The Interior Landscape The Literary Criticism Of Marshall McLuhan:

The Interior Landscape Marshall McLuhan, 1971      The Interior Landscape Marshall McLuhan, 1971      The Interior of Landscape Marshall McLuhan, 1969      At the Speed of Light There is Only Illumination John Moss, John George Moss, Linda M. Morra, 2004 A collection of re-evaluative essays on Marshall McLuhan and his critical and theoretical legacy from intellectual adventurer creating a complex architecture of ideas to cultural icon standing in line in Woody Allen's Annie Hall      McLuhan: A Guide for the Perplexed W. Terrence Gordon, 2010-02-25 Marshall McLuhan was dubbed a media guru when he came to prominence in the 1960s The Woodstock generation found him cool their parents found him perplexing By 1963 McLuhan was Director of the Centre for Culture and Technology at the University of Toronto and would be a public intellectual on the international stage for more than a decade then linked forever to his two best-known coinages the global village and the medium is the message Taken as a whole McLuhan's writings reveal a profound coherence and illuminate his unifying vision for the study of language literature and culture grounded in the broad understanding of any medium or technology as an extension of the human body McLuhan A Guide for the Perplexed is a close reading of all of his work with a focus on tracing the systematic development of his thought The overriding objective is to clarify all of McLuhan's thinking to consolidate it in a fashion which prevents misreading and to open the way to advancing his own program ensuring that the world does not sleepwalk into the twenty-first century with nineteenth-century perceptions      Historical Modernisms Jean-Michel Rabaté, Angeliki Spiropoulou, 2021-10-21 Examining the ways in which modernism is created within specific historical contexts as well as how it redefines the concept of history itself this book sheds new light on the historical mindedness of modernism and the artistic avant-gardes Cutting across Anglophone and less-explored European traditions and featuring work from a variety of eminent scholars it deals with issues as diverse as artistic medium modernist print culture autobiography as history writing avant-garde experimentations and modernism's futurity Contributors examine both literary and artistic modernism combining theoretical overviews and archival research with case studies of Anglophone as well as European modernism which speak to the current historicizing trend in modernist and literary studies      Marshall McLuhan's Mosaic Elena Lamberti, 2012-01-01 One hundred years after Marshall McLuhan's birth Elena Lamberti explores a fundamental yet neglected aspect of his work the solid humanistic roots of his original mosaic form of writing In this investigation of how his famous communication theories were influenced by literature and the arts Lamberti proposes a new approach to McLuhan's thought Lamberti delves into McLuhan's humanism in light of his work on media and culture exploring how he began to perceive literature not just as a subject but a function inseparable from communal existence Lamberti pays particular attention to the central role played by Modernism in the making of his theories including the writings of Ford Madox Ford James Joyce Ezra Pound and Wyndham Lewis Reconnecting McLuhan with his literary past Marshall McLuhan's Mosaic is a demonstration of one of his greatest ideas that literature not only matters but can help us understand the hidden patterns that rule our environment      The Lure of Communication Andrea Lombardinilo,2024-02-29 This book addresses the convergence of sociology communication and rhetoric with particular reference to the contemporary expressive and social patterns of mass communication Using rhetoric as a meta conceptual apparatus for the sociology of communication this book offers an original and comprehensive critique of historical social theory alongside 20th century communication researchers The author demonstrates the symbiotic relationship between the rhetorical structures of the media sphere and the new narrative formats in which cultural representation merges into social and civil observation This book will be of interest to academics and students studying sociology communication and cultural studies      International Journal of McLuhan Studies Matteo Ciastellardi,Emanuela Patti,2011-12-16 Understanding Media Today McLuhan in the Era of Convergence Culture      Marshall McLuhan: Renaissance for a wired world Gary Genosko,2005 This collection contains key critical essays and assessments of the writings of Canadian communications thinker Marshall McLuhan selected from the voluminous output of the past forty years McLuhan s famous aphorisms and uncanny ability to sense megatrends are once again in circulation across and beyond the disciplines Since his untimely death in 1980 McLuhan s ideas have been rediscovered and redeployed with urgency in the age of information and cybernation Together the three volumes organise and present some forty years of indispensable critical works for readers and researchers of the McLuhan legacy The set includes critical introductions to each section by the editor Forthcoming titles in this series include Walter Benjamin 0 415 32533 1 December 2004 3 vols Theodor Adorno 0 415 30464 4 April 2005 4 vols and Jean Francois Lyotard 0 415 33819 0 2005 3 vols      Modernism Astradur Eysteinnsson,Vivian Liska,2007-10-04 The two volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades While it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages Asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns While the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts These range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity      Radiohead and the Global Movement for Change Phil Rose,2015-12-03 Even prior to the field s invention Susanne Langer implied that the arts are all subtopics of Communication Studies This unique project has effectively allowed the author to combine his backgrounds in the interdisciplinary fields of popular music studies cultural theory communication studies and the practice of music criticism This book investigates the fascinating and important work of the British group Radiohead named by Time Magazine among its Top 100 Most Influential People of 2008 and focuses particularly on their landmark recording OK Computer 1997 a document preserved as part of the Library of Congress National Recording Registry in 2015 Probing the band's exploration of the crucial issues surrounding contemporary technological development especially as it relates to the concern of human survival Radiohead and the Global Movement for Change is essentially a work of criticism that in its analysis combines what is known as musical hermeneutics with the media ecology perspective In this way the author delineates how Radiohead's work operates as a clarion call that directs our attention to the troubling complex of cultural conditions that Neil Postman 1992 identifies as Technopoly or the surrender of culture to technology a phenomenon that must become more broadly recognized and comprehended in order for it to be successfully confronted This book's distinguishing features include 1 its edifying analysis of a richly profound and celebrated musical text 2 its extended focus upon what Martin Heidegger famously refers to as the question concerning technology 3 its use of the media ecology scholarly tradition at whose core lies communication study and 4 its innovative and unique deployment of the affect script theory of American personality theorist Silvan Tomkins in the study of musical communication

