R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Of the Laws of Ecclesiastical Polity Vols 1-2 Books 1-5 Richard Hooker,1907 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1916 Tartarin of Tarascon Alphonse Daudet,1910 The Complete Poems of Richard Barnfield Richard Barnfield,1876 The Nation ,1917 Reviews and Essays of Austin Clarke Austin Clarke,1995 Austin Clarke is widely regarded as one of 20th century Ireland's most important poets In this selection of nearly fifty essays and reviews written over Clarke's long career he demonstrates that he is an astute and provocative literary critic as well Having grown up in Dublin when the excitement of the Irish Literary Revival was still running high Clarke knew many of the principal figures of that movement personally and his readings of Yeats Joyce Synge O Casey Lady Gregory George Moore and others enjoy the advantages of an insider's point of view Moreover committed in his own poetry to the basic assumption that fuelled the Literary Revival that the most productive course for Irish literature lay in the direction not of England but of Ireland Clarke in his criticism provides a way of understanding and judging the Revival's major writers in terms of their relationships to Ireland's rich literary and cultural traditions At the same time these essays

call attention to a number of distinctly Irish but often overlooked writers working on the margins of the revival As Yeats observed more than once the Irish for all the contributions that they have made to modern fiction poetry and drama have fallen somewhat short in the genre of literary criticism Austin Clarke s essays and reviews many of which were written under a pseudonym and so not attributed to Clarke for years go a long way towards filling that gap The New Criterion ,1926

The Spectator ,1925 Histories of the Kings of Britain Galfridus (Monumetensis, Bishop of St. Asaph.),Geoffrey of Monmouth,1912
