Saunders,2019-09-20 Straddling Europe and Asia the Russian Federation is the largest country in the world and home to a panoply of religious and ethnic groups from the Muslim Tatars to the Buddhist Buryats Over the past 40 years Russia has experienced the most dramatic transformation of any modern state The second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Russian Federation provides insight into this rapidly developing country This volume includes coverage of pivotal movements events and persons in the late Soviet Union 1985 1991 and contemporary Russia 1991 present This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Russian Federation contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Russia

Classical Liberalism and Civil Society Charles K. Rowley,1997 This impressive book brings together four essays which along with an insightful introduction from Charles Rowley provide a robust defence of the concept of classical liberalism in modern civil society In the first essay Douglas Rasmussen and Douglas Uyl discuss the basic approaches and principles of liberalism in the post modern age and show how a moral philosophy can serve to support a political philosophy They supply a clear fundamental defence of liberalism in an era which has become sceptical of its doctrines This is followed by Peter Ordeshook s authoritative analysis of the foundations of democracy in relation to the demise of communist ideology particularly in the former Soviet Union Paul Rubin then examines from a libertarian perspective the differing methods and degrees of success of adapting contract law in Russia the Czech Republic Hungary and Poland in the wake of political change Finally Mwangi S Kimenyi provides an original study of highly centralized unitary systems of government and the breakdown of civil society in Sub Saharan Africa He argues persuasively that institutional reform involving decentralization and federalism can better accommodate ethnic diversity in the area With contributions from some of the most eminent scholars in the field Classical Liberalism and Civil Society provides a rigorous justification of classical liberal polity      Annual Survey of African Law Ch Eugene Cotran,Neville N. Rubin,2021-06-23 This is the first in a series of annual volumes which aim to review the principal legal developments that take place in the countries of sub Saharan Africa This series is intended to enable those who have an academic or professional interest in African law to keep abreast of changes in the various branches of the different legal systems of Africa      The Degradation of the International Legal Order? Bill Bowring,2008-02-19

Using critical philosophy and political methodology this sophisticated and incisive book provides a detailed diagnosis of the present impasse of international law and relations particularly since the Iraq invasion and occupation      Staging

Nationalism Kiki Gounaridou,2005-05-05 When a nation wants to reconnect with a sense of national identity its cultural celebrations including its theatre are often tinged with nostalgia for a cultural high point in its history Leaders often try to create a neo classical cultural identity Artificially returning to an imagined pinnacle however can fail to take into account new aspects of national identity such as the infusion of other cultures and languages This collection of essays discusses the relationship between political power and the construction or subversion of cultural identity The collection takes a wide historical perspective from distinct periods and cultures from all over the world A few of the topics examined include how theatre in 18th century Poland tried to reconstitute the identity of an imagined classical heritage clung to by Polish nobles how festival practices during the French Revolution tried to give meaning to recent events and rein in anxiety about split loyalties how Athenian prologues cemented early American culture how romantic admiration of peasant culture spread from Germany throughout Europe how Greek tragedy in postwar Japan reflects the conflict of Japan's imposed identity as a Western style democracy with its prewar identity as a samurai nation and how Mexican archeological performance links the indigenous past with a post revolutionary identity as a mixed race country The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998

Policy Issues in Insurance Reforming the Insurance Market in Russia OECD,2005-12-01 This book presents an in depth historical and analytical review of the reform process in the Russian insurance sector

Islamic Family Law in a Changing World 'Abd Allāh Aḥmad Na'im,2002-08 In Islamic Family Law in a Changing World Abdullahi A An Na'im explores the practice of the Shari'a commonly known as Islamic Family Law An Na'im shows that the practical application of Shari'a principles is often modified by theological differences of interpretation a country's particular customary practices and state policy and law

Promises, Promises Paul H. Rubin,1997 Promises, Promises examines from a libertarian perspective the differing methods and levels of success of adapting contract law in the Czech Republic Hungary Poland and especially Russia in the wake of political change The author analyses the roles of government power and policy opportunism and private regulatory mechanisms within the pattern of change