Cleanth Brooks and the Rise of Modern Criticism Mark Royden Winchell, 1996 During a career that spanned sixty years Cleanth Brooks was involved in most of the major controversies facing the humanities from the 1930s until his death in 1994 He was arguably the most important American literary critic of the mid twentieth century Because it is impossible to understand modern literary criticism apart from Cleanth Brooks or Cleanth Brooks apart from modern literary criticism Mark Royden Winchell gives us not only an account of one man's influence but also a survey of literary criticism in twentieth century America More than any other individual Brooks helped steer literary study away from historical and philological scholarship by emphasizing the autonomy of the text He applied the methods of what came to be called the New Criticism not only to the modernist works for which these methods were created but to the entire canon of English poetry from John Donne to William Butler Yeats In his many critical books especially The Well Wrought Urn and the textbooks he edited with Robert Penn Warren and others Brooks taught several generations of students how to read literature without prejudice or preconception

Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye B.W. Powe, 2014-01-01 Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye are two of Canada's central cultural figures colleagues and rivals whose careers unfolded in curious harmony even as their intellectual engagement was antagonistic Poet novelist essayist and philosopher B W Powe who studied with both of these formidable and influential intellectuals presents an exploration of their lives and work in Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye Apocalypse and Alchemy Powe considers the existence of a unique visionary tradition of Canadian humanism and argues that McLuhan and Frye represent fraught but complementary approaches to the study of literature and to the broader engagement with culture Examining their eloquent but often acid responses to each other Powe exposes the scholarly controversies and personal conflicts that erupted between them and notably the great commonalities in their writing and biographies Using interviews letters notebooks and their published texts Powe offers a new alchemy of their thought in which he combines the philosophical hallmarks of McLuhan's The medium is the message and Frye's the great code

Hot Art, Cold War - Southern and Eastern European Writing on American Art 1945-1990 Claudia Hopkins, Iain Boyd Whyte, 2020-12-21 Hot Art Cold War Southern and Eastern European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 is one of two text anthologies that trace the reception of American art in Europe during the Cold War era through primary sources Translated into English for the first time from sixteen languages and introduced by scholarly essays the texts in this volume offer a representative selection of the diverse responses to American art in Portugal Italy Spain Greece Yugoslavia Romania Bulgaria Soviet Union including the Baltic States Czechoslovakia Poland Hungary and East Germany GDR There was no single European discourse as attitudes to American art were determined by a wide range of ideological political social cultural and artistic positions that varied considerably across the European nations This volume and its companion Hot Art Cold War Northern and Western European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 offer the reader a unique opportunity to compare how European art writers introduced and explained contemporary American art to their many and varied audiences Whilst many are fluent in one or two foreign languages few are able to read all twenty five languages represented in the two volumes These ground breaking publications significantly enrich the fields of American art studies and European art criticism

Ezra Pound and the Appropriation of Chinese Poetry Ming Xie, 2021-12-12 First published in 1999 The subject of this book is the translation and appropriation of Chinese poetry by some English and American writers in the early decades of this century The author explores the be concerned as much with English translation of Chinese poetry per se as with the relationship between this body of translation from the Chinese and the developing poetics and practices of what is usually referred to as Imagism as much with the question of historical influence or ascription as with certain interpretive and critical aspects of this correlative relationship Focusing on the direct influence of Chinese poetry upon the theory and practice of Imagism attributing to Imagist poets in general and Ezra Pound in particular the perception in Chinese poetry of the essential qualities and principles for rejuvenating English poetry in the early decades of the century

McLuhan For Beginners W. Terrence Gordon, 2012-10-30 Marshall McLuhan was one of the most brilliant and original thinkers of the 20th century He was so far ahead of his time that he predicted the future and offered a critique of human behavior in a media saturated world that is perhaps more valuable in today's Internet age than it was in his own time McLuhan pioneered the study of Media unified Art and Science and warned us about the perils of a televised computerized famous for 15 minutes social media world A world where we would live in each other's faces and become so alike so isolated so anonymous that violence would become a scream of identity a way of saying I am not invisible McLuhan tried to teach us to guard against these dehumanizing debasing effects of technology and a thousand other things but we got reality television anyway The centennial celebration of McLuhan's life and the re-release of his books has led to a surge of new interest in his thinking and teachings McLuhan For Beginners provides an essential introduction that is clear comprehensive and easy to remember It is full of wise and witty art by Susan Willmarth that is a perfect match to W Terrence Gordon s writing McLuhan envisioned the media generated Global Village before it existed and no one since McLuhan has described its allure and pitfalls better      Literature and Ethics Gary Wihl, David A. Williams, 1988-06-01 Part I examines literary conventions as forms of ethical indecision in studies of Empson Hamlet and Elizabethan portraiture Part II defines the ethics of the unsaid as an act of resistance and judgment in the work of Austen Irigaray and Chaucer Part III considers discursive networks formally in Boethius technologically in Joyce and academically in the policy of modern universities on tenure This book includes essays by Elaine Bandor Maggie Berg David Braybrooke Abbott Conway Leslie Duer Dean Frye Donald F Theall Gary Wihl and David Williams and honours A E Malloch      That Cunning Alphabet Richard S.
