Porter,2013-08-29 For many aspiring academics the transition from doctoral student to classroom teacher is a challenging one The classroom culture the needed pedagogical skills and the expected level and type of work are significantly different in the two environments Nevertheless most doctoral students go on to teach in undergraduate or seminary classrooms To prepare the PhD students at McMaster Divinity College to negotiate this transition successfully the faculty holds a biennial colloquium covering the major dimensions both theoretical and practical of a Christian teaching vocation On the basis of the presentations of the colloquium the essential topics have been addressed in essays prepared for this volume for the benefit of all who aspire to excellence in their teaching especially those in Christian higher education The Development of Vocational Stewardship among Indonesian Christian Professionals Sutrisna Harjanto,2018-07-31 Christian professionals through their daily work have important roles in God's mission However little empirical research has been done to understand their journey to connect their daily work with God's If the church of Jesus Christ is to have the transformational impact that the world needs then we must better understand our vocations from a biblical and missional perspective In this thorough study Dr Sutrisna Harjanto

explores the formational elements of the integration of faith work and mission among Indonesian Christian professionals From detailed semi structured interviews with twenty eight participants this study provides deeper insight into the development of vocational stewardship and the role of empowering relationships and communities Through careful analysis and evaluation the resulting book is an educational perspective on the theology of work and mission beneficial for those in positions to equip and support Christian professionals as they work to fulfil God s mission through daily work

Catholic School Journal ,1915

The Priesthood of All Believers Cyril Eastwood,2009-05-20 The doctrine of the Priesthood of all Believers underlies all the great and far reaching religious movements of the last five hundred years Apart from that doctrine it is impossible either to understand or appreciate the cause of the Reformation the impetus of the Puritan Movement or the widespread influence of the Evangelical Revival Yet nowhere can the student find a thorough examination of its meaning for no such systematic statement exists Here is an attempt to fill this gap An examination of Reformation Theology shows that this doctrine is the basis of three dominant concepts which Luther stressed Faith Word and Congregation and that Luther's seven marks of the true Church arise from it. A study of Calvin leads to the conclusion that the doctrine of vocation is the necessary counterpart of the Priesthood of all Believers that election is always related to consecration service and mission it is an election to priesthood. An investigation of Wesley shows that he took this doctrine seriously and provided opportunities for the People of God to exercise their priestly privileges in the service of the Word of the Church and of the World. From all this comes the inescapable conclusion that in Reformation Theology the spiritual priesthood of justified believers consists in their proclamation of God's justifying love to the world. This book is an attempt to present a clear and constructive statement of a doctrine which lies at the very heart of Protestantism and is closely connected with three important issues in current theological discussion: the union of the Churches, the doctrine of vocation and the liturgical revival.
