, not true selves. To become a true self, we must transcend what we are at any given time and orient ourselves to the possible and to the actuality of the possible to which all that is possible owes itself. True selves exist only in becoming; they are fragile, and that is their strength. They are not grounded by their own activities but in a reality extra se, the flip side of which is a deep passivity that underlies all their activity and allows them to continually leave themselves and move beyond their respective actualities toward the new and the possible. Therefore, without the passion of possibility, there is no truly single individual. This study of Kierkegaard's post-metaphysical theology outlines his existential phenomenology of the self by exploring in three parts what Kierkegaard has to say about the sense of self, finitude, uniqueness, self-interpretation, and alienation; about selfless passion, anxiety, trust, hope, and true love; and about how to become a true self, a Christian in Christendom, and a neighbor of God's neighbors.

'Love Your Enemies' John Piper, 1979 A Theology of the New Testament George Eldon Ladd, 1993-09-02 Ladd's magisterial work on New Testament theology has well served scores of seminary students since 1974. Now this comprehensive standard evangelical text has been carefully revised by Hagner to include an update of Ladd's survey of the history of the field of New Testament theology, an augmented bibliography, and an entirely new subject index.

The Routledge Encyclopedia of the Historical Jesus Craig Evans, 2014-01-14 This Encyclopedia brings together the vast array of historical research into the reality of the man, the teachings, the acts, and the events ascribed to him that have served as the foundational story of one of the world's central religions. This kind of historiography is not biography. The historical study of the Jesus stories and the transmission of these stories through time have been of seminal importance to historians of religion. Echoes of Jesus in the First Epistle of Peter Timothy E. Miller, 2022-03-10 How did the words of Jesus influence the writing of 1 Peter That is the question that is at the heart of this study Of course the answer is complicated by the fact that 1 Peter nowhere directly references the words of Jesus Nevertheless the impact of his words are evident throughout the letter The first third of the book lays the foundation for answering the question by giving clear and concise criteria for identifying places where 1 Peter uses the words of Jesus The rest of the book walks through the text of 1 Peter section by section submitting each potential echo of Jesus s words to the criteria previously developed The book concludes by considering how the words of Jesus influenced the themes and content of the letter Judgments of Love in Criminal Justice

Farhad Malekian,2017-03-31 This volume is a new chapter in the future history of law Its general perspective could not be more original and its critical ethical edge on the state of international law could not be timelier It explores a compassionate philosophical approach to the genuine substance of law criminal procedure international criminal law and international criminal justice It divides law into three interrelated disciplines i e legality morality and love The norm love is derived from human reason for man s advancement and the securing of natural law It is more than a mere mandatory norm Its goal is to generate a normative and positive powerful result therefore avoiding any impurity that may exist in the application of other norms because of political or juridical pressures a one eyed justice The norm love also renders justice with the principles of legal accountability transparency and the high moral authentic values of humanity The notion of justice cannot be trusted in the absence of the norm love The volume indicates the conditions of its efficiency by proving the reasons for its existence in the context of fairness objectivity and concern for all individuals and entities The concept of the norm love should be the core academic corpus for lecturing law in all faculties of law It is simply the enlightenment of the 21st century A lawyer with requisite knowledge and skill is not a lawyer if he cannot understand that the law does not need a lawyer with ethical competence in its provisions for income purposes but one with knowledge of its essence for the advanced morality of justice and the sheer essence of love for justice