Indigenous Land Rights in Israel Morad Elzana,2020-11-29 Introducing the Negev Bedouin land issue from the international indigenous land rights perspective this comparative study suggests options for the recognition of their land The book demonstrates that the Bedouin land dispossession like many indigenous peoples progressed through several phases that included eviction and displacement legislation and judicial decisions that support acts of dispossession and deny the Bedouin's traditional land rights Examining the Mawat legal doctrine on which the State and the Court rely on to deny Bedouin land rights this volume introduces the relevant international law protecting indigenous land rights and shows how the limitations of this law prevent any meaningful protection of Bedouin land rights In the second part of the work the Aborigines land in Australia is introduced as an example of indigenous peoples successful struggle for their traditional land rights The final chapter analyzes the basic elements of judicial recognition of the land and shows that the basic elements needed for Bedouin land recognition exist in the Israeli legal system Proposing practical recommendations for the recognition of Bedouin land this volume is a key resource to scholars and students interested in land rights international law comparative studies and the Middle East The Universal

Chang, 2010-10-01 This book is the first in English to consider women's movements and feminist discourses in twentieth century Taiwan Doris T Chang examines the way in which Taiwanese women in the twentieth century selectively appropriated Western feminist theories to meet their needs in a modernizing Confucian culture She illustrates the rise and fall of women's movements against the historical backdrop of the island's contested national identities first vis vis imperial Japan 1895 1945 and later with postwar China 1945 2000 In particular during periods of soft authoritarianism in the Japanese colonial era and late twentieth century autonomous women's movements emerged and operated within the political perimeters set by the authoritarian regimes Women strove to replace the Good Wife Wise Mother ideal with an individualist feminism that meshed social political and economic gender equity with the prevailing Confucian family ideology However during periods of hard authoritarianism from the 1930s to the 1960s the autonomous movements collapsed The particular brand of Taiwanese feminism developed from numerous outside influences including interactions among an East Asian sociopolitical milieu various strands of Western feminism and even Marxist Leninist women's liberation programs in Soviet Russia Chinese communism appears not to have played a significant role due to the Chinese Nationalists restriction of communication with the mainland during their rule on post World War II Taiwan Notably this study compares the perspectives of Madame Chiang Kai shek whose husband led as the president of the Republic of China on Taiwan from 1949 to 1975 and Hsiu lien Annette Lu Taiwan's vice president from 2000 to 2008 Delving into period sources such as the highly influential feminist monthly magazine Awakening as well as interviews with feminist leaders Chang provides a comprehensive historical and cross cultural analysis of the struggle for gender equality in Taiwan      Venture ,1972

Human Rights Legislation in Canada Marian Dworaczek, 1983      Rethinking Legal Scholarship Rob van Gestel, Hans-W. Micklitz, Edward L. Rubin, 2017-02-02 Although American scholars sometimes consider European legal scholarship as old fashioned and inward looking and Europeans often perceive American legal scholarship as amateur social science both traditions share a joint challenge If legal scholarship becomes too much separated from practice legal scholars will ultimately make themselves superfluous If legal scholars on the other hand cannot explain to other disciplines what is academic about their research which methodologies are typical and what separates proper research from mediocre or poor research they will probably end up in a similar situation Therefore we need a debate on what unites legal academics on both sides of the Atlantic Should legal scholarship aspire to the status of a science and gradually adopt more and more of the methods quality standards and practices of other social sciences What sort of methods do we need to study law in its social context and how should legal scholarship deal with the challenges posed by globalization      The Parker School Journal of

East European Law ,1994      The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law Mathias Reimann,Reinhard

Zimmermann,2019-03-26 This fully revised and updated second edition of The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law provides a wide ranging and diverse critical survey of comparative law at the beginning of the twenty first century It summarizes and evaluates a discipline that is time honoured but not easily understood in all its dimensions In the current era of globalization this discipline is more relevant than ever both on the academic and on the practical level The Handbook is divided into three main sections Section I surveys how comparative law has developed and where it stands today in various parts of the world This includes not only traditional model jurisdictions such as France Germany and the United States but also other regions like Eastern Europe East Asia and Latin America Section II then discusses the major approaches to comparative law its methods goals and its relationship with other fields such as legal history economics and linguistics Finally section III deals with the status of comparative studies in over a dozen subject matter areas including the major categories of private economic public and criminal law The Handbook contains forty eight chapters written by experts from around the world The aim of each chapter is to provide an accessible original and critical account of the current state of comparative law in its respective area which will help to shape the agenda in the years to come Each chapter also includes a short bibliography referencing the definitive works in the field
