The Illumination Of Alice J Cunningham:

The Illumination of Alice J. Cunningham Lyn Webster, 1987 Complete Critical Assembly David Langford, 2002-10-01
This new collection of essays commissioned from a range of scholars across the world takes as its theme the reception of Rome's greatest poet in a time of profound cultural change. Amid the rise of Christianity the changing status of the city of Rome and the emergence of new governing classes Vergil remained a bedrock of Roman education and identity. This volume considers the different ways in which Vergil was read, understood and appropriated by poets, commentators, Church fathers, orators and historians. The introduction outlines the cultural and historical contexts. Twelve chapters dedicated to individual writers or genres and the contributors make use of a wide range of approaches from contemporary reception theory. An epilogue concludes the volume.

British Science Fiction Nicholas Ruddick, 1992-05-27. This chronology outlines British science fiction from 1479-1990, highlighting the important biographical and publishing events in the field of science fiction literature and fandom as well as in other media. The chronology includes biographical information on more than 700 authors, listings of more than 2,000 works including anthologies, criticism and essays, publishing and fandom milestones, first publications and awards. The works are fully cross-referenced and indexed with introductory definitions of the field and descriptive headnotes for five periods: The Descent of Scientific Romance 1478-1894, The Wellsian Synthesis 1895-1936, British Science Fiction 1937-1961, New Wave Speculative Fiction 1962-1978, and The British Fantastic 1979-1990. This book is an outgrowth of and is complementary to Ruddick's critical work Ultimate Island. Together the two works define the scope and the nature of British science fiction, an enormous field that is not until recently examined separately from American science fiction in spite of considerable differences.
