This innovative collection of sources introduces readers to many previously untranslated texts and invites them to explore the journey of Our Lady's Tumbler across both sides of the Atlantic. Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals Jennifer L. Shaw, 2017-07-05. The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic, Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun's most important published work, Aveux non avenus (Disavowals, 1930). Jennifer L. Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work, paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenus. This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenus not only explore Cahun's own subjectivity, they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique. Shaw explores how Cahun's work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles, religious conservatism, and pronatalism, and takes to task the era's artistic avant-garde and, in particular, its models of desire. This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies, demonstrating how one artist's personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art, the role of women in French culture, and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I.
