The Cinema Of David Lean:

Beyond the Epic Gene Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908-1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry The Cinema of David Lean Gerald Pratley, 1974-01-01

The Epic Films of David Lean Constantine Santas, 2012 In this volume David Lean's now undervalued epics The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia Doctor Zhivago Ryan's Daughter and A Passage to India are restored to the elevated esteem they once held David Lean Kevin Brownlow, 1996-08-15 David Lean was one of a handful of movie makers of international renown and arguably the most famous and successful of all British film directors Emerging from a childhood of nearly Dickensian darkness Lean found success as the director of the such classic films as The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago Learn about the making of movies as realized by a master but also of the highly personal costs of genius in color David Lean Lydia Goehr, 2025-07-10 David Lean's extraordinary films work philosophically through the modern reproductive and transportive technologies of sight and sound through trains planes ships and automobiles from one perspective and through the modern technology of the radio and gramophone from another Lean's musical motifs are known worldwide Lara's theme in Zhivago the Colonel Bogey March in Kwai Estella's motif in Great Expectations Rosy's motif in Ryan's Daughter Lawrence's motif for his adventure in Arabia and of course Rachmaninoff

s pounding chords in Brief Encounter When however Lean described his cutting of pictures as akin to how music flows through pictures what sort of music or musicality had he in mind a classical or popular music or a way of using musical form to mix up the meaning and material of his films Lydia Goehr's new book tracks the soundscape in Lean's films not only through the musical scores composed for the films but also and more through the technology of radio and gramophone that at the start of Lean's career were becoming indispensable household items for the home The book begins and ends with a motif running from the early more domestic films locally situated in the English home to the later more extensive epics of colony commonwealth and empire The fidelity infidelity relationship defined by marriage extends to the loyalty betrayal relationship regarding countries of war and peace after which this relationship is extended to the witty British manner of making film as a perfected and not so perfected symphonic work of a great cutter's art Here as few other books on Lean have emphasized the influence of Noel Coward on Lean cannot be overestimated

David Lean David Lean, 2009 Along with Michael Powell and Alfred Hitchcock David Lean 1908-1991 is one of the most significant British filmmakers to emerge from the first half of the twentieth century His use of panoramic landscapes precision editing grandiose compositions and epic themes as epitomized in his classics Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago have influenced Steven Spielberg George Lucas Martin Scorsese and numerous other directors Lean's films encompass a wide range of styles and genres quiet personal dramas Brief Encounter Summertime stylized adaptations of classic novels and plays Blithe Spirit Oliver Twist Great Expectations A Passage to India and wartime dramas In Which We Serve The Bridge on the River Kwai David Lean Interviews offers the reader the most thorough and complete compendium of illuminating interviews with the director several of which are exclusive to this edition Lean speaks openly about his process and his passion for film revealing a complicated and talented artist who at times shows great bravado while at other times exposes deep insecurities The volume chronicles the career of one of cinema's most popular and groundbreaking filmmakers

David Lean Stephen M. Silverman, 2019-01-15 Here is the story of Sir David Lean one of the greatest moviemakers of all time director of such epics as Lawrence of Arabia Doctor Zhivago The Bridge on the River Kwai and A Passage to India Stephen M Silverman spent the better part of a year meeting with Lean to secure firsthand information for this book An intensely private man Lean opened up to Silverman and shared with him the story of his life from his Quaker upbringing through his decade as Britain's star film editor to his work as a director earning him through his intelligent literate films a reputation for perfection Lean's movies which collected an unprecedented twenty-seven Academy Awards are noted for their stunning pictorial content as well as their strong narrative flow and many of Lean's colleagues have shared their personal recollections with the author who has added a new afterword to the book The memories and anecdotes from such film notables as Alec Guinness Katharine Hepburn Julie Christie Maurice Jarre John Mills

