The Diary of a Space Traveller and other Stories Satyajit Ray, 2015-07-05 It all began with the fall of a meteorite and the crater it made In its centre was a red notebook sticking out of the ground the first or was it really the last of Professor Shonku's diaries Professor Trilokeshwar Shonku eccentric genius and scientist disappeared without a trace after he shot off into space in a rocket from his backyard in Giridih accompanied by his loyal but not too intelligent servant Prahlad his cat Newton and Bidhushekhhar his robot with an attitude What has become of the professor Has he decided to stay on in Mars his original destination Or has he found his way to some other planet and is living there with strange companions His last diary tells an incredible story Other diaries unearthed from his abandoned laboratory reveal stranger and even more exciting adventures involving a ferocious sadhu a revengeful mummy and a mad scientist in Norway who turns famous men into six inch statues Exciting imaginative and funny the stories in this collection capture the sheer magic of Ray's lucid language elegant style graphic descriptions and absurd humour The indomitable Professor Shonku has returned to win himself over a whole new band of followers

The Unicorn Expedition Satyajit Ray, 2004-06-21 Professor Shonku cannot dismiss without proof the possibility that unicorns do exist somewhere on earth In fact Charles Willard a fellow scientist claimed to have actually seen them in Tibet but unfortunately died shortly afterwards So when Shonku learns that another expedition is starting off for Tibet he jumps at the opportunity to trace Willard's route and find the unicorns. Tibet is just one of the exotic places Professor Shonku's exploits take him in this volume of stories. In the Sahara he comes face to face with a massive pyramid-like structure no one knew of earlier. He travels underwater in a submarine with two Japanese scientists to investigate the sudden appearance of deadly red fish that have taken to eating humans. In the caves of Bolivia he meets a primitive man who has been painting his dwelling with animal figures and strange mathematical formulae. And on a peculiar island which has appeared out of nowhere in the Pacific Ocean, horrific plants suck out all his learning from his brain.

Contributed articles Final Adventures of Professor Shonku Ray Satyajit, 2020-05-02 Just at the stroke of the half hour the floor under our feet shook and in that very instant the sphere exploded into a thousand bits and scattered on the floor. Then from the ruins was heard an eerie disembodied voice declaiming 'I know what comes after death.' In this last volume of Professor Shonku's escapades the brilliant and benevolent scientist travels around the world once more to face near-death situations. Each nerve-racking experience is faithfully recorded in his diary. We learn of Shonku being outwitted by his own invention, the Tellus computer; his helplessness when his arch-rival in Rome deliberately misplaces his wonder drug, Miracurall; and the thrilling discovery of a three and a half thousand year old sparkling diamond necklace and a papyrus in an ancient tomb in Cairo. Join the incredible Shonku on his many exhilarating adventures accompanied by his two long-time friends, his feline companion Newton and his faithful retainer Prahlad. Presented in a brilliant translation by Indrani Majumdar and the late author, this volume brings alive the wildly imaginative world of the weird and wonderful Professor Shonku.
