The Image In Dispute Art And Cinema In The Age Of Photography:

The Image in Dispute Dudley Andrew, 1997 Photography cinema and video have irrevocably changed the ways in which we view and interpret images Indeed the mechanical reproduction of images was a central preoccupation of twentieth century philosopher Walter Benjamin who recognized that film would become a vehicle not only for the entertainment of the masses but also for consumerism and even communism and fascism In this volume experts in film studies and art history take up the debate begun by Benjamin about the power and scope of the image in a secular age Part I aims to bring Benjamin's concerns to life in essays that evoke specific aspects and moments of the visual culture he would have known Part II focuses on precise instances of friction within the traditional arts brought on by this century's changes in the value and mission of images Part III goes straight to the image technologies themselves photography cinema and video to isolate distinctive features of the visual cultures they help constitute As we advance into the postmodern era in which images play an ever more central role in conveying perceptions and information this anthology provides a crucial context for understanding the apparently irreversible shift from words to images that characterized the modernist period It will be important reading for everyone in cultural studies film and media studies and art history Photography and Cinema David Company, 2008-11-15 This account of photography and cinema shows how the two media are not separate but in fact have influenced each other since their inception David Company explores photographers on screen photographic and filmic stillness photographs in film the influence of photography on cinema and the photographer as a filmmaker OCLC Rites of Realism Ivone Margulies, 2003-03-27 A collection of essays rethinking and reviving realism as a focus for film theory particularly emphasizing the relation of the genre to issues of the body Japonisme and the Birth of Cinema Daisuke Miyao, 2020-07-24 Daisuke Miyao reveals the undetected influence that Japanese art and aesthetics had on early cinema and the pioneering films of the Lumi re brothers The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies James Donald, Michael Renov, 2008-04-16 Written by a team of veteran scholars and exciting emerging talents The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies maps the field internationally drawing out regional differences in the way that systematic intellectual reflection on cinema and film has been translated into an academic discipline It examines the conversations between Film Studies and its contributory disciplines that not only defined a new field of discourse but also modified existing scholarly traditions It reflects on the field's dominant paradigms and debates and evaluates their continuing salience Finally it looks forward optimistically to the future of the medium of film the institution of cinema and the discipline of Film Studies at a time when the very existence of film and cinema are being called into question by new technological industrial and aesthetic developments Pretty Rosalind Galt, 2011-05-31 Film culture often rejects visually rich images treating simplicity austerity or even ugliness as the more provocative political and truly cinematic choice Cinema may challenge traditional ideas of art but its opposition to the decorative represents a long standing Western aesthetic bias against feminine cosmetics Oriental effeminacy and primitive ornament Inheriting this patriarchal colonial perspective which treats decorative style as foreign or sexually perverse filmmakers critics and theorists have often denigrated colorful picturesque and richly patterned visions in cinema Condemning the exclusion of the pretty from masculine film culture Rosalind Galt reevaluates received ideas about the decorative impulse from early film criticism to classical and postclassical film theory The pretty embodies lush visuality dense mise en scene painterly framing and arabesque camera movements styles increasingly central to world cinema From European art cinema to the films of Wong Kar wai and Santosh Sivan from the experimental films of Derek Jarman to the popular pleasures of Moulin Rouge the pretty is a vital element of contemporary cinema communicating distinct sexual and political identities Inverting the logic of anti pretty thought Galt firmly establishes the decorative image as a queer aesthetic uniquely able to figure cinema s perverse pleasures and cross cultural encounters Creating her own critical tapestry from perspectives in art theory film theory and philosophy Galt reclaims prettiness as a radically transgressive style shimmering with threads of political agency British Indian Picture Postcards in Bengaluru Emily Stevenson,2023-12-18 Combining ethnographic and archival research this book examines the lives of colonial period postcards and reveals how they become objects of contemporary historical imagination in India Picture postcards were circulated around the world in their billions in the early twentieth century and remained until the advent of social media unmatched as the primary means of sharing images alongside personal messages This book based on original research in Bengaluru shows that their lives stretch from their initial production and consumption in the early 1900s into the present where they act as visual and material mediators in postcolonial productions of history locality and heritage against a backdrop of intense urban change The book will be of interest to photographic historians visual anthropologists and art historians A Companion to François Truffaut Dudley Andrew,Anne Gillain,2013-04-22 A Companion to François Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut s most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut s relationships to André Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his ground breaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him François Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut s value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker s background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut s controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this essential volume

