The Steel Shark Rebecca Cantrell, 2017-07-03 His dog His computer The tunnels under New York City That's all Joe Tesla's agoraphobia has left him with the inside world the dark world and now the black depths of the sea In the latest book in this award winning thriller series Joe Tesla seeks to expand his world beneath He buys a personal submarine to join an underwater scavenger hunt The competition turns deadly when a mystery sub targets Joe His search for answers drives him and his service dog out to sea where he alone might find answers in time to save the city he loves from annihilation But can a man trapped inside by his own fears save the larger world above The Routledge Companion to Literary Media Astrid Ensslin, Julia Round, Bronwen Thomas, 2023-08-30 The Routledge Companion to Literary Media examines the fast moving present and future of a media ecosystem in which the literary continues to play a vital role The term literary media challenges the tendency to hold the two terms distinct and broadens accepted usage of the literary to include popular cultural forms emerging technologies and taste cultures genres and platforms as well as traditions and audiences all too often excluded from literary histories and canons Featuring contributions from leading international scholars and practitioners the Companion provides a comprehensive guide to existing terms and theories that address the alignment of literature and a variety of media forms It situates the concept in relation to existing theories and historiographies considers emerging genres and forms such as locative narratives and autofiction and expands discussion beyond the boundaries by which literary authorship is conventionally defined Contributors also examine specific production and publishing contexts to provide in depth analysis of the promotion of literary media materials The volume further considers reading and other aspects of situated audience engagement such as Indigenous and oral storytelling prize and review cultures book clubs children and young adults This authoritative collection is an invaluable resource for scholars and students working at the intersection of literary and media studies     How to Publish, Promote, & Sell Your Own Book Robert Lawrence

Holt,1986-07-15 Robert Holt himself the successful author of four self published books now shares his knowledge and savvy with other would be author publishers in this step by step guide to every aspect of self publishing If you yearn join the ranks of such self published authors as Henry Thoreau Upton Sinclair Anais Nin and George Bernard Shaw if you ve ever thought of doing it yourself then this is the book for you How to Publish Promote and Sell Your Own Book provides you with everything you ever wanted to know about self publishing and never even thought to ask     Triggered Literature John

Sutherland,2023-10-05 Amid the flames of the culture wars politicians have taken up arms over controls on literary culture spurred on in part by universities triggering canonical texts Jonathan Swift s Battle of the Books has flared up again But is triggering utter wokery or responsible pedagogic practice Through dozens of case studies of triggered works from Romeo and Juliet to Gender Queer John Sutherland explores the recent phenomenon of triggering and its consequences for university English departments and literature itself He maintains that what is routinely overlooked in the heat of polemic is that triggering is categorically different from traditional institutional religious educational dictatorial controls on literature Triggering is in essence an alert Done responsibly it does not erase or meddle it stimulates curiosity and thought It honours the fact that great literature is great because it is as Franz Kafka says powerful In this characteristically nuanced and calmly objective study the witty literary critic guides us through the increasingly rocky terrain of triggering His advice rings clear literature matters to us and what we make of our world and it must be handled with critical care
