Perennial Questions J Krishnamurti, 2022-09-09 What is necessary is to examine unemotionally not merely intellectually the intellect doesn't solve any problem it can only invent a lot of ideas theories Nor can emotion dissipate the urgency of the problems that one has to face and resolve What is necessary it seems to me is a mind that is capable of examination To examine there must be freedom from personal views with a mind that is not guided by one's own temperament inclination nor is compelled by circumstances it seems to me that one must look at them not as an individual but as a human being the human being supercedes the individual human beings have the same common factor of sorrow of joy of unresolved miseries despairs the immense loneliness of modern existence the utter meaninglessness of life as it is lived now throughout the world if we could consider these problems as human beings then perhaps we can intelligently with care resolve our problems An extensive compendium of Krishnamurti's talks and discussions in the USA Europe India New Zealand and South Africa from 1933 to 1967 the Collected Works have been carefully authenticated against existing transcripts and tapes Each volume includes a frontispiece photograph of Krishnamurti with question and subject indexes at the end The content of each volume is not limited to the subject of the title but rather offers a unique view of Krishnamurti's extraordinary teachings in selected years The Collected Works offers the reader the opportunity to explore the early writings and dialogues in their most complete and authentic form
