Illustrated Bible Biography , 1880 The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal , 1898 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Between Constantinople and Rome Kathleen Maxwell, 2016-12-05 This is a study of the artistic and political context that led to the production of a truly exceptional Byzantine illustrated manuscript Paris Bibliothèque Nationale de France codex grec 54 is one of the most ambitious and complex manuscripts produced during the Byzantine era This thirteenth century Greek and Latin Gospel book features full page evangelist portraits an extensive narrative cycle and unique polychromatic texts However it has never been the subject of a comprehensive study and the circumstances of its commission are unknown In this book Kathleen Maxwell addresses the following questions what circumstances led to the creation of Paris 54 Who commissioned it and for what purpose How was a deluxe manuscript such as this produced Why was it left unfinished How does it relate to other Byzantine illustrated Gospel books Paris 54 s innovations are a testament to the extraordinary circumstances of its commission Maxwell s multi disciplinary approach includes codicological and paleographical evidence together with New Testament textual criticism artistic and historical analysis She concludes that

Paris 54 was never intended to copy any other manuscript. Rather, it was designed to eclipse its contemporaries and to physically embody a new relationship between Constantinople and the Latin West as envisioned by its patron. Analysis of Paris 54's texts and miniature cycle indicates that it was created at the behest of a Byzantine emperor as a gift to a pope in conjunction with imperial efforts to unify the Latin and Orthodox churches. As such, Paris 54 is a unique witness to early Palaeologan attempts to achieve church union with Rome.

The Jaharis Gospel Lectionary John Lowden, 2009. Until 2008, the Jaharis Lectionary was a hidden treasure: an illuminated Byzantine manuscript that was almost entirely unknown even to scholars. Superbly preserved, it is arguably the most important Byzantine work to come to the Metropolitan Museum's renowned collection since the 1917 gifts of J. Pierpont Morgan. It represents the apogee of Constantinopolitan craftsmanship around the year 1100. In this important study, John Lowden, a leading expert on Byzantine manuscripts, discusses his discoveries about this extraordinary manuscript within the broader context of Byzantine book illumination. He traces the book's history from its acquisition to its production in Constantinople. By detailed analysis and comparison, the author shows how the manuscript was made for use in the patriarchal church of Hagia Sophia.

Jesus, the Gospels, and Cinematic Imagination Jeffrey Lloyd Staley, Richard G. Walsh, 2007-01-01. Movies about the life of Jesus continue to be a fascinating way to consider how the Gospels present an image and a narrative of Jesus. In Jesus, the Gospels, and Cinematic Imagination, Jeffrey Staley and Richard Walsh use their biblical knowledge and admiration for films to summarize eighteen popular Jesus movies and to show exactly where each movie parallels the Gospel accounts of Jesus's life. The authors provide teachers and students easy access to both Gospel and film parallels, enhancing the value of these select films as teaching tools and useful resources for pastors, those leading discussions of films, and libraries.
