The Hungry Forties, Life Under the Bread Tax ,1904      The Hungry Forties ,1905      Catalogue of the London Library, St. James Square, London. Supplement London Library, Sir Charles Theodore Hagberg Wright, Christopher James Purnell, 1920      Catalogue of the London Library, St. James's Square, London: 1928-1950 London Library, Charles Theodore Hagberg Wright, C. J. Purnell, 1920      Catalogue of Books Exclusive of Prose Fiction in the Central Lending Library Leeds (England). Public Libraries, Art Gallery and Museum, 1907      The Liberal Party in Rural England 1885-1910 Patricia Lynch, 2003-01-23 This book explores the relationship between the British Liberal party and the rural working class voters enfranchised by the Third Reform Act of 1884 In contrast to many works that present urban voters as the primary agents of political change in nineteenth and twentieth century England this study argues that an examination of the dynamics of popular rural politics is essential to a thorough understanding of political developments in the early years of mass enfranchisement Prior to 1914 capturing a substantial portion of the rural vote was essential to any political party seeking to establish a strong Parliamentary majority and the Liberal party coming from a traditionally strong urban base had to work particularly hard to meet the expectations of the new rural electorate The book shows that popular political culture in the English countryside was dominated by two important and sometimes conflicting traditions on the one hand a history of radical social protest emphasizing attacks on the privileges of landowning elites and on the other a widespread concern for the harmony of the local community coupled with a suspicion of unnecessary divisiveness The attempt to appeal simultaneously to both of these facets of rural political culture helps to explain not only why the Liberals continued to launch rhetorical attacks on the landed aristocracy and to promote schemes of land reform long after one might have expected them to have switched to a more modern emphasis on class politics but also why the New Liberal emphasis on the politics of community carried such broad electoral appeal at the beginning of the twentieth century The book suggests finally that in focusing primarily on urban democratization historians of this period may have exaggerated the role of class allegiances in shaping popular political opinion and underestimated the continuities between Old and New Liberalism      The Hungry Forties Forties Hungry, 1904      Hunger James Vernon, 2007-11-30 This book draws together social cultural and political history to show us how we came to have a moral political and social responsibility toward the hungry Vernon forcefully reminds us how many perished from hunger in the empire and reveals how their history was intricately connected with the precarious achievements of Britain's welfare state      The Public ,1906      Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1904      The Removal of Irish Paupers from Britain Lewis Darwen, Donald MacRaild, 2024-11-29 During the nineteenth century local officials sought to deal with their Irish pauper problem by removing these poor migrants back to Ireland under the laws of settlement and removal Over the course of the century hundreds of thousands of Irish paupers were forcibly repatriated in this way Even though the settlement rights of Irish immigrants gradually improved over time removals were still taking place into the twentieth century The system was widely recognised as being cruel and unfair especially in Ireland where the removal of Irish paupers from Britain garnered considerable political and press attention Much was made of the illegality of some removals and of harsh removals involving widowed women children and the elderly This book which is the first sustained study of repatriation from Britain demonstrates a persistent theme the marginal nature of Irish life on the larger island Drawing on extensive research from newspaper sources and parliamentary papers it presents an original and richly detailed perspective on Irish immigration poverty and pauperism in nineteenth century Britain
