The Institutions Of Art:

The Institutions of Art Peter Bürger, Christa Bürger, 1992-01-01 Art has been an umbrella term for poetry music dance sculpture painting and architecture since the end of the eighteenth century when the bourgeoisie were establishing their hegemony over culture and politics in Germany labor was becoming more clearly divided and religion was losing its unifying force Art became a broad and separate entity as the expectations and experience of it changed The Institutions of Art concentrates on German and French literature in illustrating the formation of aesthetic autonomy and the divergence between high and popular culture Peter Bürger builds on his earlier Theory of the Avant Garde 1984 pushing further into key theoretical questions about art and society Christa Bürger extends the critique to the history of the novel focusing on Goethe and Kleist Looking backward to feudalism and forward to our century the authors show how the function of art has changed along with the criteria for its production and evaluation

The Politics of Contemporary Art Biennials Panos Kompatsiaris, 2017-03-31 Contemporary art biennials are sites of prestige innovation and experimentation where the category of art is meant to be in perpetual motion rearranged and redefined opening itself to the world and its contradictions They are sites of a seemingly peaceful cohabitation between the elitist and the popular where the likes of Jeff Koons encounter the likes of Guy Debord where Angela Davis and Frantz Fanon share the same ground with neoliberal cultural policy makers and creative entrepreneurs Building on the legacy of events that conjoin art critical theory and counterculture from Nova Convention to documenta X the new biennial blends the modalities of protest with a neoliberal politics of creativity This book examines a strained period for these high art institutions a period when their politics are brought into question and often boycotted in the context of austerity crisis and the rise of Occupy cultures Using the 3rd Athens Biennale and the 7th Berlin Biennale as its main case studies it looks at how the in built tensions between the domains of art and politics take shape when spectacular displays attempt to operate as immediate activist sites Drawing on ethnographic research and contemporary cultural theory this book argues that biennials both denunciate the aesthetic as bourgeois category and simultaneously replicate and diffuse an exclusive sociability across social landscapes
