The Ignorant Perfection Of Ordinary People Suny Series In Constructive Postmodern Thought:

The Ignorant Perfection of Ordinary People Robert Inchausti, 1991-08-13 This book examines how the spiritual longings of ordinary people have shaped the most progressive political and cultural movements of the twentieth century and given birth to a new postmodern perspective on existence that recoups the traditional religious verities on the far side of both literary modernism and neo Marxism Inchausti focuses on figures who have been instrumental in defending the sacred traditions of indigenous cultures and oppressed minorities He demonstrates that Mahatma Gandhi Alexander Solzhenitsyn Elie Wiesel Martin Luther King Jr Mother Teresa and Lech Walesa share an ethic that is at once plebeian in origin and yet The Ignorant Perfection of Ordinary People Robert Inchausti, 1991-01-01 This book examines sublime in aspiration how the spiritual longings of ordinary people have shaped the most progressive political and cultural movements of the twentieth century and given birth to a new postmodern perspective on existence that recoups the traditional religious verities on the far side of both literary modernism and neo Marxism Inchausti focuses on figures who have been instrumental in defending the sacred traditions of indigenous cultures and oppressed minorities He demonstrates that Mahatma Gandhi Alexander Solzhenitsyn Elie Wiesel Martin Luther King Jr Mother Teresa and Lech Walesa share an ethic that is at once plebeian in origin and yet sublime in aspiration Founders of Constructive Postmodern Philosophy David Ray Griffin, John B. Cobb, Marcus P. Ford, Pete A. Y. Gunter, Peter Ochs, 1993-01-01 In presenting Peirce James Bergson Whitehead and Hartshorne as members of a common and distinctively postmodern trajectory this book casts the thought of each of them in a new light It also suggests a new direction for the philosophical community as a whole now that the various forms of modern philosophy and even the deconstructive form of postmodern philosophy are widely perceived to be dead ends This new option offers the possibility that philosophy may recover its role as critic and guide within the more general culture a recovery that is desperately needed in these perilous times Postmodernism and Public Policy John B. Cobb, 2002-01-01 Develops a naturalistic postmodern perspective to make constructive proposals about a wide range of topics now in public discussion

Whitehead's Philosophy Janusz A. Polanowski, Donald W. Sherburne, 2012-02-01 This volume explores the range of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy and his relevance to contemporary philosophical traditions While philosophers and theologians with only a passing acquaintance with Whitehead might think that his philosophy is unconnected to our Western philosophical tradition the contributors prove that nothing could be further from the truth The most respected scholars in the field George Allan Lisa Bellantoni John B Cobb Jr Frederick Ferr David L Hall William S Hamrick Robert Cummings Neville Janusz A Polanowski Patrick Shade and Donald W Sherburne illustrate points of connection between Whitehead's ideas to the following Descartes the so called Father of Modern Philosophy classical American thought several contemporary American thinkers including Richard Rorty and Alasdair MacIntyre aspects of European philosophy and current reflections upon the Parapsychology, Philosophy, and Spirituality David Ray Griffin, 1997-01-09 In this book environment and technology David Ray Griffin best known for his work on the problem of evil turns his attention to the even more controversial topic of parapsychology Griffin examines why scientists philosophers and theologians have held parapsychology in disdain and argues that neither a priori philosophical attacks nor wholesale rejection of the evidence can withstand scrutiny After articulating a constructive postmodern philosophy that allows the parapsychological evidence to be taken seriously Griffin examines this evidence extensively He identifies four types of repeatable phenomena that suggest the reality of extrasensory perception and psychokinesis Then on the basis of a nondualistic distinction between mind and brain which makes the idea of life after death conceivable he examines five types of evidence for the reality of life after death messages from mediums apparitions cases of the possession type cases of the reincarnation type and out of body experiences His philosophical and empirical examinations of these phenomena suggest that they provide support for a postmodern spirituality that overcomes the thinness of modern religion without returning to supernaturalism From Suffering to Solidarity Andrew P Klager, 2016-04-28 As experiences of suffering continue to influence the responses of identity groups in the midst of violent conflict a way to harness their narratives stories memories and myths in transformative and non violent ways is needed From Suffering to Solidarity explores the historical seeds of Mennonite peacebuilding approaches and their application in violent conflicts around the world The authors in this book first draw out the experiences of Anabaptists and Mennonites from the sixteenth century originsthrough to the present that have shaped their approaches to conflict transformation and inspired new generations of Mennonites to engage in relief development and peacebuilding to alleviate the suffering of others whose experiences today reflect those of their ancestors Authors then explore the various peacebuilding approaches methods and initiatives that have emerged from this Mennonite narrative and its preservation and dissemination in subsequent generations Finally the book examines how this combined historical sensitivity and resulting peacebuilding theory and practice have been applied in violent conflicts around the world noting both successes and challenges Ultimately From Suffering to Solidarity attempts to answer a question How can arobust historical infrastructure be used to inspire empathetic solidarity with the Other and shape nonviolent ways of transforming conflict to thrust a stick in the spokes of the cycle of The Social Self in Zen and American Pragmatism Steve Odin, 1996-01-01 This is the first book on East West violence comparative thought to critically analyze the Zen Buddhist model of self in modern Japanese philosophy from the standpoint of American pragmatism Physics and Whitehead Timothy E. Eastman, Hank Keeton, 2012-02-01 Featuring discussions and dialogue by prominent scientists and philosophers this book explores the rich interface of contemporary physics and Whitehead inspired process thought The contributors share the conviction that quantum physics not only corroborates many of Whitehead's philosophical theses but