The Imperiled Economy II Through The Safety Net:

Shelter Poverty Michael Stone, 2010-08-12 the most original and profoundly disturbing work on the critical issue of housing affordability Chester Hartman President Poverty and Race Research Action Council In Shelter Poverty Michael E Stone presents the definitive discussion of housing and social justice in the United States Challenging the conventional definition of housing affordability Stone offers original and powerful insights about the nature causes and consequences of the affordability problem and presents creative and detailed proposals for solving a problem that afflicts one third of this nation Setting the housing crisis into broad political economic and historical contexts Stone asks What is shelter poverty Why does it exist and persist and How can it be overcome Describing shelter poverty as the denial of a universal human need Stone offers a quantitative scale by which to measure it and reflects on the social and economic implications of housing affordability in this country He argues for the right to housing and presents a program for transforming a large proportion of the housing in this country from an expensive commodity into an affordable social entitlement Employing new concepts of housing ownership tenure and finance he favors social ownership in which market concepts have a useful but subordinate role in the identification of housing preferences and allocation Stone concludes that political action around shelter poverty will further the goal of achieving a truly just and democratic society that is also equitably and responsibly productive and prosperous

Imperiled Economy I Robert Cherry, 1987-01-01 The Imperiled Economy: Macroeconomics from a Left perspective, 1987 Beyond Survival Cyrus Bina, Laurie M. Clements, Chuck Davis, 2016-09-16 This text uses an innovative approach to the dynamics of labour's decline and proposes policy initiatives necessary for its revitalization The book emphasises the need for restructuring of capitalism on a global scale and challenges traditional economic and industrial relations wisdom

Global Production and Domestic Decay Brian D. Phillips, 2021-12-12 First Published in 1942 Phillips has written an important study covering three areas three areas theoretical empirical and public policy This book explores some of the explanations for and consequences of globalized production by transnational corporations A review of the theoretical underpinnings of the reasons for corporate overseas expansion precedes a discussion of transnational corporation overseas production facilities The literature reviewed supports the position that the exodus of manufacturing capital has been assisted by state policy which has encouraged capital flight and that corporate efforts to downsize manufacturing operations in the United States have added to corporate profitability and championed profits over the strengthening the domestic economy

Accumulation and Power Richard B. DuBoff, 2016-07-22 Accumulation and Power analyses America's economic development across three great waves of economic expansion the Grand Traverse 1850 1900 the New Era 1916 1929 and the Great Postwar Boom 1945 1972 Drawing on the work of Keynes Schumpeter Marx it departs radically from the new economic history model focusing instead on capitalist decision making and its social consequences It argues that the accumulation process is far more important than competitive markets in explaining resource allocation and growth This innovative book is essential reading for all students and scholars of American economic history Understanding Globalization Robert K. Schaeffer, 2003 This best selling text vividly shows how political and economic changes affect people's lives in different settings around the world Globalization the author argues is not completely new Instead the current wave of globalization builds on international institutions created just after World War II and was given new impetus by policies introduced in the 1970s and 80s The new edition has five new chapters as well as updates and changes throughout Visit our website for sample chapters Leading Contemporary Economists Steven Pressman, 2008-10 This collection of essays offers an extensive critical review of the major contributions of key figures in contemporary heterodox economics including comprehensive bibliographies of their writings and lists of vital secondary material Political Economy and Contemporary Capitalism Ron P. Baiman, Heather Boushey, Dawn Saunders, 2015-02-12 This volume covers the theoretical method macroeconomics microeconomics international trade and finance development and policy of economic theory It incorporates various alternative approaches as well as a broad spectrum of policy issues Fast Forward Torry D. Dickinson, Robert K. Schaeffer, 2001 This innovative global feminist analysis of work and politics examines the diverse problems and related protests of women and men who labor to make ends meet in a rapidly changing world Using vivid examples from around the world it reveals how globalization is reshaping social institutions and lives Fast Forward explores how businesses and states reshaped and redistributed work around the world during the last 30 years of globalization often with adverse consequences Within this fast moving context laboring people today engage in work outside of formal employment try to obtain survival resources mount a diverse array of often women centered protests against firms and states and try on their own terms to reinvent work and democratic political practices Portraying the human face of global change Fast Forward shows how overlapping social movements wrestle with economic and political marginalization and initiate highly diverse but related attempts to change the way the world works Race, Gender, and Work Teresa L. Amott, Julie A. Matthaei, 1996 An outgrowth of Boston's Economic Literacy Project of Women for Economic Justice this new edition traces the economic and social histories of working women in America The history documents the paid and unpaid work done by American Indian Chicana European American African American and Puerto Rican women from each group's cultural beginnings pre colonialization to the most contemporary analysis of present day wage statistics The appendices supply US census sources occupational categories and labor force participation rates from 1900 to 1980 Includes statistical tables Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR A Matter of Interest William F. Hixson, 1991-08-30 Hixson explores the basic operating principles of a laissez faire economy and explains why the Great Crash of 1929 was a predictable outcome of that system Food and Society William C. Whit, 1995-01-01 The importance of food is undeniable Yet because it is so close and obvious we often fail to pay attention to it In Food and Society A Sociological Approach author William C. Whitt attempts to develop a multi level multidisciplinary approach to the relationship between food and the larger world

Organized from the experiences of food consumption through its preparation distribution storage and production this book discusses the role of food in past societies the basics of nutrition contemporary issues including body size food and culture food production world hunger and food innovation Agroindustrial Modernization and Globalization Miguel Teubal,1993 The Little, Brown Reader Marcia Stubbs,Sylvan Barnet,1989 This classic thematic reader contains over a hundred reading selections an intriguing collection of photographs and art comprehensive treatment of critical reading and writing analyses of professional writing and expanded coverage of argument The Rich Get Richer Dennis Duane Braun,1997 This edition is a penetrating and urgent study of the increasing levels of income inequality in the United States and the world The erosion of the middle class poses a threat to worldwide economic and political stability as consumers and their children slowly disappear into growing rates of poverty crime and violence Braun examines the economic plight of all people including those in developing nations where a tiny minority controls much of the wealth and links this inequality to relationships between Third World nations and multinational corporations This second edition includes new information on the working poor Mexico and NAFTA cross country perceptions of inequality mass media and political manipulation and corporations and their overpaid CEOs Broken Heartland Osha Gray Davidson,1996 Growth for these desperate communities has come to mean low paying part time jobs expensive tax concessions waste dumps and industrial hog farming all of which come with environmental and psychological price tags In Broken Heartland Osha Gray Davidson chronicles the decline of the Heartland and its transformation into a bitterly divided and isolated regional ghetto Issues and Images William E. Rivers,1993 Labor Economics Reading Lists Edward Tower,1990 East Asia Imperilled Alan Dupont,2001-10-15 Security issues have traditionally been defined in military terms yet the post Cold War security landscape contains numerous non military challenges to security In this 2001 analysis Alan Dupont argues that an emerging new class of non military threats has the potential to destabilize East Asia and reverse decades of hard won economic and social development He shows that these transnational shifts must be grasped and dealt with by governments and non government organizations both regionally and internationally if conflict is to be avoided Transnational threats stem from overpopulation deforestation and pollution global warming unregulated population movements transnational crime virulent new strains of infectious diseases and other issues not previously associated with international security Collectively they represent a new agenda and pose novel challenges for foreign and defence policy This highly informative compelling and authoritative book is essential reading for East Asia specialists and makes a significant contribution to international security debates
