Stephen self effacing and responsible became chairman and president of the Museum of Modern Art and gave that institution its first painting Edward Hopper s House by the Railroad Thirteen years later in an act that provoked intense controversy Stephen dismissed the Museum s visionary founding director Alfred Barr who for more than a decade had single handedly established the collection and exhibition programs that determined how the art of the twentieth century was regarded Stephen gave or bequeathed to museums many of the paintings that today are still their greatest attractions With authority insight and a flair for evoking time and place Weber examines the depths of the brothers passions the vehemence of their lifelong feud the great art they acquired and the profound and lasting impact they had on artistic vision in America