Omar Sharif Judy Davis and Sarah Miles serve to further enliven this already vivid biographical and critical study Katharine Hepburn starred in Summertime Lean's first film to be shot entirely on location Her Introduction discusses Sir David as both an incomparable director and a great friend Rolling Stone Stephen M Silverman has guided the famously reclusive Lean into lively witty and informative recollections of his life and work on such hits as The Bridge on the River Kwai Doctor Zhivago Brief Encounter and A Passage to India as well as Lawrence of Arabia Here's that rare book on movies that can really be called indispensable Los Angeles Times Perhaps most surprising to his friends Lean allowed himself to be interviewed at length by critic Stephen Silverman David Lean is interesting not least for the candor with which Lean admitted that the reviews of Ryan's Daughter devastated him and almost paralyzed him creatively The Boston Globe Bright chatty cant free Without lapsing into critspeak Silverman adroitly lays out the evidence for what's shaping up as an emergent reassessment of Lean's output and provides flavorful eyewitness testimony pro and con Chicago Tribune It's fitting that the most exquisitely crafted book on film should deal with one of the motion pictures supreme craftsmen David Lean Lean himself contributes many insights and anecdotes and there are fascinating behind the camera tales of both his meticulous technique and his messy battles with producers and stars Financial Times This portrait of the film director as old lion is well researched and highly readable We goggle at the account of Lean's Quaker upbringing and his parents' horror of the cinema They wanted him to become an accountant We follow Lean's early creative romances with Noel Coward four films and Charles Dickens two And we listen to Lean and Katharine Hepburn quarreling via Silverman over who was responsible for her ill-fated jump into the Venice canal in Summertime Variety As lavish as Lean's best films Stephen M Silverman's David Lean is an important addition to the collective library of film books

David Lean Howard Maxford, 2014-10-30 Oscar winning director David Lean was responsible for some of the most enduring images in British cinema including the romantic clinches between Trevor Howard and Celia Johnson in Brief Encounter and Pip's memorable dash across the marshes in Great expectations Lean became renowned for his visual epics painting the cinematic screen in such films as The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago Yet despite the large canvas of these masterpieces Lean never lost sight of the human story within them In his study of Lean's career Howard Maxford takes behind the scenes look at each of the director's films chronicling their making and their subsequent reception by both audiences and critics Lean's early work as a film editor which led to his commission by Noel Coward to co-direct the landmark war drama In Which We Serve is examined along with Lean's self-imposed 14 year exile after a savage reception from critics to his penultimate film His exile ended triumphantly with the release of A Passage to India Lean the man away from the camera is also revealed including his six marriages and his strict Quaker upbringing An informative critical guide this David Lean companion offers a detailed examination of the work of one of cinema's true greats