is also illuminated by them Thus though differing in perspective or emphasis the contributions by Geoffrey Chew David Finkelstein Henry Stapp and other scientists conceptually dovetail with those of Philip Clayton Jorge Nobo Yutaka Tanaka and other process philosophers The End of Modern Medicine Laurence Foss, 2012-02-01 The End of Modern Medicine chronicles the work of a small influential band of medical theorists and clinicians who over the past decade have sought to redress the physical fundamentalism of the biomedical model that shaped their professional training Laurence Foss challenges the prevailing medical model whereby mind and body are essentially separated and charts a new psychobiological course Asking fresh questions raising new possibilities probing long established preconceptions Foss presents a radically reconfigured medical model This model accounts for the full range of findings in the experimental literature most notably those surfacing over the past quarter century in psychophysiological studies which show a correlation between psychosocial variables and disease susceptibility that are in line with what more basic sciences tell us about the behavior of material systems and the nature of scientific explanation Foss also critically analyzes the regulative ideals of today s medical research community and puts modern science itself from which these ideals derive under Postmodern Politics for a Planet in Crisis David Ray Griffin, Richard A. Falk, 1993-07-01 This book argues that the planetary crisis which has been produced by modernity demands a postmodern politics especially in the United States the chief embodiment and exporter of modernity What is needed is an America that promotes a new world order that is genuinely new one based on a concern for the human race as a whole and on a sustainable relationship between the human species and the rest of the biosphere John B Cobb Jr Richard Falk David Ray Griffin Wes Jackson Frank Kelly Frances Moore Lapp Joanna Macy Douglas Sloan Jim Wallis and Roger Wilkins write about various dimensions of this postmodern politics including its educational aims morality time consciousness and ecological sensibility its agricultural and other environmental policies its truly democratic process and a postmodern presidency This book provides the most complete prescription yet for the kind of presidential leadership we need and the kind of transformation in the body politic necessary to evoke and complement such leadership Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier, 2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche's three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered. The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism A Society Fit for Human Beings Elie Maynard Adams, 1997-10-31 Argues for a humanistic cultural reformation to counter our materialistic values and science dominated intellectual life and shows how this would affect our lives and transform our society A Society Fit for Human Beings contends that there is a profound incoherence in the foundations of modern Western civilization and that we are on a self destructive course With the guest for wealth and power our dominant concern we find ourselves with a flourishing economy and a supreme military force based on science and technology but with our moral civic and religious culture undermined by our way of comprehending the world Our human identity is problematic the wells of meaning that nourish the human spirit are polluted or drying up and the social order is in disarray This situation E M Adams argues requires nothing less than a historic cultural revolution based on a shift in priorities from wealth and power to humanistic values those grounded in selfhood and lived experience that are essential for human growth meaningful lives and a healthy society Such a shift in our governing values would require a restructuring of our intellectual vision of humankind and the world in terms of humanistic categories. This book shows the import of such a humanistic cultural revolution for our human identity morality the social order and our major institutions including the family and community education the economy the government the military and religion It outlines how we can work toward such a cultural revolution and develop a constructive postmodern civilization with a society fit for human beings and God Daniel A. Dombrowski, 1997-10-16 Examines the concept of God which emerges from the writings of Nikos Kazantzakis and argues that he was a process theist Earth Summit Ethics J. Baird Callicott, Fernando J. R. da Rocha.1996-08-23 On the eve of the 1992 Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro Fernando J R da Rocha challenged environmental philosophers to suggest and develop effective ways in which universities might engender ecological literacy and environmental ethics The result was a preconference held in Porto Alegre Brazil whose aim was to put the summit in philosophical perspective influence its outcome and chart a new course linking environment and ethics through university education This book is an outgrowth of the Porto Alegre conference and the international environmental philosophers and educators represented here inaugurate a constructive dialogue that will continue well into the twenty first century Among the contributors to the volume are environmental philosophers Andrew Brennan J Baird Callicott Fernando J R da Rocha and Holmes Ralston III and education theorists Peter Madsen and John Lemons In addition the book introduces English language readers to the work of French philosopher Catherine Larrere Spanish philosopher Nicholas Sosa and Brazil s radical former Secretary for the Environment and deep ecologist Jose Lutzenberger Living and Value Frederick Ferre, 2001-05-31 Providing a worthy conclusion to Ferr's trilogy on preserving value in a postmodern world Living and Value places ethics into the wider context of religion God and evil and offers postmodern suggestions for environmental technological and political Mothership Connections Theodore Walker Jr., 2012-02-01 Bringing a black Atlantic approach to constructive reforms postmodern efforts to understand and transcend modern worldviews and modern world orders Mothership Connections draws upon the work of scholars in the tradition of W E B Du Bois Charles H Long Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne The author shows that connections to the originating influences of transatlantic slavery and black Atlantic experiences are essential to any adequate account of modernity and postmodernity. He also argues that metaphysics is essential to theology and moral theory synthesizing neoclassical metaphysics and black theology to develop a black Atlantic account of metaphysical aspects of struggle power and ethical deliberation
