The Pictorial Key to the Tarot Arthur Waite, 2020-01-27 It is regrettable in several respects that I must confess to certain reservations but there is a question of honour at issue Furthermore between the follies on the one side of those who know nothing of the tradition yet are in their own opinion the exponents of something called occult science and philosophy and on the other side between the make believe of a few writers who have received part of the tradition and think that it constitutes a legal title to scatter dust in the eyes of the world without I feel that the time has come to say what it is possible to say so that the effect of current charlatanism and unintelligence may be reduced to a minimum

We shall see in due course that the history of Tarot cards is largely of a negative kind and that when the issues are cleared by the dissipation of reveries and gratuitous speculations expressed in the terms of certitude there is in fact no history prior to the fourteenth century. The deception and self deception regarding their origin in Egypt India or China put a lying spirit into the mouths of the first expositors and the later occult writers have done little more than reproduce the first false testimony in the good faith of an intelligence unawakened to the issues of research. As it so happens all expositions have worked within a very narrow range and owe comparatively speaking little to the inventive faculty. One brilliant opportunity has at least been missed for it has not so far occurred to any one that the Tarot might perhaps have done duty and even originated as a secret symbolical language of the Albigensian sects. I commend this suggestion to the lineal descendants in the spirit of Gabriele Rossetti and Eugene Aron to Mr Harold Bayley as another New Light on the Renaissance and as a taper at least in the darkness which with great respect might be serviceable to the zealous and all searching mind of Mrs Cooper Oakley. Think only what the supposed testimony of watermarks on paper might gain from the Tarot card of the Pope or Hierophant in connexion with the notion of a secret Albigensian patriarch of which Mr Bayley has found in these same watermarks so much material to his purpose. Think only for a moment about the card of the High Priestess as representing the Albigensian church itself and think of the Tower struck by Lightning as typifying the desired destruction of Papal Rome the city on the seven hills with the pontiff and his temporal power cast down from the spiritual edifice when it is riven by the wrath of God. The possibilities are so numerous and persuasive that they almost deceive in their expression one of the elect who has invented them. But there is more even than this though I scarcely dare to cite it. When the time came for the Tarot cards to be the subject of their first formal explanation the archaeologist Court de Gebelin reproduced some of their most important emblems and if I may so term it the codex which he used has served by means of his engraved plates as a basis of reference for many sets that have been issued subsequently. The figures are very primitive and differ as such from the cards of Etteilla the Marseilles Tarot and others still current in France. I am not a good judge in such matters but the fact that every one of the Trumps Major might have answered for watermark purposes is shewn by the cases which I have quoted and by one most remarkable example of the Ace of Cups.

The Illustrated Key to the Tarot, 1918     The Illustrated Key to the Tarot L. de Laurence, 2013-08-28

The little treatise which follows is divided into three parts in the first of which I have dealt with the antiquities of the subject and a few things that arise from and connect therewith. It should be understood that it is not put forward as a contribution to the history of playing cards about which I know and care nothing it is a consideration dedicated and addressed to a certain school of occultism more especially in France as to the source and center of all the phantasmagoria which has entered into expression during the last fifty years under the pretense of considering Tarot cards historically. In the second part I have dealt with the symbolism according to some of its higher aspects and this also serves to introduce the complete and rectified Tarot which is available separately in the form of colored cards the designs of which are added to the present text in black and white They have been prepared under my supervision in respect of the attributions and meanings by a lady who has high claims as an artist Regarding the divinatory part by which my thesis is terminated I consider it personally as a fact in the history of the Tarot as such I have drawn from all published sources a harmony of the meanings which have been attached to the various cards and I have given prominence to one method of working that has not been published previously having the merit of simplicity while it is also of universal application it may be held to replace the cumbrous and involved systems of the larger hand books      Illustrated Key to the Tarot L.