David Lean Melanie Williams, 2016-05-16 A rule of mine is this said William Goldman in 1983 there are always three hot directors and one of them is always David Lean One of the best known and most admired of British film makers David Lean had a directorial career that spanned five decades and encompassed everything from the intimate black and white romance of Brief Encounter 1945 to the spectacular Technicolor epic of Lawrence of Arabia 1962 This book offers comprehensive coverage of every feature film directed by Lean yielding new insights on the established classics of his career as well as its lesser known treasures Its analysis prioritises questions of gender and emphasises the often overlooked but highly significant recurrence of female centred narratives throughout Lean s career Drawing extensively on archival historical materials while also presenting nuanced close readings of individual films David Lean offers a fascinating and original account of the work of a remarkable British film maker David Lean Sandra Lean, Barry Chattington, 2001 David Lean s films were nominated for an astonishing 57 Academy Awards of which 27 won Oscars He made unique movies on a grand scale with huge stories on vast canvases He was aided by hundreds of technicians thousands of extras and the most talented actors in the world Yet he singularly controlled this vast army giving pleasure and inspiration to millions His films reflected his own life the single brooding perfectionist force to a great endeavour whether they be Lawrence of Arabia The Bridge on the River Kwai Doctor Zhivago or Brief Encounter Collated by his widow Lady Sandra Lean this is a highly personal account in text and images by the people that came into contact with David through his work and his private life Thousands of words have been written about David Lean the film director and the work he created Yet until now very little has been said about the man who sacrificed his private life for his art Six marriages are proof of a man whose preferred family was the film crew and whose personal life was always subservient to making films many productions that touched the hearts of millions In this fascinating book the answers are presented in both text and pictures David always said that a good book should contain Really good pictures That s all Just bloody good pictures Illustrated throughout with over 300 well known and previously unpublished photographs which are complemented by David s inspiration letters quotations memorabilia or an anecdote relating to his travels or his films David Lean An Intimate Portrait is a unique study containing a wealth of fascinating photography of a man who continues to entertain millions David Lean Kevin Brownlow, 1996-08-15 The life and its biographer provide a landmark work on the cinema Emerging from a childhood of nearly Dickensian darkness David Lean found his great success as a director of the appropriately titled Great Expectations There followed his legendary black and white films of the 1940s and his four film movie collaboration with Noel Coward Lean s 1955 film Summertime took him from England to the world of international moviemaking and the stunning series of spectacular color epics that would gain for his work twenty seven Academy Awards and fifty six Academy Award nominations All are classics including The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia Doctor Zhivago and A Passage to India Kevin Brownlow a film editor in his own right and author of the seminal silent film trilogy initiated with The Parade s Gone By brings to Lean s biography an exhaustive knowledge of the art and the industry One learns about the making of movies as realized by a master but also of the highly personal costs of genius The troubled Quaker family from which Lean came influenced his relationship with his son his brother and his six wives Yet he showed in his work a deep understanding of humanity The vastness of this scholarly and entertaining enterprise is augmented by sixteen pages of scenes from Lean's color films thirty two pages from his black and white movies and throughout the text a vast number of photographs from his life and location work Literature, Cinema Ghalib Najim Ubaid Al-Kanani,2010 The Cinema of Things Elizabeth Ezra,2017-11-02 This book explores the border zones between life and non life as represented in cinema from the end of the nineteenth century when France led the global film industry to the first decades of the twenty first century when world film markets are dominated by Hollywood Informed by both the Internet of Things and the Parliament of Things The Cinema of Things examines cinematic depictions of the ways in which human beings are prosthetically engaged with life beyond the self in the global age by hyperconsumption by structures of racial and sexual objectification that reduce people designated as others to objects of fascination sexual gratification warfare or labor and by information technology that replaces human agency with encoding Consumer culture a key feature of globalization posits that we must supplement ourselves with commodities without which we would otherwise be incomplete but these prostheses rather than enhancing us end up creating the insufficiencies they were meant to overcome We are engulfed by objects to the extent that we ourselves are becoming objectified At the same time objects especially technological objects are becoming increasingly autonomous assuming roles that were once the preserve of human agency We are becoming the objects of globalization and cinema imaginatively represents this transformation but it also offers us the possibility of retaining our humanity in the process

Directors in British and Irish Cinema Robert Murphy,2019-07-25 A guide to directors who have worked in the British and Irish film industries between 1895 and 2005 Each of its 980 entries on individuals directors gives a resume of the director's career evaluates their achievements and provides a complete filmography It is useful for those interested in film making in Britain and Ireland Historical Dictionary of British Cinema Alan Burton,Steve Chibnall,2013-07-11 British cinema has been around from the very birth of motion pictures from black and white to color from talkies to sound and now 3D it has been making a major contribution to world cinema Many of its actors and directors have stayed at home but others ventured abroad like Charlie Chaplin and Alfred Hitchcock Today it is still going strong the only real competition to Hollywood turning out films which appeal not only to Brits just think of Bridget Jones while busily adding to franchises like James Bond and Harry Potter So this Historical Dictionary of British Cinema has a lot of ground to cover This it does with over 300 dictionary entries informing us about significant actors producers and directors outstanding films and serials organizations and studios different films genres from comedy to horror and memorable films among other things Two appendixes provide lists of award winners Meanwhile the chronology covers over a century of history These parts provide the details countless details while the introduction offers the big story And the extensive bibliography points toward other sources of information Epic Encounters Michael Coyne,2004-05 My distinguishing talent David Lean once observed is an ability to put people under the microscope perhaps to go one or two layers farther down than other directors This book attempts to do the same with the director's films Coyne focuses on the films themselves uncovering their themes meanings and relation to other popular films and to Lean's life and times as well as their place in world and cinema history The Cinema Book Bloomsbury Publishing, 2019-07-25 The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide to cinema Authoritative and comprehensive the third edition has been extensively revised updated and expanded in response to developments in cinema and cinema studies Lavishly illustrated in colour this edition features a wealth of exciting new sections and in depth case studies Sections address Hollywood and other World cinema histories key genres in both fiction and non fiction film issues such as stars technology and authorship and major theoretical approaches to understanding film