Art in the Cinematic Imagination Susan Felleman, 2010-01-01 Bringing an art historical perspective to the realm of American and European film Art in the Cinematic Imagination examines the ways in which films have used works of art and artists themselves as cinematic and narrative motifs From the use of portraits in Vertigo to the cinematic depiction of women artists in Artemisia and Camille Claudel Susan Felleman incorporates feminist and psychoanalytic criticism to reveal individual and collective perspectives on sex gender identity commerce and class Probing more than twenty films from the postwar era through contemporary times Art in the Cinematic Imagination considers a range of structurally significant art objects artist characters and art world settings to explore how the medium of film can amplify reinvent or recontextualize the other visual arts Fluently speaking across disciplines Felleman s study brings a broad array of methodologies to bear on questions such as the evolution of the Hollywood Love Goddess and the pairing of the feminine with death on screen A persuasive approach to an engaging body of films Art in the Cinematic Imagination illuminates a compelling and significant facet of the cinematic experience

Essays on the Essay Film Nora M. Alter, Timothy Corrigan, 2017-03-14 The essay with its emphasis on the provisional and explorative rather than on definitive statements has evolved from its literary beginnings and is now found in all mediums including film Today the essay film is arguably one of the most widely acclaimed and critically discussed forms of filmmaking around the world with practitioners such as Chris Marker Hito Steyerl Errol Morris Trinh T Minh ha and Rithy Panh Characteristics of the essay film include the blending of fact and fiction the mixing of art and documentary film styles the foregrounding of subjective points of view a concentration on public life a tension between acoustic and visual discourses and a dialogic encounter with audiences This anthology of fundamental statements on the essay film offers a range of crucial historical and philosophical perspectives It provides early critical articulations of the essay film as it evolved through the 1950s and 1960s key contemporary scholarly essays and a selection of writings by essay filmmakers It features texts on the foundations of the essay film by writers such as Hans Richter and Andr Bazin contemporary positions by among others Phillip Lopate and Michael Renov and original essays by filmmakers themselves including Laura Mulvey and Isaac Julien

Defining Cinema Peter Lehman, 1997 On film studies Arnheim for Film and Media Studies Scott Higgins, 2010-10-18 Rudolf Arnheim 1904 2007 was a pioneering figure in film studies best known for his landmark book on silent cinema Film as Art He ultimately became more famous as a scholar in the fields of art and art history largely abandoning his theoretical work on cinema However his later aesthetic theories on form perception and emotion should play an important role in contemporary film and media studies In this enlightening new volume in the AFI Film Readers series an international group of leading scholars revisits Arnheim s legacy for film and media studies In fourteen essays the contributors bring Arnheim s later work on the visual arts to bear on film and media while also reassessing the implications of his film theory to help refine our grasp of Film as Art and related texts The contributors discuss a broad range topics including Arnheim s film writings in relation to modernism his antipathy to sound as well as color in film the formation of his early ideas on film against the social and political backdrop of the day the wider uses of his methodology and the implications of his work for digital media This is essential reading for any film and media student or scholar seeking to understand the meaning and contemporary impact of Arnheim s foundational work in film theory and aesthetics The Giallo Canvas

Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, 2021-01-22 Beloved among cult horror devotees for its signature excesses of sex and violence Italian giallo cinema is marked by switchblades mysterious killers whisky bottles and poetically overinflated titles A growing field of English language giallo studies has focused on aspects of production distribution and reception This volume explores an overlooked yet prevalent element in some of the best known gialli an obsession with art and artists in creative production with a particular focus on painting The author explores the appearance and significance of art objects across the masterworks of such filmmakers as Dario Argento Lucio Fulci Sergio Martino Umberto Lenzi Michele Soavi Mario Bava and his son Lamberto Breaking Bad and Cinematic Television Angelo Restivo, 2019-02-14 With its twisty serialized plots compelling antiheroes and stylish production Breaking Bad has become a signature series for a new golden age of television in which some premium cable shows have acquired the cultural prestige usually reserved for the cinema In Breaking Bad and Cinematic Television Angelo Restivo uses the series as a point of departure for theorizing a new aesthetics of television one based on an understanding of the cinematic that is tethered to affect rather than to medium or prestige Restivo outlines how Breaking Bad and other contemporary cinematic television series take advantage of the new possibilities of postnetwork TV to create an aesthetic that inspires new ways to think about how television engages with the everyday By exploring how the show presents domestic spaces and modes of experience under neoliberal capitalism in ways that allegorize the perceived twenty first century failures of masculinity family and the American Dream Restivo shows how the televisual cinematic has the potential to change the ways viewers relate to and interact with the world The Maternal Imagination of Film and Film Theory Lauren Bliss, 2020-09-03 This book challenges common sense understandings of the unconscious effects of cinema and visual culture It explores the castrating power of the early modern witch and the historical belief that pregnant women could manipulate and distort body image as figurative analogies for feminist theories of objectification and the male gaze Through developing this history as an impure but lively analogy this book serves as a provocation against the dominant imagining of objectification It offers innovative analyses of a wide ranging selection of films and topics including Joyce Wieland's Water Sark 1964 and its resonance with the works of John Cage and Stan Brakhage the documentary Histoires d'A History of Abortion 1973 which contributed to the successful legalisation of abortion in France the Hong Kong horror film Dumplings Jiaozi 2004 where foetal cannibalism serves up an image of censorship and the dual productions The Book of Mary Le livre de Marie and Hail Mary Je vous salue Marie 1985 by Anne Marie Mi ville and Jean Luc Godard that figure a self reproducing virgin who hears herself while remaining a virgin unseen

The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded Wanda Strauven, 2006 Twenty years ago noted film scholars Tom Gunning and Andr Gaudreault introduced the phrase cinema of attractions to describe the essential qualities of films made in the medium's earliest days those produced between 1895 and 1906 Now The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded critically examines the term and its subsequent wide ranging use in film studies The collection opens with a history of the term tracing the collaboration between Gaudreault and Gunning the genesis of the term in their attempts to explain the spectacular effects of motion that lay at the heart of early cinema and the pair's debts to Sergei Eisenstein and others This reconstruction is followed by a look at applications of the term to more recent film productions from the works of the Wachowski brothers to virtual reality and video games With essays by an impressive collection of international film scholars and featuring contributions by Gunning and Gaudreault as well The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded will be necessary reading for all scholars of early film and its continuing influence

Touch Laura U. Marks, In Touch Laura U Marks develops a critical approach more tactile than visual an intensely physical and sensuous engagement with works of media art that enriches our understanding and experience of these works and of art itself These critical theoretical and personal essays serve as a guide to developments in nonmainstream media art during the past ten years sexual representation debates documentary ethics the shift from analog to digital media a new social obsession with smell Marks takes up well known artists like experimental filmmaker Ken Jacobs and mysterious animators the Brothers Quay and introduces groundbreaking lesser known film video and digital artists From this emerges a materialist theory an embodied erotic relationship to art and to the world Marks's approach leads to an appreciation of the works mortal bodies film's volatile emulsion video's fragile magnetic base crash prone Net art it also offers a productive alternative to the popular understanding of digital media as virtual and immaterial Weaving a continuous fabric from philosophy fiction science dreams and intimate experience Touch opens a new world of art media to readers

The Camera-Eye Metaphor in Cinema Christian Quendler, 2016-11-18 This book explores the cultural intellectual and artistic fascination with camera eye metaphors in film culture of the twentieth century By studying the very metaphor that cinema lives by it provides a rich and insightful map of our understanding of cinema and film styles and shows how cinema shapes our understanding of the arts and media As current new media technologies are attempting to shift the identity of cinema and moving imagery it is hard to overstate the importance of this metaphor for our understanding of the modalities of vision In what guises does the camera eye continue to survive in media that is called new The Skin of the Film Laura U. Marks, 2000-01-19 Uses Deleuze to explore new ways of looking at intercultural and experimental cinema On the Viewing Platform Katie Trumpener, Tim Barringer, 2020-11-17 A wide ranging study of the painted panorama's influence on art photography and film This ambitious volume presents a multifaceted account of the legacy of the circular painted panorama and its far reaching influence on art photography film and architecture From its 18th century origins the panorama quickly became a global mass cultural phenomenon often linked to an imperial worldview Yet it also transformed modes of viewing and exerted a lasting visible impact on filmmaking techniques museum displays and contemporary installation art On the Viewing Platform offers close readings of works ranging from proto panoramic Renaissance cityscapes and 19th century paintings and photographs to experimental films and a wide array of contemporary art Extensively researched and spectacularly illustrated this volume proposes an expansive new framework for understanding the histories of art film and spectatorship
